Ornament And Illusion Carlo Crivelli Of Venice:

Ornament & Illusion C. Jean Campbell, Francesco De Carolis, Thomas Golsenne, Gianfranco Pocobene, Oliver Tostmann, Alison Wright, 2015 The work of Carlo Crivelli c 1435 c 1495 one of the most original artists of the Italian Renaissance is well represented in the art museums of North America Although much admired by collectors artists and designers in the 19th and early 20th centuries he has until recently been largely written out of the history of early Renaissance art is little known to the public and outside of some rare instances in Italy has never been the focus of a monographic exhibition The book accompanying an exhibition at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum Boston will reevaluate Crivelli's provincial status presenting him as an experimental artist who provided an alternative to the influential new models of modern painting associated with Florence He was an artist who aimed to dazzle through a repertoire of spectacular pictorial effects that combined luxuriant ornamental display with bravura illusionism the latter entailing a sophisticated witty and sometimes unsettling play with the limits of frames and fictive space Hybridity in Early Modern Art Ashley Elston, Madeline Rislow, 2021-09-15 This collection of essays explores hybridity in early modern art through two primary lenses hybrid media and hybrid time The varied approaches in the volume to theories of hybridity reflect the increased presence in art historical scholarship of interdisciplinary frameworks that extend art historical inquiry beyond the single time or material The essays engage with what happens when an object is considered beyond the point of origin or as a legend of information the implications of the juxtaposition of disparate media how the meaning of an object alters over time and what the conspicuous use of out of date styles means for the patron artist and or viewer Essays examine both canonical and lesser known works produced by European artists in Italy northern Europe and colonial Peru ca 1400 1600 The book will be of interest to art historians visual culture historians and early modern historians The Sacred Home in Renaissance Italy Abigail Brundin, Deborah Howard, Mary Laven, 2018-07-11 The Sacred Home in Renaissance Italy explores the rich devotional life of the Italian household between 1450 and 1600 Rejecting the enduring stereotype of the Renaissance as a secular age this interdisciplinary study reveals the home to have been an important site of spiritual revitalization Books buildings objects spaces images and archival sources are scrutinized to cast new light on the many ways in which religion infused daily life within the household Acts of devotion from routine prayers to extraordinary religious experiences such as miracles and visions frequently took place at home amid the joys and trials of domestic life from childbirth and marriage to sickness and death Breaking free from the usual focus on Venice Florence and Rome The Sacred Home investigates practices of piety across the Italian peninsula with particular attention paid to the city of Naples the Marche and the Venetian mainland It also looks beyond the elite to consider artisanal and lower status households and reveals gender and age as factors that powerfully conditioned religious experience Recovering a host of lost voices and compelling narratives at the intersection between the divine and the everyday The Sacred Home offers unprecedented glimpses through the keyhole into the spiritual lives of Renaissance Italians The Endless Periphery Stephen J. Campbell, 2019-11-26 While the masterpieces of the Italian Renaissance are usually associated with Italy's historical seats of power some of the era's most characteristic works are to be found in places other than Florence Rome and Venice They are the product of the diversity of regions and cultures that makes up the country In Endless Periphery Stephen J Campbell examines a range of iconic works in order to unlock a rich series of local references in Renaissance art that include regional rulers patron saints and miracles demonstrating for example that the works of Titian spoke to beholders differently in Naples Brescia or Milan than in his native Venice More than a series of regional microhistories Endless Periphery tracks the geographic mobility of Italian Renaissance art and artists revealing a series of exchanges between artists and their patrons as well as the power dynamics that fueled these exchanges A counter history of one of the greatest epochs of art production this richly illustrated book will bring new insight to our understanding of classic works of Italian art Groundwork David Young Kim, 2022-10-18 An illuminating look at a fundamental yet understudied aspect of Italian Renaissance painting The Italian Renaissance picture is renowned for its depiction of the human figure from the dramatic foreshortening of the body to create depth to the subtle blending of tones and colors to achieve greater naturalism Yet these techniques rely on a powerful compositional element that often goes overlooked Groundwork provides the first in depth examination of the complex relationship between figure and ground in Renaissance painting Ground can refer to the preparation of a work's surface the fictive floor or plane or the background on which figuration occurs In laying the material foundation artists perform groundwork opening the ground as a zone that can precede penetrate or fracture the figure David Young Kim looks at the work of Gentile da Fabriano Giovanni Bellini Giovanni Battista Moroni and Caravaggio reconstructing each painter's methods to demonstrate the intricacies involved in laying ground layers whose translucency and polychromy permeate the surface He charts significant transitions from gold ground painting in the Trecento to the darkened grounds in Baroque tenebrism and offers close readings of period texts to shed new light on the significance of ground forms such as rock face wall and cave This beautifully illustrated book reconceives the Renaissance picture revealing the passion and mystery of groundwork and discovering figuration beyond the human figure Animal Sightings Jodi Cranston, 2024-10-08 Animal Sightings challenges two common ideas about the depiction of animals in early modern European court art first that the human figure relegated animals to peripheral and often symbolic roles both compositionally and conceptually and second that the representation of animals during this period was predominantly tied to a growing interest in naturalism derived from scientific study and discovery Art historian Jodi Cranston considers the diversity of art representing animals common to that time and place including dogs stags falcons and even insects She discusses how early modern European courts primarily in northern Italy Tyrol Saxony and southern Germany where the preponderance of European courtly activity related to animals occurred acquired and kept living animals sponsored hunts in purpose cultivated forests and fostered trade in animal products The diverse works created by artists associated with those courts reveal an ambivalent and complex view of animals as beings who shared and shaped the world alongside humans Ultimately Animal Sightings explores how early modern artists and viewers thought about human animal interactions how visual representation facilitated and inhibited knowledge about animals and how animals could reveal the limits and possibilities of visual representation It should be of special interest to scholars of early modern studies art history and animal studies

Studi E Testi ,2017 The Architecture of the Italian Renaissance Jacob Burckhardt,1987-07-15 There may not be any book on architecture so delightful to dip into one wishes there were a pocket edition to take on an Italian vacation not only for its information and vision but for such pleasant reminders as that the citizens of Treviso carried Tullio Lombardo's friezes through the town in triumph before they were attached to a building. D. J. R. Bruckner, New York Times Book Review. Masterpieces Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Gilian Shallcross, 2008. Mixed from egg whites and vegetable tints, water and soot, oils and rare minerals, and applied to bone, wood, metal, and canvas, the plastic and expressive properties of paint have stirred artists and their admirers throughout history. The holdings of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, have grown into a formidable appraisal of one of humankind's oldest and most diverse forms of artistic expression from its first acquisition, Washington Allston's Elijah in the Desert (1818), to recently acquired works by Edgar Degas, Georgia O'Keeffe, and Takashi Murakami, and now constitutes one of America's largest permanent collections. The first version of Masterpieces has long been a favorite among museumgoers and art lovers. This new edition expands on the scope of the old, adding new acquisitions and featuring 150 master works by artists from Asia, Europe, and the Americas, from delicate Song dynasty handscrolls to jewel-like images of medieval piety, scenes of mythic drama, austere still lifes, sensitive portraits, grand landscapes, and jarring Modern visions. Featuring artists such as Rembrandt, El Greco, Copley, Monet, Sargent, and Picasso, anonymous masters of medieval Europe and Asia, and living artists of uncompromising vision such as Gerhard Richter and David Hockney, this book is a celebration of the possibilities of paint.
