Developmental Assets and Asset-Building Communities Richard M. Lerner,Peter L. Benson,2012-12-06 Developmental Assets and Asset Building Communities examines the relationships of developmental assets to other approaches and bodies of work It raises challenges about the asset building approach and offers recommendations for how this approach can be strengthened and broadened in impact and research In doing so this book extends the scholarly base for the understanding of the character and scope of the systemic relation between young people s healthy development and the nature of developmentally attentive communities The chapters in this volume present evidence that asset building communities both promote and are promoted by positive youth development a bi directional systemic linkage that consistent with developmental systems theory further civil society by building relationship and intergenerational places within a community that are united in attending to the developmental needs of children and adolescents

Not Much Just Chillin' Linda Perlstein,2003-09-04 A report from the front lines of the most formative and least understood years of children's lives Suddenly they go from striving for A's to barely passing or obsessing for hours over boyfriends they've barely spoken to Former chatterboxes answer in monosyllables free thinkers mimic their peers clothes not to mention their opinions Bodies and psyches morph under the most radical changes since infancy On the surface they're just chillin Underneath they're a stew of anxiety and ardor conformity and rebellion They are kids in the middle school years the age every adult remembers well enough to dread No one understands them not parents not teachers least of all themselves no one that is until Linda Perlstein spent a year immersed in the lives of suburban Maryland middle schoolers and emerged with this pathbreaking account The book traverses the school year following five representative kids and including the stories of many more as they study party IM each other and simply explain what they think and feel As Perlstein writes about what she saw and heard she explains what's really going on under the don't touch me facade of these critically formative years in which kids grapple with schoolwork puberty romance identity and new kinds of relationships with their parents and peers Not Much Just Chillin offers a trail map to the baffling no man's land between child and teen the time when children don't want to grow up and so badly do Juvenile Justice, 2000 Parenting with Reason Esther Yoder Strahan, Wallace E.
