WHO Report on the Global Tobacco Epidemic 2015: Raising Taxes on Tobacco World Health

Organization, 2015-07-31 This report the fifth in the series of WHO reports on the global tobacco epidemic presents a country level examination of the epidemic and identifies countries that have applied effective tobacco control measures The number of people worldwide protected by effective tobacco control measures continues to grow and countries that have adopted these measures at the highest level of achievement can be considered models for action for those countries that have yet to do so The focus of this report is raising taxes on tobacco the R component of MPOWER Time and again increasing taxes on tobacco products to increase retail prices has been proven to be the most effective and efficient of the best buy demand reduction measures to reduce tobacco use And yet it is also the least widely implemented measure European Integration and Space Policy Thomas Hoerber, Antonella Forganni, 2020-12-21 This volume addresses developments in European space policy and its significance for European integration using discourse theory as a framework It seeks to address the developments in European space policy by examining several sensitive security questions linked in general with space activities on the one hand and the interplay between space policy and security policy in the European Union EU on the other The book argues that defence and security matters should be studied for a better understanding of space projects in their historical political economic legal and social context The volume seeks to answer the following key questions What can space policy contribute to European identity formation and the integration process What are the interests of member states EU institutions in space How is space policy perceived by European institutions and how have they been engaged in the policy process to promote activity in space In which ways is the EU engaged in space in terms of policy areas e.g. foreign policy industrial policy security and defence policies What is the impact of institutions on the policy making process in European space policy This book will be of interest to students of EU policy space policy discourse studies and International Relations in general OECD Development Co-operation Peer Reviews: United Kingdom 2014 OECD,2014-12-17 This peer review of United Kingdom reviews its development policies and programmes It assesses not just the performance of its development co operation agency but also policy and implementation Forest Preservation in a Changing Climate Sébastien Jodoin,2017-10-05 This book provides a comprehensive socio legal examination of how global efforts to fight climate change by reducing carbon emissions in the forestry sector known as REDD have affected the rights of indigenous peoples and local communities in developing countries Grounded in extensive qualitative empirical research conducted globally the book shows that the transnational legal process for REDD has created both serious challenges and unexpected opportunities for the recognition and protection of indigenous and community rights It reveals that the pursuit of REDD has resulted in important variations in how human rights standards are understood and applied across multiple sites of law in the field of REDD with mixed results for indigenous peoples and local communities in Indonesia and Tanzania With its original findings rigorous research design and interdisciplinary analytical framework this book will make a valuable contribution to the study of transnational legal processes in a globalizing world This title is also available as Open Access Minerals Yearbook Mines Bureau,Geological Survey,Interior Department,2018-04-19 Minerals Yearbook 2014 V 3 Area Reports International Asia and the Pacific Volume III Area Reports International is published as four separate reports These regional reports contain the latest available minerals data on more than 180 foreign countries and discuss the importance of minerals to the economies of these nations and the United States Each report begins with an overview of the region s mineral industries during the year It continues with individual country chapters that examine the mining refining processing and use of minerals in each country of the region and how each country s mineral industry relates to U S industry Most chapters include production tables and industry structure tables information about Government policies and programs that affect the country s mineral industry and an outlook section Green Jobs for Sustainable Development Ana-Maria Boromisa,Sanja Tišma,Anastasya Ležaić,2015-06-26 A green economy must be built on green jobs the kind of employment that is low carbon intended to reduce energy use and expected to restore environmental quality But attempts to define exactly what a green job is have led to varied and often contradictory answers There are many unresolved questions including whether we consider jobs in the nuclear fuel industry to be green jobs Or is a worker at a glass making company which supplies the glass for the solar photovoltaic industry doing a green job given that glass making is a dirty industry This book deals with the relationship between green concepts green jobs green economy green growth and sustainable development It examines to which extent creation of green jobs supports overall economic development as opposed to creation of elitist jobs and greenwashing In order to do so general conceptual frameworks for green jobs green economy green growth and green policy are presented as well as their implementation in ten countries selected among the Group of Twenty The selection includes advanced the European Union the United States of America Australia Canada Republic of Korea Japan and developing countries Mexico

