Out Of The Depths Womens Experience Of Evil And Salvation:

Out of the Depths Ivone Gebara, Translated by Ann Patrick Ware Introduces a perspective on evil and salvation to address the evil women do the evil they suffer and women s redemptive experiences of God and salvation An Introductory Dictionary of Theology and Religious Studies Orlando O. Espín,James B. Nickoloff,2007 Spanning the gamut from Aaron to Zwingli this dictionary includes nearly 3 000 entries written by about sixty authors all of whom are specialists in their various theological and religious disciplines The editors have designed the dictionary especially to aid the introductory level student with instant access to definitions of terms likely to be encountered in but not to substitute for classroom presentations or reading assignments Publisher Systematic Theology Francis Schussler Fiorenza,John P. Galvin,2011-05-01 Unique among contemporary resources the landmark Systematic Theology and its distinguished contributors present the major areas or loci of Roman Catholic theology in light of contemporary developmentsespecially the seachange since Vatican II thought the best new historical studies of traditional doctrines and Scripture and the diverse creative impulses that come from recent philosophy and hermeneutics culture and praxis and ecumenical contacts This new volume combines and updates both previous volumes incorporates into the framework nearly twenty years of fresh thought and bibliography in each area and adds revisions to key articles to take account of a diverse fluid and postmodern situation

Power For: Feminism and Christ's Self-Giving Anna Mercedes,2011-09-22 Contesting the feminist critique of the dangers of Christianity s self giving ethics this book advances a contemporary feminist christology engaging the strength of self giving power The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology John Webster,Kathryn Tanner,Iain Torrance,2009-09-10 The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology brings together a set of original and authoritative accounts of all the major areas of current research in Christian systematic theology offering a thorough survey of the state of the discipline and of its prospects for those undertaking research and teaching in the field The Handbook engages in a comprehensive examination of themes and approaches guiding the reader through current debates and literatures in the context of the historical development of systematic theological reflection Organized thematically it treats in detail the full array of topics in systematic theology as well as questions of its sources and norms its relation to other theological and non theological fields of enquiry and some major trends in current work Each chapter provides an analysis of research and debate on its topic The focus is on doctrinal rather than historical questions and on major rather than ephemeral debates The aim is to stimulate readers to reach theological judgements on the basis of consideration of the range of opinion Drawn from Europe the UK and North America the authors are all leading practitioners of the discipline Readers will find expert guidance as well as creative suggestions about the future direction of the study of Christian doctrine Translating Religion Mary Doak,Anita Houck,2013 A peer reviewed original collection of essays on how faith and religious traditions have been and are being translated whether by language culture context migration or many other factors An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga, Thomas R. Thompson, Matthew D. Lundberg, 2022-11-03 A journey in Christian theology through biblical historical and thematic perspectives with special attention to the context of today's world

Sin: A Guide for the Perplexed Derek R. Nelson, 2011-05-26 Christianity concerns itself with salvation But salvation implies something from which one must be saved as reconciliation implies an estrangement and redemption a loss The classical theological symbol naming the problem to which salvation is the solution is sin Interpreting the meaning of sin however has become difficult for two reasons sin has become a taboo subject in popular discourse and has acquired an extremely broad meaning in recent theology Sin A Guide for the Perplexed is intended as a mid level comprehensive introduction to the notion of sin and its significance for Christian theology Nelson situates and interprets biblical material on sin and then offers a lucid history of the doctrine He elucidates Augustine's conception of original sin and defends it against its many caricatures Special attention is paid to sin as an ordinary yet highly interruptive phenomenon in the lives of individuals This is supplemented by a careful look at the non individualistic dimensions of sin and an appreciation of how sin relates to other key theological commitments

