Monument Moment And Memory Monets Cathedral In Fin De Siecle France:

Monument, Moment, and Memory Ronald R. Bernier, 2007 By the end of the nineteenth century a mode of painting captured instantaneity had come to be seen as an appropriate and characteristically Impressionist means of depicting its subject when that subject was understood to be our variable perception in nature In May of 1895 however capriciously it seemed to some to the facade of a Gothic cathedral Struck by the curious choice a medieval monument as subject matter critics used to about instantaneity continued to lay emphasis on a theme of temporality and this was addressed in two but related ways First there was the matter of perception the temporality that is involved in engaging visually with near impenetrable surfaces of individual canvases

Art and Monist Philosophy in Nineteenth Century France From Auteuil to Giverny Nina Athanassoglou-Kallmyer, 2023-09-25 This is a study of the relation between the fine arts and philosophy in France from the aftermath of the 1789 revolution to the end of the nineteenth century when a philosophy of being called monism the concept of a unity of matter and spirit emerged and became increasingly popular among intellectuals artists and scientists Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer traces the evolution and impact of this monist thought and its various permutations as a transformative force on certain aspects of French art and culture from Romanticism to Impressionism and as a theoretical backdrop that paved the way to as yet unexplored aspects of a modernist aesthetic Chapters concentrate on three major artists Th odore G ricault 1791 1824 Eug ne Delacroix 1798 1863 and Claude Monet 1840 1926 and their particular approach to and interpretation of this unitarian concept The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history philosophy and cultural history

Modernism and Time Machines Tung Charles M. Tung, 2019-03-14 Bridging modernist studies and science fiction scholarship Modernism and Time Machines places the fascination with time in canonical works of twentieth century literature and art side by side with the rise of time travel narratives and alternate histories in popular culture Both modernism and this cardinal trope of science fiction produce a range of effects and insights that go beyond the exhilarations of simply sliding back and forth in history Together the modernist time obsession and the fantasy of moving in time help us to rethink the shapes of time the consistency of timespace and the nature of history Key Features Draws on insights from a range of sources including critical geography postcolonial theory science and technology studies and time studies Examines different kinds of objects together SF Impressionism and Henri Lefebvre s rhythmanalysis evolutionary biology Eliot s The Waste Land and Leinster s e Sidewise in Timee Woolf Philip K Dick s alternate history and the film Interstellar bullet time Faulkner s racialized lag and Jessica Hagedorn s postcolonial anachronism e big history e Olaf Stapledon s two billion year novel of the human species and Terrence Malick s film Tree of Life