China Turkey and Brazil The analysis presented in this book shows that although green concept is well intentioned its implementation depends on local circumstances economic political and social Developed countries perceive green growth as a way to create new markets and demand while developing countries rely more on labor intensive growth and less expensive green jobs Thus greening the economy does not diminish differences between rich and poor This book is suitable for those who study and work in Ecological Economics Sustainable Development and Labor Economics Iraq's Oil and Gas Industry Janan Al-Asady,2019-06-11 Oil an integral part of the contemporary global economy is considered a driving force behind the 2003 invasion of Iraq Hydrocarbon reserves in Iraq have a significant role to play in global supply with oil revenue accounting for more than 90% of Iraqi government income This book provides a comprehensive insight into the key foundations of Iraq s oil industry and assists in the development of a core area of domestic law to promote economic recovery following years of instability It addresses the development of oil legislation and the formation of contracts since the US and allied occupation of Iraq in 2003 Legislation is assessed against the framework of the constitution along with the different types of oil agreements and their terms The book looks at three main aspects of oil legislation beginning with the validity and interpretation of the constitution as any subsequent legislation governing oil policy will be based upon this The work then discusses whether the draft oil and gas law of 2007 and any subsequent oil legislation including the law implemented by the Kurdish Regional Government in 2007 is valid Finally the book analyses the legitimacy of oil agreements entered into by the central and regional governments and whether these contain terms beneficial to the state and contracting party Providing an in depth analysis of the origins and development of the legal framework of the oil industry in Iraq the book acts as both a reference source and a springboard for future research across a range of legal economic and policy perspectives It will appeal to practitioners and academics working in energy law and international investment law as well as policy makers legal advisors and those working in governments and energy companies The Application of the European Convention on Human Rights to Military Operations Stuart Wallace,2019-04-11 The European Convention on Human Rights is being applied to military operations of every kind from internal operations in Russia and Turkey to international armed conflicts in Iraq Ukraine and elsewhere This book exposes the challenge that this development presents to the integrity and universality of Convention rights Can states realistically investigate all instances where life is lost during military operations Can the Convention offer the same level of protection to soldiers in combat as it does to its citizens at home How can we reconcile the application of the Convention with other international law applicable to military operations This book offers detailed analysis of how the Convention applies to military operations of all kinds It highlights the creeping relativism of the standards applied by the European Court of Human Rights to military operations and offers guidance on how to interpret and apply the Convention to military operations Trade Policy Review ,2021 Overview of Low-Carbon Development Xiangwan Du,Dadi Zhou,Qingchen Chao,Zongguo Wen,Taoli Huhe,Qiang Liu,2019-09-17 This book introduces readers to the status quo and recent advances in China's low carbon development From the evolution of human civilization to the proposal of low carbon concepts up to the choice of China's low carbon path the book provides a comprehensive review of low carbon development while also elaborating on the core concept goals and methods In addition it addresses a series of questions and issues closely tied to today's social development such as Why is it so vital to pursue low carbon development and How can China implement low carbon development Accordingly readers will gain a better grasp of low carbon development including low carbon production and low carbon lifestyles

Race Rights Reparations Fernne Brennan, 2017-07-14 This book considers institutional racism as a problem that exists within modern societies Its roots lie with the transatlantic slave trade and slavery and the solution involves ridding society of the problem It is argued here that first there needs to be an acceptance of its existence then developing the tools needed to deal with it and finally to implement those tools so that institutional racism can be permanently removed from society The book has four themes the first considers the nature of institutional racism the second theme looks at instances of institutional racism through matters such as deaths in custody and skin lightening the third considers the concept of reparations and the final area looks at the development of social movements as a way of pushing institutional racism up the political agenda The development of a social movement is part of a social discourse which would for example push mentoring as a form of reparations There is a need for more research on the manifestations of institutional racism and this book is part of that discourse It is argued that the legacy of the slave trade and slavery is continuing and contemporary through the presence of institutional racism in society This problem has not been addressed through legislation and policies devised to combat racial discrimination Institutional racism needs to be understood as being located in the processes and procedures of societal institutions
