Out Of Place A Memoir:

Out of Place Edward W. Said, 2012-10-24 WINNER OF THE NEW YORKER BOOK AWARD FOR NONFICTION From one of the most important intellectuals of our time comes an extraordinary story of exile and a celebration of an irrecoverable past A fatal medical diagnosis in 1991 convinced Edward Said that he should leave a record of where he was born and spent his childhood and so with this memoir he rediscovers the lost Arab world of his early years in Palestine Lebanon and Egypt Engrossing Said has an almost Proustian feel for smells sounds sights and telling anecdotes The New York Review of Books Said writes with great passion and wit about his family and his friends from his birthplace in Jerusalem schools in Cairo and summers in the mountains above Beirut to boarding school and college in the United States revealing an unimaginable world of rich colorful characters and exotic eastern landscapes Underscoring all is the confusion of identity the young Said experienced as he came to terms with the dissonance of being an American citizen a Christian and a Palestinian and ultimately an outsider Richly detailed moving often profound Out of Place depicts a young man s coming of age and the genesis of a great modern thinker

Out of Place Edward W. Said, 2000 Edward Said was born in Jerusalem and brought up in Cairo spending every summer in the Lebanese mountain village of Dhour el Shweir until he was banished to America in 1951 This work is a mixture of emotional archaeology and memory exploring an essentially irrecoverable past As ill health sets him thinking about endings Edward Said returns to his beginnings in this personal memoir

Academic Lives Cynthia G. Franklin, 2010-01-25 Since the early 1990s there has been a proliferation of memoirs by tenured humanities professors Although the memoir form has been discussed within the flourishing field of life writing academic memoirs have received little critical scrutiny Based on close readings of memoirs by such academics as Michael B rub Cathy N Davidson Jane Gallop bell hooks Edward Said Eve Sedgwick Jane Tompkins and Marianna Torgovnick Academic Lives considers why so many professors write memoirs and what cultural capital they carry Cynthia G Franklin finds that academic memoirs provide unparalleled ways to unmask the workings of the academy at a time when it is dealing with a range of crises including attacks on intellectual freedom discontentment with the academic star system and budget cuts Franklin considers how academic memoirs have engaged with a core of defining concerns in the humanities identity politics and the development of whiteness studies in the 1990s the impact of postcolonial studies feminism and concurrent anxieties about pedagogy and disability studies and the struggle to bring together discourses on the humanities and human rights The turn back toward humanism that Franklin finds in some academic memoirs is surreptitious or frankly nostalgic others however posit a wide ranging humanism that seeks to create space for advocacy in the academic and other institutions in which we are all unequally located These memoirs are harbingers for the critical turn to explore interrelations among humanism the humanities and human rights struggles

By William Hazlitt. [With a Bibliography.] Daniel Defoe,1841 Exile and Expatriation in Modern American and Palestinian Writing Ahmad Rasmi Qabaha,2018-05-23 This book examines the distinction between literary expatriation and exile through a contrapuntal reading of modern Palestinian and American writing It argues that exile in the Palestinian case especially is a political catastrophe it is banishment by a colonial power It suggests that unlike expatriation a choice of a foreign land over one's own exile is a political rather than an artistic concept and is forced rather than voluntary while exile can be emancipatory it is always an unwelcome loss In addition to its historical dimension exile also entails a different perception of return to expatriation This book frames expatriates as quintessentially American particularly intellectuals and artists seeking a space of creativity and social dissidence in the experience of living away from home At the heart of both literary discourses however is a preoccupation with home belonging identity language mobility and homecoming Analele Universității București ,2003 Memoirs ,1906 Memoir Series of the American Anthropological Association ,1918 Amerasia Journal ,2005 The Middle East ,2001 Memoirs of Service Afloat, During the War Between the States Raphael Semmes,2019-11-26 In Memoirs of Service Afloat During the War Between the States Raphael Semmes provides a compelling firsthand account of naval warfare during the American Civil War Written with eloquent prose the memoir blends vivid descriptions of naval battles with personal reflections showcasing the complexities of honor duty and the brutal realities of maritime conflict Semmes's narrative is not merely a chronicle of events it also serves as a critical commentary on the state of the Confederate Navy illuminating the broader historical context of a nation divided
