Outsiders Text Interaction Guide:

Retrieving the Crip Outsider Someshwar Sati, 2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability

Theatre & War Nandita Dinesh, 2019-07-05 In Theatre she describes various projects that she has undertaken on the ground she theorizes strategies that might be useful to other practitioner researchers who are involved in similar work In this sequel of sorts Dinesh chooses to return to the same themes of theatre of war But this time she intentionally crafts her notes from afar From somewhere outside the field From somewhere outside the practice And yet a somewhere that is consumed by the field And the practice Through writing that seeks to do through writing that seeks to perform Dinesh use different voices in this book Voices that come from more traditional archival sources which are then re conceptualized as drama Voices that come from sources that occupy the space between archived and lived experience which are then shaped into creative vignettes Voices that come from Dinesh s repertoire her own lived experiences that are then crafted as flash fiction about past present future collaborators By weaving together variously positioned experiences and voices through creative re interpretations Theatre it is also a book that could be performed
