Chapter 1:

1. What do you think hurts Lennie the most in this chapter? How does this represent his personality?
2. Why do you think Lennie and George are such good friends but don't work well with each other?
3. What are some characteristics of Lennie that makes him childlike? 4. Through this chapter they talk about owning a farm. Steinbeck writes, "He repeated his words rhythmically as though he had said them many times before." (Steinbeck 13). What effect does this story have on Lennie and why does George tell it so often?
5. What probably happened at Weed that got them fired? Whose fault do you think it was primarily?
6. What is the connection between what happened with Lennie and the mouse and what happened at Weed?
7. Give some examples of foreshadowing in this chapter. What do you think will happen in the next chapters based off the first chapter?

Chapter 2:

1. What sort of a character is Curley? How do you think being the boss's son has impacted his personality?
2. On page 30, George tells Lennie not to get into a fight with Curley by being lured in, presumably wanting to keep the job. He then tells him that if Curley starts it, he should fight back. Why does George give this odd set of instructions?
3. What are George and Lennie's general impressions of the job they're working now? The staff?
4. What other options do George and Lennie have if they don't like a job? How might this impact the way workers were treated?
5. What is George's advice to Lennie about Curley? Why?
6. What parallels can be drawn between the death of the puppies and the death of the mice in the first chapter? How are innocent creatures treated in the world the book depicts?
