Most of these stories are from my life as an expat expatriate, i.e. someone who works outside the US. I worked for General Electric (GE) and part of that time I worked overseas. I have been on every continent except Antarctica. I have had some part of my body in every ocean in the world and have been from above the Arctic Circle to just short of the Antarctic Circle. I have flown around the world several times and worked in over twenty-five countries. Whew! So much for that intro. I originally had these stories in a random order. While the histories of other experimental theater collectives have been well documented, WOW's history has only begun to be told. The anthology also includes photographs of and reminiscences by Caf veterans capturing the history and artistic flowering of the first ten years of this countercultural haven. Munich Memoir Dan Alon, Carla Stockton, 2012. Nothing had prepared Israeli fencer Dan Alon for what he would face when he finally qualified and made it to the Munich Olympics. Despite the years of preparation, the training, and the dedication, he could not have known how a single Black September day would shatter his dreams and fracture his life. Surviving the Munich Massacre was the beginning of Dan's 40-year struggle to understand why he was spared, why he was not among the mangled remains of murdered Israeli Olympic athletes left on the tarmac at Feldafenberg Airport. After years of suffering, Dan found that telling his tale freed him to rejoin the living. This is that story, a story of courage, of hope, and ultimately a story of love. This is Dan Alon's Munich Memoir. Love And War in The Hamptons: A Memoir of Military Life Carrie Ann Salvi, 2019-03-23.