Planetary Solidarity Grace Ji-Sun Kim, Hilda P. Koster, 2017-08-23 Planetary Solidarity brings together leading Latina womanist Asian American Anglican American South American Asian European and African woman theologians on the issues of doctrine women and climate justice Because women make up the majority of the world's poor and tend to be more dependent on natural resources for their livelihoods and survival they are more vulnerable when it comes to climate related changes and catastrophes Representing a subfield of feminist theology that uses doctrine as interlocutor this book asks how Christian doctrine might address the interconnected suffering of women and the earth in an age of climate change While doctrine has often stifled change it also forms the thread that weaves Christian communities together Drawing on postcolonial ecofeminist womanist analysis and representing different ecclesial and denominational traditions contributors use doctrine to envision possibilities for a deep solidarity with the earth and one another while addressing the intersection of gender race class and ethnicity The book is organized around the following doctrines creation the triune God anthropology sin incarnation redemption the Holy Spirit ecclesiology and eschatology

Healing All Creation Joan Connell, Adam Bartholomew, 2019-06-12 In Healing All Creation a scripture scholar and a religion journalist explore the literary and theological symmetries of Genesis the Gospel of Mark and the unfolding story of evolution as told by science and the emerging discipline of cosmological theology Read together these narratives shed new light on the Judeo Christian tradition and offer fresh ideas about how to respond to the moral and environmental crises of our times Scientific discoveries make it increasingly clear that everything in the world is connected Physically and spiritually small actions can have great impact In the creation myths of Genesis it is possible for individuals to generate great evil but also do enormous good and repair a broken world Mark's story of the public life of Jesus speaks to the transformative effect of cumulative acts of compassion Cosmological theology suggests that evolution is spiritual as well as material and that our search for meaning is dynamic ongoing and grounded in the sanctity of all creation This book speaks to those for whom Judeo Christian scripture is important but also to those who consider themselves spiritual but not religious those who stand in awe of the majesty of the universe and appreciate the sanctity of all creation It introduces to a general audience a century long dialogue among scientists theologians scripture scholars and summons the voices of 20th century spiritual heroes contemporary theologians and religion scholars from a variety of traditions and perspectives This accessible but scholarly narrative and robust endnotes make it valuable as a textbook for college level courses on religion and ecology The authors offer fresh insights into Mark s story of the healing ministry of Jesus and his relationships with women including his crushing final encounter with the women who stayed with him to the end and the transformative mission it inspired It raises questions about the gender inequity that persists in organized religion and in the world at large This book examines institutional Christianity s historical failures such as the early abandonment of nonviolence and its tendency to question the validity of scientific discoveries It explores the impact of dispensational theology whose vision of a material world ending in fiery apocalypse produced Christians so focused on the end times that they have scant regard for the sanctity of the Earth It has been said that the Bible is the most purchased and least read book in America This accessible narrative introduces a diverse general audience to the riches of contemporary scripture scholarship the wisdom of cosmological theology and a renewed awareness of the sanctity of all creation

Jesus Of Asian Women (the) Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro,2010

When Did we See You Naked? Jayme R. Reaves,David Tombs,Rocio Figueroa,2021-03-31 Was the stripping and exposure of Jesus a form of sexual abuse If so why does such a reading of Jesus suffering matter The combined impact of the MeToo movement and a further wave of global revelations on church sexual abuse have given renewed significance to recent work naming Jesus as a victim of sexual abuse Timely and provocative When did we see you naked presents the arguments for reading Christ as an abuse victim as well as exploring how the position might be critiqued and what implications and applications it might offer to the Church

Christ and Trauma Presston McDaniel Hill,2025-09-22 Christ and Trauma Theology East of Eden explores the intersection of Christian theology and the reality of trauma bringing the crucifixion of Christ into conversation with the lived experiences of trauma survivors This edited volume of essays illuminates how trauma reshapes our understanding of Christology atonement and the Christian community s response to suffering Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives from theologians psychologists and trauma survivors each essay examines how overwhelming violence impacts individuals and communities and how Christian theology can bear witness to and even participate in the process of healing The contributors engage deeply with the stories of trauma survivors uncovering how trauma theory can challenge and enrich traditional theological concepts like forgiveness redemption and the nature of God From the recognition of Jesus as a victim of abuse to the consideration of trauma informed Christology this collection offers an urgent compassionate and rigorous theological response to the reality of trauma For clergy therapists theologians and survivors alike Christ and Trauma invites readers to reimagine the relationship between faith and suffering in ways that are both theologically robust and deeply relevant to our modern context

