Out Of Egypt A Memoir:

Out of Egypt André Aciman, 2007-01-23 A chronicle of a Jewish family from its bold arrival in Egypt at the turn of the century to its defeated exodus three generations later      Out of Egypt André Aciman, 2019-02-05 From the Sunday Times bestselling author of Call Me by Your Name and Find Me a memoir of an extraordinary life A mesmerizing portrait of a now vanished world Aciman's story of Alexandria is the story of his own family a Jewish family with Italian and Turkish roots that tied its future to Egypt and made its home there for three generations only to find itself peremptorily expelled by the Government in the early 1960s It is the story of a fractious clan of dreamers and con men and the emotional price they would pay for exile the story of a young boy's coming of age and his memories of the city he loved in his youth Writing in lucid lyrical prose Mr Aciman does an exquisite job of conjuring up the daily rhythms and rituals of his family's life their weekly trips to the movies their daily jaunts to the beach their internecine squabbles over everything from religion to money to the pronunciation of words There are some wonderfully vivid scenes here as strange and marvelous as something in Garcia Marquez as comical and surprising as something in Chekhov Michiko Kakutani New York Times Aciman's latest novel Find Me is now available for preorder in paperback      Out of Egypt, 1979      Consilium Ægyptiacum. Leibnitz's Memoir upon Egypt. (Repr from the Law mag. and review). sir Travers Twiss, 1883      On the Mediterranean and the Nile Aimée Israel-Pelletier, 2018-03-12 Aimée Israel Pelletier examines the lives of Middle Eastern Jews living in Islamic societies in this political and cultural history of the Jews of Egypt By looking at the work of five Egyptian Jewish writers Israel Pelletier confronts issues of identity exile language immigration Arab nationalism European colonialism and discourse on the Holocaust She illustrates that the Jews of Egypt were a fluid community connected by deep roots to the Mediterranean and the Nile They had an unshakable sense of being Egyptian until the country turned toward the Arab East With Israel Pelletier's deft handling Jewish Egyptian writing offers an insider's view in the unique character of Egyptian Jewry and the Jewish presence across the Mediterranean region and North Africa      Memoir of the Egypt Exploration Society, 1890      In Ishmael's House Martin Gilbert, 2011-09-20 From one of the most popular historians writing today comes a book as fascinating as the bestsellers of Karen Armstrong and Reza Aslan In this captivating chronicle Martin Gilbert shines new light on a controversial dilemma in the modern world the troubled relationship between Jews and Muslims Beginning at the dawn of Islam and sweeping from the Atlantic Ocean to the mountains of Afghanistan Gilbert presents the first popular and authoritative history of Jewish peoples under Muslim rule He confronts with wisdom and compassion the stormy events in their dramatic story including anti Zionist movements and the forced exodus to Israel He also gives special attention to the twentieth century and to the current political debate about refugee status and restitution Throughout Gilbert weaves a compelling narrative of perseverance struggle and renewal marked by surprising moments of tolerance and partnership A monumental and timely book Jews under Muslim Rule is a crowning achievement that confirms Martin Gilbert as one of the foremost historians of our time      Historians, State and Politics in Twentieth Century Egypt Anthony Gorman, 2012-11-12 This book deals with the relationship between historical scholarship and politics in twentieth century Egypt It examines the changing roles of the academic historian the university system the state and non academic scholarship and the tension between them in contesting the modern history of Egypt In a detailed discussion of the literature the study analyzes the political nature of competing interpretations and uses the examples of Copts and resident foreigners to demonstrate the dissonant challenges to the national discourse that testify to its limitations deficiencies and silences

Symbolism 2018 Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2018-10-08 This special issue of Symbolism An International Annual of Critical Aesthetics explores the various functions of metaphor in life writing Looking at a range of autobiographical subgenres pathography disability narratives memoirs of migration autofiction and different kinds of metaphors the contributions seek to map the possibilities of metaphor for narratively framing an individual life and for constructing notions of selfhood      Writing-between-Worlds Ottmar Ette, 2016-02-22 This book proposes that there is no better no more complex way to access a community a society an era and its cultures than through literature For millennia literature from a wide variety of geocultural areas has gathered knowledge about life about survival and about living together without either falling into discursive or disciplinary specializations or functioning as a regulatory mechanism for cultural knowledge Literature is able to offer its readers knowledge through direct participation in the form of step by step intellectual and affective experiences Through this ability it can reach and affect audiences across great spatial and temporal distances Literature what different times and cultures have been able to understand as such in a broad sense has always been characterized by its transareal and transcultural origins and effects It is the product of many logics and it teaches us to think polylogically rather than monologically Literature is an experiment in living and living in a state of experimentation About the author Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam Germany since 1995 He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America MLA elected in 2014 member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities elected in 2013 and regular member of the Academia Europaea since 2010

