Contemporary Perspectives in Critical and Social Philosophy J. Rundell, et al, 2005-01-01 This volume is also published as volume 5 of the journal Critical Horizons ISSN 1440 9917 Contemporary Perspectives in Critical and Social Philosophy brings together a range of essays concerning ways of conceptualising modernities subjectivities and recognition It highlights recent developments in German critical and social philosophy and includes essays by Martin Seel Christoph Menke Max Pensky Andrew Bowie and Karl Ameriks and critical discussions of the works of Manfred Frank Theodor Adorno and Axel Honneth These recent developments open onto dialogues between hermeneutics post structuralism Critical Theory and the Budapest School represented here by Agnes Heller and Maria M rkus The essays contribute to debates regarding the modern constellation between those who at first glance may be viewed as protagonists but from the perspective of greater distance share similar concerns and pre occupations Ottomiller's Index to Plays in Collections Denise L. Montgomery, 2011-08-11 The standard location tool for full length plays published in collections and anthologies in England and the United States since the beginning of the 20th century Ottomiller's Index to Plays in Collections has undergone seven previous editions the latest in 1988 covering 1900 through 1985 In this new edition Denise Montgomery has expanded the volume to include collections published in the entire English speaking world through 2000 and beyond This new volume lists more than 3 500 new plays and 2 000 new authors as well as birth and or death information for hundreds of authors Representing the largest expansion between editions this updated volume is a valuable resource for libraries worldwide Literary History: Towards a Global Perspective Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2011-12-22 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic

The One vs. the Many Alex Woloch, 2009-02-09 Does a novel focus on one life or many Alex Woloch uses this simple question to develop a powerful new theory of the realist novel based on how narratives distribute limited attention among a crowded field of characters His argument has important implications for both literary studies and narrative theory Characterization has long been a troubled and neglected problem within literary theory Through close readings of such novels as Pride and Prejudice, Great Expectations and Le Père Goriot Woloch demonstrates that the representation of any character takes place within a shifting field of narrative attention and obscurity Each individual whether the central figure or a radically subordinated one emerges as a character only through his or her distinct and contingent space within the narrative as a whole The character space as Woloch defines it marks the dramatic interaction between an implied person and his or her delimited position within a narrative structure The organization of and clashes between many character spaces within a single narrative totality is essential to the novel's very achievement and concerns striking at issues central to narrative poetics the aesthetics of realism and the dynamics of literary representation Woloch's discussion of character space allows for a different history of the novel and a new definition of characterization itself By making the implied person indispensable to our understanding of literary form this book offers a forward looking avenue for contemporary narrative theory

The Oxford Guide to Literary Research Thomas Mann, 2005-10-27 Publisher Description

Thus Burst Hippocrene Laurence Wong, 2019-01-17 Thus Burst Hippocrene Studies in the Olympian Imagination is a collection of nine papers in comparative literature Discussing the greatest Olympians in world literature including Homer Aeschylus Sophocles Euripides Dante Shakespeare Milton Li Bo Du Fu and the Bible authors it is both daring in conception and wide ranging in scope Freely drawing on the author's knowledge of Classical Greek Latin Italian French German Spanish English and Chinese as well as on his conversance with the literatures of these languages the papers are truly comparative making discoveries unique to the author's characteristic multi lingual multi cultural approach In going through the book the reader will be pleasantly surprised by its originality by its amazing depth and breadth and by the new light it sheds on topics that are of interest to scholars and students of comparative literature Written in lucid language with no pretentious jargon it will also appeal to the general reader who picks up a book simply for the joy of reading or for horizon broadening without tears

Brill's Companion to Sophocles Andreas Markantonatos, 2015-03-20 Brill's Companion to Sophocles offers 32 specially commissioned essays from leading international scholars which give critical examinations of the progress and direction of numerous wide ranging debates about various aspects of Sophoclean drama Each chapter offers an authoritative and state of the art survey of current thinking and research in a particular subject area as well as covering a wide variety of thematic angles Recent advances in scholarship have raised new questions about Sophocles and Greek tragedy and have overturned some long standing assumptions Besides presenting a comprehensive and authoritative guide to understanding Sophocles this companion provides scholars and students with compelling fresh perspectives upon a broad range of issues in the field of Sophoclean studies

The Management of Meaning in Organizations S.

Magala,2009-02-25 Historical translations and underground transfers of knowledge and values between cultural domains merit more attention This book discusses the past present and future of meaning It shows how management of meaning in organizations fuels sociocultural evolution in complex societies changing semantic fields of possible meanings ahead

Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic

The Rise Of Rhetoric And Its Intersection With Contemporary Critical Thought Omar Swartz, 2019-06-26

This book features contemporary critical and Marxist theories of resistance domination knowledge and systems of ideological control It offers a balanced discussion of classical and modern theories of rhetoric as well as critical theory

Care, Control and COVID-19 Raili Marling, Marko Pajević, 2023-06-06 This volume sheds light on the social and cultural transformations that accompanied the Covid 19 crisis by looking at health and biopolitics from a philosophical and literary perspective The biopolitical measures taken globally in response to the crisis have led to previously unheard of restrictions in liberal societies resulting in deep and potentially lasting transformations both in social structures and interpersonal relationships Many researchers have addressed the Covid 19 crisis as a political or epidemiological challenge but few have paid sufficient attention to the culturally specific reactions and cultural representations of the human beings at the centre of events Literary analyses capture this human component and give insights into different reactions to and protests against the health political measures addressing the crisis This book puts the notion of biopolitics first extensively theorised in the 1970s to work in the context of the Covid 19 pandemic and uses literary case studies as starting points for discussions of contemporary politics media and legal and surveillance regimes It brings together eleven scholars from six countries with the shared aim of combining literary and philosophical expertise to create a better understanding of the changes in society and political attitudes induced by the ongoing pandemic Literature Laurie G. Kirschner, 2007
