A Homeric Catalogue of Shapes Charlayn von Solms,2019-11-14 In the popular imagination Homer as author of the Iliad and the Odyssey epitomises poetic genius So when scholars proposed that the Homeric epics were not the unique creation of an individual author but instead reflected a traditional compositional system developed by generations of singer poets swathes of assumptions about the poems and their author were swept aside and called into question Much had to be re evaluated through a new lens The creative process described by scholars for the Homeric epics shares many key attributes with the modern visual art forms of collage and its less familiar variant sculptural assemblage A Homeric Catalogue of Shapes describes a series of twelve sculptures that together function as an abstract portrait of Homer not a depiction of him as an individual but as a compositional system The technique by which the artworks were produced reflects the poetic method that scholars termed oral formulaic In both of these creative processes the artwork is constructed from pre existing elements such as phrases characters and plot lines in the epics and objects fragmented items and borrowed forms in the sculptures The artist author presents a largely unknown characterisation of Homeric poetics in a manner that emphasizes the extent and complexity of this Homer s artistry Now Listen Here Chris Van Wyk,2003 This revealing biography details the life of Bill Jardine anti apartheid activist and noted sportsman who played a key role in racially unifying sports and facilitating South African participation internationally South African Foreign Policy Review: Volume 1 Chris Landsberg,Jo-Ansie van Wyk,2012-12-27 The richness of public and academic discourses on the past present and future direction of South Africas role in Africa and the world suggests that as a sub discipline of politics South African foreign policy is ready for a systematic and regular appraisal in the form of a series of publications that the Institute for Global Dialogue will call South African Foreign Policy Review This is also because constant changes in international and domestic circumstances impinge on the management and analysis of South Africas foreign policy This the first review provides an important opportunity to build on existing foreign policy works in order to take stock of the road already travelled in the past decade or so This is crucial in laying some basis for anticipating the countrys future role and considering the opportunities and challenges which future volumes of the review will consider This volume provides a wide ranging appraisal of the relationship between stated foreign policy goals and actual outputs and outcomes an assessment of how foreign policy has actually been operationalized and implemented To this end common themes in South African foreign policy provide the framework for the first review These include foreign policy decision making soft power dynamics in the foreign policys strategic calculus diplomatic tools used economic diplomacy peace diplomacy and paradiplomacy South Africas relations with key states in Africa in the global south and in the global north South Africas approach to Africa multilateral global multilateralism governance The review hopes to stimulate further discussion and thinking on the challenges confronted and the future shape and direction of South Africas foreign policy Data Structures and C Programs Christopher J. Van Wyk,1990 A History of South African

Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world