Monet (World of Art) James H. Rubin, 2020-04-14 From a world authority on impressionism and nineteenth century French art comes this new addition to the World of Art series on the art and life of Claude Monet One of the most famous and admired painters of all time Claude Monet 1840 1926 was the architect of impressionism a revolution that gave birth to modern art His technique of painting outside at the seashore or in city streets was as radically new as his subject matter the landscapes and middle class pastimes of a newly industrialized Paris Working with unprecedented immediacy and authenticity Monet claimed that his work was both natural and true and therefore entirely novel In Monet James H Rubin one of the world s foremost specialists in nineteenth century French art traces Monet s development from his early work as a caricaturist to the late paintings of water lilies and his garden at Giverny Rubin explores the cultural currents that helped shape Monet s work including the utopian thought that gave rise to his politics his interest in Japanese prints and gardening and his relationship with earlier French landscape painters and contemporaries such as E douard Manet and Pierre Auguste Renoir Featuring more than 150 color illustrations of his key works Rubin establishes Monet as the inspiration for generations of avant garde artists and a true patriarch of modern art Mad Enchantment Ross King,2016-09-06 From bestselling author Ross King a brilliant portrait of the legendary artist and the story of his most memorable achievement Claude Monet is perhaps the world s most beloved artist and among all his creations the paintings of the water lilies in his garden at Giverny are most famous Monet intended the water lilies to provide an asylum of peaceful meditation Yet as Ross King reveals in his magisterial chronicle of both artist and masterpiece these beautiful canvases featured in black and white images throughout as well as a 16 pg color insert belie the intense frustration Monet experienced in trying to capture the fugitive effects of light water and color They also reflect the terrible personal torments Monet suffered in the last dozen years of his life Mad Enchantment tells the full story behind the creation of the Water Lilies as the horrors of World War I came ever closer to Paris and Giverny and a new generation of younger artists led by Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso were challenging the achievements of Impressionism By early 1914 French newspapers were reporting that Monet by then seventy three had retired his brushes He had lost his beloved wife Alice and his eldest son Jean His famously acute vision what Paul Cezanne called the most prodigious eye in the history of painting was threatened by cataracts And yet despite ill health self doubt and advancing age Monet began painting again on a more ambitious scale than ever before Linking great artistic achievement to the personal and historical dramas unfolding around it Ross King presents the most intimate and revealing portrait of an iconic figure in world culture Dreams + Disillusions CJ Lim,Luke Angers,2024-04-25 Dreams Disillusions explores the plethora of ideas and ideologies that have shaped and reshaped cities in profound ways However unlike a conventional title on the history of urbanism and architecture its research fluctuates between the world of concrete reality and the multiple universes that exist in lucid prose poetic visions and the outrageous imaginations of history s greatest and most famous minds In their thoughts are the foundations for political trends and new civilisations alternative mappings and unlikely phenomena The six chapters reveal dreams that were fundamental to the origin of great cities underpinning the stories of the many lives within and how through circumstance or manipulation fortunate coincidence or planned perfection desires are sometimes left defeated and disillusioned Myth and belief Tradition and logic Revolution and marginalisation Ignorance and hubris Sins and excess Seasons and climate Continuously interacting shifting to enlighten and to enrage these themes combine critical thinking with deep rooted influences and new agencies that are a true sign of the times The 18 illustrated speculations provide an abundance of curious imaginings diverse provocations and satirical criticism While there are distinctions between dreams and disillusionments could virtues be made of sins or sensitivity be borne from hubris Could progress advocate tradition or should we re attempt revolutions formerly experienced as disillusionments Whether by bold gestures or by subtle attrition cities are continually re written crucibles for the human condition In this book we develop a better understanding of the discourse of cities tailored to the determining factors of climate resources and humanity's idiosyncrasies to address a world in crisis

ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-12-25 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art explores some of underlying methodological assumptions in the field of art history by examining the suitability and success as well as the incompatibility and failure of varying art historical methodologies when applied to works of art which distinctly manifest Christian narratives themes motifs and symbols