Censorship and Exile Johanna Hartmann, Hubert Zapf, 2015 The collection Censorship and Exile focuses on the interrelations between the experience of exile and mechanisms of censorship In the phenomenon of censorship the intersections and reciprocal tensions of the cultural and political spheres become drastically apparent Literature as a form of cultural expression reacts to and criticizes ideological premises of certain political contexts It thus represents a counter discourse to processes of canonization that are prescribed and violently put into action by oppressive political regimes Within the respective political contexts people who demanded liberties such as freedom of speech or artistic freedom often found themselves forced into exile or internal emigration The present volume focuses on these continuities and discontinuities on commonly shared features as well as the heterogeneous manifestations of exile literature s in the face of practices of censorship and the repression of free speech and artistic freedom in Germany the US and beyond The collection comprises contributions that shed light on the interrelation of censorship and exile from comparative historical political and creative perspectives

Inga Scott Farris, 2016-10-30 Inga Arvad was the great love of President John F Kennedy's life and also Adolf Hitler's special guest at the 1936 Berlin Olympics She was an actress a foreign correspondent a popular Washington columnist an explorer who lived among a tribe of headhunters one of Hollywood's most influential gossip columnists and a suspected Nazi spy The latter nearly got Kennedy cashiered out of the Navy but instead set in motion the chain of events that led to him becoming a war hero Inga lived where gossip intersects with history and her story as told by author Scott Farris in Inga is a rollicking story that demonstrates how private lives influence public events It is also a Hitchcockian tale of how difficult it can be to prove innocence when unjustly accused and how as Inga phrased it what was once a halo can slip down and become a hangman's noose In addition to her romance with Kennedy and the attention of Hitler Arvad married three times to an Egyptian diplomat who insisted they never had divorced the brilliant filmmaker Paul Fejos whom Charlie Chaplin considered a genius and the famed cowboy movie star Tim McCoy She also had affairs with noted surgeon Dr William Cahan the prolific writer John Gunther and Winston's Churchill's right hand man Baron Robert Boothby She was pursued by Wall Street financier Bernard Baruch and Swedish industrialist Axel Wenner Gren reputedly the richest man in the world at the time offered her 1 million to have his child Inga was Miss Denmark of 1931 but by all accounts her admirers among the European and American elite loved Inga not for her physical beauty alone but for her joie de vivre She was a genius with people she was daring and adventurous and she was their equal in intellect Like Isak Dinesen and Clare Boothe Luce Inga Arvad led a life that both sheds light on and defies the stereotypes of women of her time

Alexandrian Cosmopolitanism Hala Halim, 2013-09-19 Interrogating how Alexandria became enshrined as the exemplary cosmopolitan space in the Middle East this book mounts a radical critique of Eurocentric conceptions of cosmopolitanism The dominant account of Alexandrian cosmopolitanism elevates things European in the city's culture and simultaneously places things Egyptian under the sign of decline The book goes beyond this civilization barbarism binary to trace other modes of intercultural solidarity Halim presents a comparative study of literary representations addressing poetry fiction guidebooks and operettas among other genres She reappraises three writers C P Cavafy E M Forster and Lawrence Durrell whom she maintains have been cast as the canon of Alexandria Attending to issues of genre gender ethnicity and class she refutes the view that these writers' representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anti colonial The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his Camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on Cavafy Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers' engagement with the canonical triumvirate Halim orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations

The Description of Egypt from Napoleon to Champollion Tamar Sarfatti, 2022-12-01 This book is the first study in English of the multi volume set of texts and engravings of the Description of Egypt a work produced following the three year long Egyptian campaign led by Napoleon Bonaparte in 1798 The book challenges the conventional and rather reductive interpretation of the Description that followed Edward Said's Orientalism as a summation of an orientalist colonial project It re-centres the Description in the much more complex and dynamic political and intellectual world of France of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century and its colonial aspirations It follows closely the notes texts and illustrations of the contributors to the work the majority of whom were graduates of the first years of the Polytechnic school in Paris and the well documented editing process that continued for almost thirty years in which France moved from Revolution to Empire and Restoration It shows the ways in which scholarly traditions and newly acquired skills interplay with Enlightenment texts contemporary politics and received ideas about antiquity and how these were reinterpreted and modified in texts and illustrations through the encounter with the physical and social worlds of Ottoman Egypt Using the rich repository of the Description of Egypt the book demonstrates the contribution of antiquarian methods of research to the emerging disciplines of the social sciences