Rape Culture and Spiritual Violence Gina Messina-Dysert, 2015-05-08 Rape Culture and Spiritual Violence examines sexual violence against women how religion and society contribute to a rape culture and the extreme suffering endured by rape victims as a result Using the testimony of women who have experienced both rape and the consequences of rape culture from a range of religious cultural ethnic and social contexts the book explores both the suffering and healing of rape victims from World War II to today Among the issues considered are victim invisibility the inability to express pain and the tendency to assume shame and self blame The study examines the role of society in shaping and reinforcing these responses contributing to traumas that can lead to spiritual death The book also explores possibilities for multiple spiritual resurrections within the practice of daily life encouraging both individual healing and social change

Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D. Tirres, 2024-12-03 A new perspective on spirituality and social change as seen through the work of six visionary thinkers In Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D Tirres offers an in depth exploration of spirituality as a catalyst for social transformation showcasing the profound insights of six distinguished twentieth century liberation thinkers from across the Americas This thought provoking work examines the contributions of Marxist philosopher Jos Carlos Mariategui renowned educator and philosopher Paulo Freire innovative constructive theologian Virgilio Elizondo influential cultural and feminist theorist Gloria Anzaldúa activist mujerista theologian and social ethicist Ada María Isasi-Delgado and groundbreaking ecofeminist theologian Ivone Gebara Tirres examines the distinct yet interconnected philosophies of these figures showcasing their unified critique of colonial Christendom and their deep commitment to the marginalized He adeptly articulates how their diverse religious and philosophical backgrounds come together in a shared vision of spirituality as a fundamental aspect of human life and intelligence He further illuminates how these thinkers advocate for spirituality as a non reductive life affirming practice transcending traditional boundaries and offering an integrated approach to faith culture and social justice Their collective insights form a persuasive case for reenvisioning spirituality as a crucial element in the quest for a more just and compassionate world Liberating Spiritualities is not only a tribute to these six influential figures but also a critical reflection on the relevance of their ideas in today's global context Tirres's transdisciplinary study bridges liberationist and pragmatic insights offering readers a fresh highly original interpretation of socially engaged spirituality making this book an essential resource for those seeking to understand the transformative power of spirituality in the pursuit of social justice and human dignity

Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D.

Kamitsuka, 2007-07-20 In the early years of contesting patriarchy in the academy and religious institutions feminist theology often presented itself as a unified front a sisterhood The term feminist theology however is misleading It suggests a singular feminist purpose driven by a unified female cultural identity that struggles as a cohesive whole against patriarchal dominance Upon closer inspection the voice of feminist theology is in fact a chorus of diverging perspectives each informed by a variety of individual and communal experiences and an embattled scholarly field marked by the effects of privilege and power imbalances This complexity raises an important question How can feminist theologians respect the irreducible diversity of women s experiences and unmask entrenched forms of privilege in feminist theological discourse In Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D Kamitsuka urges the feminist theological community to examine critically its most deeply held commitments assumptions and goals especially those of feminist theologians writing from positions of privilege as white or heterosexual women Focusing on women s experience as portrayed in literature biblical narrative and ethnographic writing Kamitsuka examines the assumptions of feminist theology regarding race and sexuality She proposes theoretical tools that feminist theologians can employ to identify and hopefully avoid the imposition of racial or sexual hegemony thus providing invaluable complexity to the movement s identity and ultimately contributing to current and future Christian theological issues Blending poststructuralist and postcolonial theoretical resources with feminist and queer concerns Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference makes constructive theological proposals ranging from sin to christology The text calls feminist theologians to a more rigorous self critical approach as they continue to shape the changing face of Christian theological discourse
