Memory And Abuse Remembering And Healing The Effects Of Trauma:

Memory and Abuse Charles L. Whitfield,1995-07-01 Remembering what happened in any traumatic experience is basic and crucial to healing For over 100 years the memory of abuse survivors has been questioned and challenged by all sorts of people ranging from perpetrators to family members More recently this memory has been challenged by a combination of accused family members their lawyers and a few academics who claim the existence of a false memory syndrome In this groundbreaking book Charles Whitfield voted by his peers as being one of the best doctors in America brings his clinical experience and knowledge about traumatic memory to us He examines explores and clarifies this critical issue that threatens to invalidate the experience of survivors of trauma and handcuff the helping professionals who assist them as they heal This thorough insightful work provides crucial information for anyone affected by a traumatic experience Healing from the Trauma of Childhood Sexual Abuse Karen A. Duncan,2004-08-30 The traumatic affects of childhood sexual abuse can remain and recur throughout life for women who have not healed emotionally This book by a family therapist shares stories from 18 women abused as children explaining that healing can occur at any stage of life and that healing itself occurs in stages The author offers guidance to recognize the long lingering potential affects of childhood sexual abuse including depression anxiety dissociation and chronic shock and she explains steps to take for recovery Also presented are letters from women who have healed or are in recovery Sexual abuse by men juveniles and female perpetrators is discussed as is how children may act out the abusive behavior taught by perpetrators The incidence of abuse by family members is also addressed Duncan explains the dual dilemma moral and legal that women face in exposing a sexual perpetrator within the family when not protected by the legal system due to statutes of limitations She also discusses controversial topics including false memory and disclosure of memory to the perpetrator Recovered Memories and False Memories Martin A. Conway,1997 The question of whether memories can be lost particularly as a result of trauma and then recovered through psychotherapy has polarised the field of memory research This is the first volume to bring together leading memory researchers and clinicians with the aiming of facilitating a resolution to this question The volume offers a unique and timely summary of the theories of memory recovery and how false memories may be created Some of the first research relating to the phenomenal characteristics of memory recovered is reported in detail suggesting important avenues for new research Theories of autobiographical memory implicit memory reminiscence and the effects of repeated recall on memory are included Recovered memories and false memories provides the most current and authoritative thinking in this area and will be an essential sourcebook for memory researchers and psychotherapists Recollections of Trauma J. Don Read,D. Steve Lindsay,2013-11-11 Proceedings of a NATO ASI held in Port de Bourgenay France June 1996 Psychology of Trauma 101 Lesia M. Misinformation Concerning Child Sexual Abuse and Adult Survivors Paul Jay Fink,Joyanna Silberg,Charles L. Whitfield,2019-11-20 Successfully navigate the minefield of misinformation that can prevent justice from being done in child sexual abuse cases From the Foreword by Robert Geffner PhD editor of the Journal of Child Sexual Abuse Too often the public and some professionals have been misled by media publicity and articles that appear scientific but in reality are biased opinions or over generalized research Forensic cases are being decided in many courts based upon the recommendations of so called expert witnesses who do not actually know the clinical research or understand the dynamics of such abusive relationships This much needed book points out and corrects misinformation that everyone who works with victims offenders or families in which sexual abuse has occurred needs to understand clearly Especially vital in today s political climate Misinformation Concerning Child Sexual Abuse and Adult Survivors gives you state of the science information on such myths as false memory syndrome recovered memory therapy and the lack of harm to some sexually abused boys Misinformation Concerning Child Sexual Abuse and Adult Survivors examines forensic issues including the false memory defense and how the long term impact of childhood sexual abuse is often misrepresented in court three separate expert examinations of Rind Tromovitch and Bauserman s well known and often misrepresented review of long term child sexual abuse outcomes treatment recommendations and guidelines for addressing the memory controversy in clinical practice the fascinating case history cautionary tale of the child molester Robert Halsey who was convicted and sentenced to two life sentences in 1993 and how public and academic resources were misused to claim he was wrongly convicted

The Legacy of a Troubled Past Bernard Cros,Mathilde Rogez,Gilles Teulie,2022-06-07 Since the advent of democracy in 1994 South Africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history This book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt To do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of South African history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as RhodesMustFall or the inquests into the 2012 Marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society The authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action In focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is South Africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period Do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past

Epidemic will be of interest to researchers and clinicians as well as undergraduate and graduate students in the fields of psychology sociology cultural studies religion and anthropology The Death of Psychotherapy Donald A. Eisner,2000-01-30 Psychologist attorney Eisner puts psychotherapy on trial by critically examining its effectiveness through the lens of the scientific method From psychoanalysis to cognitive behavior therapy as well as the 500 or so other psychotherapies there is not a single experimental study that supports the effectiveness of psychotherapy over a placebo or religious healing Using both case examples and clinical research this book challenges the conclusion that there is empirical support for the notion that psychotherapy is effective The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art Dirk Cornelis de Bruyn,2014-10-02 With reference to recent neurological research into Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD using new imaging technologies and models of implicit and explicit memory systems developed from this research The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art examines the capacity of an artist's cinema of experimental and avant garde film to perform and communicate traumatic experience De Bruyn analyses key films from the 1940s to the present that perform aspects of overwhelming experience through their approach structure content and perceptual impact mapping a trajectory from analogue to contemporary digital moving image practice He argues for the inclusion of Peter Gidal's 1970s conception of materialist film into the genre of trauma cinema through its capacity to articulate unlocatability and perceptually perform disorientation and a flashback effect all further identified here as key characteristics of digital moving image practice The discussion explores the following questions Can materialist film model traumatic memory and perform the traumatic flashback Does the capacity to articulate trauma's unspeakability and invisibility give this practice a renewed relevance in digital media's preoccupation with surface and the impact of information overload De Bruyn's phenomenological traumatic reading of materialist film steps beyond Gidal's original anti illusionist rationale to incorporate critiques effectively mounted against it by the founders of a 70s feminist psychoanalytic counter cinema This contemporary re-reading further re-evaluates the Minimalist turn in painting and sculpture after the Second World War arguing that this development is not essentialist or visionary but makes visible the implicit mechanisms of denial and erasure at the core of traumatic remembering For de Bruyn the initial traumatic impact of industrialization on the body's perceptual apparatus traceable through the advent of cinema and train travel is communicated by such moving image art The development of digital technology marks a new cycle of such perceptual re-balancing for which materialist film is uniquely positioned and which it critically addresses Trauma, the Body and Transformation Kim Etherington,2003-04-04 Trauma suffered during childhood can affect not only a person's emotional and mental health but also their physical health even into adulthood This unique book fills a gap in research in this area providing personal and theoretical perspectives on trauma and recovery In the Fire Patricia Ella,Patricia Marseglia,2008-06 This my second book of my 4 in a bibliotherapy series Like war veterans who have either taken a life or seen life taken my young life was ruined after my forced horrible abortion in 1977 This is my story to overcome and affirm my damaged emotional
