Re-Enchanting Education and Spiritual Wellbeing Marian de Souza, Anna Halafoff, 2017-09-14 Education is in a constant state of renewal internationally where it responds to a number of pressing social political and cultural issues Processes of globalization a number of conflicts and acts of terror economic and environmental crises have led to large waves of migration and asylum seekers arriving in countries with the hope of finding safer and more stable places to settle This in turn has led to cultural and religious pluralism being a key characteristic of many societies with corresponding issues of belonging and identity As well for many people there has been a shifting influence of and allegiance away from traditional religious frameworks with the emergence of new religious movements both peaceful and violent and a rise in popularity of spirituality and non religious worldviews which provide alternate frameworks for living healthy and ethical lives In order to prepare today s student for tomorrow s world one which is confronted by a range of risks and crises and which is being shaped by rapidly changing technologies educators and researchers are investigating new ways of equipping students to deal with these challenges and opportunities including the nurturing of spiritual wellbeing This book brings together the voices of many experienced educators to discuss ways to re enchant education and re enliven learning programs in response to these 21st century issues in an increasingly global and interconnected world It examines a range of international contexts including secular and religious educational settings and provides an avenue for visionary voices that identify problems and offer solutions to help shape a more promising education system that will prepare children more constructively and beneficially to flourish in their future worlds

Life and Moral Education in Greater China John Chi-Kin Lee, Stephen Yam-wing Yip, Raymond Ho-Man Kong, 2021-03-30 Arguing for life moral and values education as a bedrock for the original goals of school education this monograph explores how life and values education is conceptualised and imparted in Greater China Under a globalized transnational and technological world where there has been an increase in people s mobility in information and cultural exchanges there is also a growing emphasis on personal and professional ethics Against this context life moral and values education has gained attention for its impact on shaping students characters as future citizens However the cultivation of these values is made deeply diversified and complex by varying interpretations of life education and values education across societies given that different societies are influenced by different socio cultural traditions educational ideologies and religious beliefs The means and approaches towards life education also vary vastly from formal school subjects school based programmes as well as teachers and peers role modelling community services extra curricular activities school discipline charity work pastoral care and school ethos Recognising this inherent diversity and complexity in the approach to and the dissemination of life education the contributors to this volume survey the practice of life education in Greater China so far suggesting that life education is most effective when it is diversified dynamic and developmental across contexts This book will provide the opportunity for engaging in important and serious debates about the future and the values that will underpin it and will prove of special interest to scholars and practitioners working on education policies curriculum development and teacher education in Greater China

Education, Arts, and Morality Doris B. Wallace, 2006-01-27 Inspired by Howard Gruber s Evolving Systems Approach these studies explore creativity in several domains The idea that the creative person embodies a system of loosely coupled sub systems knowledge purpose and affect that work together is viewed here in different chapters that explore this concept These include autobiographies of incarcerated youth curricula for moral and civic responsibility changing attitudes of readers to text romance novels as well as case studies of highly creative individuals such as George Bernard Shaw Gruber s approach provides concepts as well as methodological tools which the authors apply to diverse creative processes This book is a valuable resource for undergraduate as well as graduate level students interested in creativity development and education In addition to the intrinsic interest of each chapter the guiding theme of the book is the underlying theory of creativity Gruber s Evolving Systems Approach and illustrates the unusual breadth and flexibility of that theory Educating Moral Sensibilities in Urban Schools ,2019-02-11 Nowadays schools face the challenge of creating pedagogical environments that are sensitive to numerous individual backgrounds in order to support students social and academic success Urban schools are communities with rich possibilities to learn how to think feel and act morally In this task principals teachers parents and students of the schools each have their own voice All these voices have to be heard in order to build communities with moral sensibilities This book brings together recent work by international researchers from nine countries in the fields of moral development and citizenship education The book consists of twelve chapters and it is divided into three parts While the first part deals with the voices of urban school educators the second part contains chapters with the focus on students The third part is about curriculum programs and practices in schools that contribute to the education of moral sensibilities in the school communities This book can be used as a textbook in moral and citizenship education or as an updated research report on international research on moral sensibilities
