Shifting to a Higher Gear: The Saga of Malaysia's National Carmaker Proton Prithish Bhattacharya, Francis E Hutchinson, 2024-05-03 Proton has been a vital part of Malaysia s industrialization journey and a key pillar of its modernization drive Launched in 1983 to fulfil then Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad s vision of a pride infused national car company the state owned Proton grew quickly and captured a dominant share of the country s domestic car market aided in no small measure by generous protective measures and subsidies However in the subsequent decades the car giant lost market share and power due to a variety of challenges such as non market performance requirements less effective protection and growing competition from a second national car firm and from global car companies The automaker has had a variety of ownership structures over time but was resolutely kept in domestic hands public and private This did increase control over the corporation but did so at the expense of exposure to and adoption of leading edge technology This impasse was resolved in 2017 when Proton sold a 49.9 per cent share to the Chinese auto firm Geely The joint venture has rejuvenated the carmaker which has begun to reconquer market share through a number of popular SUVs Despite this the Malaysian auto market is becoming increasingly competitive Going forward Proton will need to begin to export significantly to expose its vehicles to new niche markets as well as global standards obtain and retain skilled workers and continue to rationalize costs in its supply chains and distributorships

Automotive Engineering, 1997-07 Privatization in Malaysia Jeff Tan, 2007-10-02 In recent years privatisation has fallen out of favour in many countries because the underlying political factors have not been well understood This book examines Malaysia's privatisation programme focusing on how political constraints resulted in the failure of four major privatisations the national sewerage company IWK Kuala Lumpur Light Rail Transit LRT national airline MAS and national car company Proton It considers why developing countries such as Malaysia might want to embark on privatisation the factors that lead to policy failure and what is needed to make it work It shows clearly that political motives driving privatisation often dominate purely economic considerations and thus it is necessary to analyse privatisation within the specific country context It argues that failure in the Malaysian case was due to political considerations that compromised institutional design and regulatory enforcement leading to problems associated with corruption It concludes that privatisation does not necessarily improve incentives for efficiency or enhance the finance available for capital investment and that successful privatisation depends on the state s institutional and political capacity to design and manage an appropriate set of subsidies Overall this book is a comprehensive examination of privatisation in Malaysia providing important insights for understanding the political economy of this process in other developing countries

The Complete Book of the World Rally Championship Henry Hope-Frost, John Davenport, 2004 For 30 years some of the most talented and bravest drivers have battled across the continents of the world to claim what is arguably motorsport s toughest prize the World Rally Championship Now a multi million dollar global technology battle and terrestrial television phenomenon played out over the frozen wastes of Finland the dusty plains of Australia and the sun kissed mountain roads of Corsica the WRC has reached its 30th birthday This book celebrates that important milestone and paints an exhaustively detailed picture of the people and personalities who have shaped this great sport The Complete Book of the World Rally Champions provides a biographical account of the 65 men who have won at least one World Championship Rally since 1973 The biographies are compiled by the sport s leading writers and historians and complemented by stunning photography The book includes a detailed and accurate statistical career record of each driver plus highlights of all the significant cars

New Directions in the Analysis of Multimodal Discourse Terry D. Royce, Wendy L. Bowcher, 2007 New Directions in the Analysis of Multimodal Discourse offers a comprehensive international view of multimodal discourse and presents new directions for research and application in this growing field There has long been a need for a volume that addresses multimodal communication from both a theoretical and a practical perspective with contributions from top scholars around the world this work opens up the field of multimodal discourse analysis as it covers a wide range of interests such as computational linguistics education ideology and media discourse The range and scope of the chapters in this book provide groundbreaking insights into exploring and accounting for the various facets of multimodality in a range of texts and contexts Initial chapters specifically aim to tackle theoretical issues while subsequent chapters focus on important research areas such as writing and graphology genre ideology computational concordancing literacy and cross cultural and cross linguistic issues In the final chapters an emphasis is placed on the educational implications of multimodality in first and second language contexts a particularly new and interesting contribution This volume will have wide appeal and is suitable for any researcher or educator interested in multimodality and its applications in social interaction

Political Economy of Malaysia's

Industrial Policy Firdausi Suffian,2021-02-22 This book examines the national automotive policy in Malaysia to help readers gain an understanding of the country's industrial policy making processes Addressing a gap in analysis of the political economy of the national automotive policy the research presented combines the new institutional theory and the developmental state approach to provide new insights into elite policymakers measures to shield domestic automotive enterprises from pro market reforms The formation of the national car project marks a turning point for Malaysia's industrial development as a country which it envisions will lead to it becoming a major player in the global automotive market However the domestic institutional factors embedded in ethno economic interests and patronage constrain national car makers limiting their potential to grow and instead causing a slowdown in the industry Allowing readers to understand the background to Malaysia's heavy industrialisation programme and the birth of its national car projects this book critically discusses the significance of institutional context in policy outcomes and highlights how institutions and policies have impact growth or decline It is a valuable resource relevant to analysts researchers and students who are interested in the political economy of the national industrial policy and automotive industry in Malaysia and beyond
