Explaining Reading, Third Edition Gerald G. Duffy, 2014-04-29 This trusted teacher resource and widely adopted text presents effective ways to demystify essential reading skills and strategies for K-8 students who are struggling. It has been fully revised to focus on the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for English language arts. Following a concise introduction to the CCSS and explicit teaching, 30 engaging examples show how to be explicit when teaching each Literature, Informational Text, and Foundational Skills standard. Grounded in authentic reading tasks that teachers can adapt for their classrooms, the examples guide teachers to differentiate instruction, model and scaffold learning, assess student skills, and align reading instruction with Common Core writing standards. New to This Edition: Significantly revised and restructured with a CCSS focus. The teaching examples are all new or revised. Provides practical ways to develop close reading of text. Incorporates recent research on authentic tasks and adaptive teaching.

Affect and Cognition Margaret S. Clark, Susan T. Fiske, 2014-01-14 First published in 1982. In late May 1981, the 17th annual Carnegie Symposium on Cognition brought 16 cognitive and social psychologists to Carnegie Mellon University. Their topic was affect and cognition. For only the second time, the Carnegie Symposium had been organized by social psychologists. John Carroll and John Payne chaired the first social cognitive symposium in 1975. Their conference came precisely at the time when social cognition was beginning to take root within social psychology. Since then, the area has blossomed. These are the papers from the conference.

In these much anticipated sequels to The Common Core Companion, Janiel Wagstaff and Leslie Blauman provide a collection of connected lessons and formative writing assessments that bring Monday to Friday clarity to the task of integrating reading and writing with ELA standards. In each volume, the 50 lessons are divided into five week-long learning sequences addressing key literacy goals.