Religion and Contemporary Art Ronald R. Bernier, Rachel Hostetter Smith, 2023-05-11 Religion and Contemporary Art sets the theoretical frameworks and interpretive strategies for exploring the re emergence of religion in the making exhibiting and discussion of contemporary art Featuring essays from both established and emerging scholars critics and artists the book reflects on what might be termed an accord between contemporary art and religion It explores the common strategies contemporary artists employ in the interface between religion and contemporary art practice It also includes case studies to provide more in depth treatments of specific artists grappling with themes such as ritual abstraction mythology the body popular culture science liturgy and social justice among other themes It is a must read resource for working artists critics and scholars in this field and an invitation to new voices curious about its promises and possibilities      You Must Change Your Life Rachel Corbett, 2016-09-06 Winner of the 2016 Marfield Prize In 1902 Rainer Maria Rilke then a struggling poet in Germany went to Paris to research and write a short book about the sculptor Auguste Rodin The two were almost polar opposites Rilke in his twenties delicate and unknown Rodin in his sixties carnal and revered Yet they fell into an instantaneous friendship Transporting readers to early twentieth century Paris Rachel Corbett's You Must Change Your Life is a vibrant portrait of Rilke and Rodin and their circle revealing how deeply Rodin's ideas about art and creativity influenced Rilke's classic Letters to a Young Poet      Чарующее безумие. Клод Моне и водяные лилии Росс Кинг, 2023-02-28 1914 73      Il mistero delle ninfee Ross King, 2016-09-01 Per i viaggiatori che si fermavano sul bordo della strada a sbirciare i fiori o che allungavano il collo dai finestrini del treno per scorgere un angolo dello stagno il giardino di Monet a Giverny era una visione paradisiaca Un Paradiso dove all'ombra di alcuni alberi i fiori variopinti giocano sul prato illuminati dal sole che filtra a chiazze tra le fronde mosse dalla brezza scrisse un giornalista Eppure quel luogo ameno era lo stesso in cui Monet lottando con le sue tele contemplava quello che il suo primo critico definì il nulla insondabile le ninfee silenziose e misteriose più di ogni altro fiore ossessione decennale di un artista che inseguiva il sogno della forma e del colore fin quasi all'autodistruzione Ho intrapreso qualcosa di impossibile Non dormo più per colpa loro confessò Monet al suo amico Georges Clemenceau Ma dietro ogni fiore c'è forse una donna Una donna inaccessibile proibita Ross King ricostruisce lo scenario che fa da sfondo al folle incantamento di Monet e alla realizzazione di questi dipinti sfuggenti e misteriosi in cui forse più che in ogni altra opera dell'impressionismo possiamo scorgere la scintilla della modernità      Bibliographic Index ,2009      L'Esprit Créateur ,2002      Beyond Belief Ronald R. Bernier, 2010-06 Beyond Belief Theoaesthetics or Just Old Time Religion explores the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art Long estranged from symbol and sacrament contemporary artists and those who think and write about them seem to have turned once again to a vision rooted in the sacred In an era marked culturally by world weary cynicism and self conscious irony a new humanism may be emerging one which aims to move beyond fragmentation and opposition to integration and unification The aim of this book is not to propose a resurgence of religious iconography but rather to give voice to long suppressed often maligned and certainly professionally risky positions informed by and reverberating with themes of the sacred The essays included here by a range of scholars working on these issues today originated as a lively and spirited session of the 2008 College Art Association annual conference Beyond Belief ventures courageously into the aporia between the contemporary art world and religious faith Its authors lament the widespread distrust among contemporary artists and critics of religious themes identifying intellectual blindness fueling this distrust but also listening carefully for muffled cries for the return of the sacred The collection is a delightful mix of fresh critical perspectives built upon a unified vision that re roots the creative human act in the transcendent We need this book to remind us what art might do for our souls Charles Pinches Professor of Theology University of Scranton Oh how I welcome this book It shines a light in the darkness of our critical debate on contemporary Art and Aesthetics I find myself feeling strangely at home reading these essays as if the world has been restored to its right and proper axis For this I am grateful and hopeful Grateful that the conversation has begun and hopeful that it is just the beginning This book will challenge postmodern critics and artists alike prodding us forward to reevaluate our beliefs and aesthetics Bo Bartlett Artist and PEW Fellow Ronald R Bernier is Assistant Professor of Humanities Social Sciences and Management at Wentworth Institute of Technology in Boston Massachusetts He is the author of Monument Moment and Memory Monet's Cathedral in Fin de Siecle France 2007 The Unspeakable Art of Bill Viola Ronald R. Bernier, 2014-05-19 The breach of art from religion is just one of the many unhappy legacies of modernism There was a time however when the aesthetic and the spiritual were of a piece This study of the work of American video artist Bill Viola considers the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art a reenchantment of art as some have called it Using the high tech apparatus of modern video Viola's art is rooted precisely in this theological tradition of transcendent mystical experience and spiritual self concentration The technological apotheosis of modern image making high speed film high definition video LCD and plasma screens and sophisticated sound recording are put to use by Viola in ways that significantly challenge prevailing intellectual and artistic traditions and return us to the power of the Sublime that which by definition defeats language Viola's art as such converges with postmodern notions of the unrepresentable and with the ancient theological tradition of apophysis speaking away or unsaying The fullness of meaning then appears only as a promise of presence through embodied absence neither fully here and now nor entirely elsewhere and beyond This study seeks to define through the work of a courageous and thoughtful contemporary artist the theological sublime as an aesthetic of revelation Monet's Cathedral Joachim Pissarro, Claude Monet, 1990 Now for the first time all 33 paintings in this series which has never yet been exhibited or reproduced completely are brought together Each is presented in full color on a double spread and shows the magnificent Rouen Cathedral at a different time of day in different lights weathers and moods Claude Monet's Paintings of Rouen Cathedral George Heard Hamilton, 1960 Cathedrals Edward Leffingwell, 2007 Claude Monet's thematic cycle of paintings of the Rouen Cathedral is one of the most famous art series of all time These masterworks capture the changing play of light and shadow on different areas of the cathedral throughout the day from early morning to nightfall Here they are side by side so that the brilliance of Monet's achievement with its beautiful palette and exquisite framing shines through Monet's Cathedral Joachim Pissarro, 1992-03-01
