for Roland Leong to live up to his family's expectations. However, that wasn't the case. The Hawaiian knew at a young age that drag racing was his career path. His supportive mother, Teddy, saw potential in Roland and bought him a new 1962 Corvette for educational purposes such as wrenching and tuning. From there, it didn't take long for the world to discover Oahu's best kept secret in drag racing. In 1964, less than two years after reaching the mainland, Roland was in victory lane at the Winternationals in Top Gas Eliminator. The following year, with Don Prudhomme behind the wheel, The Hawaiian immortalized his place in drag racing forever with wins in NHRA's Top Fuel Eliminator at Pomona Winternationals and Indy US Nationals. Leong became the first ever to capture those iconic crowns in a single season. For good measure, Roland repeated the achievement in 1966 with Mike Snively, showing the world that a Harvard education isn't required to achieve greatness. The Hawaiian, Roland Leong, Drag Racing's Iconic Owner Tuner, is a tale of family, friends, and forging a path that no other Chinese Hawaiian before him had carved. Re-live his biggest wins and lasting friendships in this first ever publication on drag racing's first builder and tuner superstar, Roland Leong.

Selling the American Muscle Car Diego Rosenberg, 2016-10-14. As the muscle car wars developed in the early 1960s, auto manufacturers scrambled to find catchy marketing campaigns to entice the buying public into their dealerships. General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler, with all their divisions, as well as AMC and Studebaker, inevitably sank billions of dollars into one-upmanship in an effort to vie for the consumer's last dollar. Automotive writer Diego Rosenberg examines the tactics and components used by manufacturers in waging war against one another in the muscle car era Manufacturers poured millions into racing programs operating under the principle of Win on Sunday Sell on Monday Cars were given catchy nicknames such as The GTO Judge Plymouth Roadrunner Cobra and Dodge Super Bee Entire manufacturer lines were given catchy marketing campaigns such as Dodge s Scat Pack AMC s Go Package and Ford s Total Performance From racing to commercials to print ads from dealer showrooms to national auto shows each manufacturer had its own approach in vying for the buyer s attention and gimmicks and tactics ranged from comical to dead serious Selling the American Muscle Car Marketing Detroit Iron in the 60s and 70s takes you back to an era when options were plentiful and performance was cheap You will relive or be introduced to some of the cleverest marketing campaigns created during a time when America was changing every day skills so he joined the Air Corps to continue his education and flew with Air Transport Command. By the time Ed mustered out of the service the California hot rod scene was in full bloom with tens of thousands of vets who had the desire to make cars go fast. Isky Ed Iskenderian and the History of Hot Rodding tells the whole story from his pre war Lake Muroc and car club activities his service in the military starting a small business fabricating parts and making cams in the back of a rented shop and then selling cams to other rodders. It covers how he grew a business from a single cam grinder and became the leading cam authority in barely 10 years. Ed was a gifted machinist and he also had a natural knack for promotion. He purchased an ad in the second issue of Hot Rod magazine sensing something big his instincts as always were right. He was also the first to use T shirts and uniforms as promotion. Not only was he an early pioneer in the industry for print advertising and catalogs he was also among the first to understand the value of having successful race cars using his cams in their engines and wearing his decals on their fenders. The biggest names in the racing industry were running Isky cams and Ed made sure the world knew it. Ed's company name went on to become one of the household names in the performance community. His continued success is an entertaining tale of mingling with industry icons insight into the business of hot rodding great stories of yesterday and today and a life very well lived.
