The Arms Deal In Your Pocket Paul Holden, 2012-03-02 The Arms Deal's taint of corruption has hovered spectre like over South African politics since 1999 when Patricia de Lille's revelations first hit Parliament In the foreword to The Arms Deal in Your Pocket former ANC MP Andrew Feinstein describes the Arms Deal as the moment at which the ANC and the South African government lost their moral compass Paul Holden's succinct informative and devastating handbook tells the story in the simplest way possible providing a guide to what was bought and why who was involved and what was covered up The chapters are ordered chronologically to allow the reader to follow the story as it unfolded on the ground and each chapter includes an info box and short timeline of the key dates to remember Paul Holden is a freelance writer researcher and historian and the co author with Hennie van Vuuren of The Devil in the Detail How the Arms Deal Changed Everything

A Gecko in the Machine

Michael Heslop, 2012 A Gecko in the Machine Postcards from the Bahamas covers a period from the emigration by the author and his wife with Habu their German Shepherd dog to their newly built home on the island of Exuma in the Bahamas it is an affectionate portrait of the subsequent events places and characters that they have encountered along the way written from a personal perspective For anyone who has visited the island this book refreshes memories of the place the people the activities the incredible colour and warmth that pervades everything and above all highlights the total contrast from home For the armchair voyager it will make a highly readable and amusing travel book to curl up with after lunch on a cold wet day in cooler climes For anyone seeking to acquire a second home in the sun or even emigrate it provides a genial picture of what to expect the good and the frustrating but one is constantly reminded that the ultimate reward can include an idyllic turquoise sea a magical sunset the sighting of a rare sea creature and the peace

Visual Culture Richard Howells, Joaquim Negreiros, 2012-02-06 This is a revised expanded and updated edition of the highly successful Visual Culture Like its predecessor this new version is about visual literacy exploring how meaning is both made and transmitted in an increasingly visual world It is designed to introduce students and other interested readers to the analysis of all kinds of visual text whether drawings paintings photographs films advertisements television or new media forms The book is illustrated with examples that range from medieval painting to contemporary advertising images and is written in a lively and engaging style The first part of the book takes the reader through differing theoretical approaches to visual analysis and includes chapters on iconology form art history ideology semiotics and hermeneutics The second part shifts from a theoretical to a medium based approach and comprises chapters on fine art photography film television and new media These chapters are connected by an underlying theme about the complex relationship between visual culture and reality New for the second edition are ten more theoretically advanced Key Debate sections which conclude each chapter by provoking readers to set off and think for themselves Prominent among the new provocateurs are Kant Baudrillard Althusser Deleuze Benjamin and Foucault New examples and illustrations have also been added together with updated suggestions for further reading The book draws together seemingly diverse approaches while ultimately arguing for a polysemic approach to visual analysis Building on the success of the first edition this new edition continues to provide an ideal introduction for students taking courses in visual culture and communications in a wide range of disciplines including media and cultural studies sociology art and design
