Antiques To Die For P. L. Hartman, Sixteen dealers sixteen keys What a nightmare exclaimed the detective A body has been discovered in a blanket chest at Cider Run Antiques Could there be a murderer among the dealers at the popular and picturesque shop Marv retired history professor and founding partner doesn't think so even though these are people with strong passions about antiques and occasionally each other Things had gone so well the first two years the historic 18th century stone building a perfect backdrop to showcase antiques Everyone was enthusiastic antiques savvy and caught up in their new venture The shop was a stunning success Yet there must have been something beneath the surface of high spirited banter and good times something unseen that would culminate in tragedy The dealers decide to hold a marathon talk session to help solve the murder but will the answer destroy Cider Run Antiques To Die For is both a mystery and a glimpse into the dynamics of a thriving antiques business Set in the Appalachians of central Pennsylvania the story combines history antiques lore lively shop interplay and collectors obsessions to tell its tale

Rachel's Children Steve Beard, 2004-06-22 Rachel's Children is a true story based on real events It is an engaging and humorous account of a contemporary Ojibwa household and the woman and her children who are at its core As their lives unfold we understand how traditional beliefs and oral history help Rachel and her family cope as they encounter racism and educational discrimination in rural northern Michigan When a white educator arrives in Rachel's household to learn about Indians she discovers the harsh reality of backwoods life Beardslee is the queen of sucker punches she writes in an unexpected combination of ethnography theatrical script and novel echoing the Ojibwa style of storytelling Her absorbing story about survival of the Native American family encourages a greater understanding of cultural diversity and will be valuable for instructors in Native studies multicultural education women's studies and anthropology

One Zero Charlie Laurence Gonzales,2015-12-08 Galt Airport in northern Illinois is known to the people who fly out of it as One Zero Charlie for its FAA designation as Airport 10C This evocative excursion into a little known part of the heart of America takes us to a place where a love of flying draws people together and a fascination with its sheer exhilaration keeps them that way

The Doom Statues Jason McGathe,2021-12-10 When a dormant artists retreat reopens a group of creatively inclined strangers cannot resist its charms None of them find it odd that the locals steer clear of the place at least not initially Long before the property's dark past reveals itself to them however they begin to realize this retreat offers more than they signed up for That they may not escape this place any more than they can themselves and only the strongest can survive this twisted terrain

Down on the Farm, Way Back When Stephen Nelson,2024-12-18 Dad would warn me to stay back from the barn door when he let the cows out for the first time at the end of a long winter After taking a few steps outside you might see a mature cow do something you wouldn't expect Jump in the air Quite a feat considering a mature cow weighs about 1 500 pounds Stephen Nelson's childhood memories are an impressionist painting of another time a time when each family on the shared phone line had a particular ring and a time when a little boy carefully carried buckets of fresh warm milk to feed the calves by hand There's a lot that people who've never lived on a family farm don't know and with farms consolidating fewer and bigger snapshots like Stephen's are a rare breed This collection is rich with sights sounds scents not just the obvious one and the kind of details only someone who's been there can tell you Down on the Farm Way Back When is a walk down memory lane for those who know and a time machine for those who don't
