

CATHOLIC FUNERALS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

As you begin to prepare your own funeral or plan for the funeral of a loved one, the information found in this pamphlet will be helpful to you. Just as your Catholic faith has guided you through life, it will support and guide you in preparing to embrace death. Additional information on these topics may be obtained by consulting the Sacramental Guidelines of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee or by calling the archdiocesan Chancery Office.

- 1 Where is the basic understanding and theology of Catholic funerals to be found?
The Order of Christian Funerals, published in 1989, contains a clear theology of the attitude of the Catholic Church toward life after death and thus the respect the Church has for the human person, body and soul. An appendix to this ritual on cremation was published in 1997. The use of both is mandated in the United States.
- 2 How is respect to be shown to the deceased?
The body of the deceased is to be buried (interment) or entombed in a mausoleum (entombment). These practices demonstrate Christian faith in awaiting the resurrection. (Cremation is covered later, in a separate section.)
- 3 May Catholics who have been divorced and remarried outside the Church or who have committed suicide be buried with a Catholic ceremony?
Yes. Such circumstances of themselves do not exclude the possibility of a Catholic burial. In individual cases the Chancery Office of the archdiocese should be consulted.

OVERVIEW OF CHRISTIAN FUNERAL RITES

- 4 How many parts make up the funeral rites?
There are three main parts: 1) the Vigil, 2) the Funeral Liturgy (with or without Mass) and 3) the Rite of Committal. Besides these, other rites are provided, e.g., prayers just after death, prayers for gathering in the presence of the body at the beginning of a visitation, and prayers for transferring the body to the church.
- 5 Must funeral rites be led by priests?
The ritual of the Catholic Church allows for priests or deacons, to conduct the various services including the Vigil, a Funeral Liturgy apart from a Funeral Mass, and the Rite of Committal. Lay leaders of prayer may conduct the Vigil and the Rite of Committal.

Outline Of A Catholic Funeral:

Rites of Committal for the Order of Christian Funerals English Catholic Bishops Conference, 2005-03-01 Since liturgical celebration involves the whole person it requires attentiveness to all that affects the senses The readings and prayers psalms and songs should be proclaimed with understanding conviction and reverence The ritual gestures processions and postures should express and foster an attitude of reverence and reflectiveness in those taking part in the funeral rites This Committal rite should be celebrated in an atmosphere of simple beauty in a setting that encourages participation Care must be taken that the choice of signs and symbols are in accord with the culture of the people With these words this important new publication is introduced Various texts for committal are printed along with rubrics and including also the rite of committal at a crematorium This new version of the Rite of Committal now includes the Roman Lectionary relating to Funeral Rites but now excludes the Rite of Committal for children The Liturgy Documents, Volume Two Rev. Real Presence
Michael Hickey, 2025-09-04 Christ's real presence is manifested not only in the Eucharist but also in all aspects and subsections throughout humanity the author engages with many of these manifestations devoting an entire chapter to the exploration of each Any books written on the subject of Real Presence thus far have confined the writing to be strictly writing about the real presence of God Christ in the Eucharist which confines itself mostly to a discussion among Catholics who are the principal Christian church which believes in Christ's real presence in the Eucharist This book differs for several reasons First the author writes about the real presence of Jesus Christ not only in the Eucharist but also in the poor and lowly in children in the suffering in creation in the stranger and the prisoner in the neighbor and the family in the Word of God in the Bible in the church community etc Each area is examined through an entire chapter devoted to it This broadens the scope of God's real presence in the world as God is continually revealing Godself to humanity in many other ways than only the Eucharist Because Christ is revealing Himself through the power and presence of the Holy Spirit within us each moment can be seen as a Sacrament of the present moment The book continues to discuss the principle of sacramentality and how each moment we are alive on this earth is a sacramental moment involving more than we can be mortally aware of This moment is not only a moment in time but a reflection of the timelessness of all of eternity Christ continues to reveal his presence to us not only through the Eucharistic Banquet but Christ attempts to encounter us with his presence throughout all created reality Because Christians believe in faith that after the crucifixion death and resurrection of Jesus the Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ we received in Baptism is in us as the Body of Christ Because the resurrected Christ is now the universal Christ throughout all of creation the entire universe has become Christocentric Therefore all created reality now being imbued with the presence of Christ at its center can prove to be a potential encounter with the REAL PRESENCE of Christ a greater interest not only to Catholics but because of its universality to Christians of all denominations
