McInnis,2022-12-13 How portrayals of anti Blackness in literature and film challenge myths about South Florida history and culture In this book Tatiana McInnis examines literary and cultural representations of Miami alongside the city s material realities to challenge the image of South Florida as a diverse cosmopolitan paradise McInnis discusses how this favorable melting pot narrative depends on the obfuscation of racialized violence against people of African descent Analyzing novels short stories and memoirs by Edwidge Danticat M J Fiebre Carlos Moore Carlos Eire Patricia Stephens Due and Tananarive Due as well as films such as Dawg Fight and Moonlight McInnis demonstrates how these creations push back against erasure by representing the experiences of Black Americans and immigrants from Caribbean nations McInnis considers portrayals of state sanctioned oppression residential segregation violent detention of emigres and increasing wealth gaps and concludes that celebrations of Miami s diversity disguise the pervasive adaptive nature of white supremacy and anti Blackness To Tell a Black Story of Miami offers a model of how to use literature as a primary archive in urban studies It draws attention to the similarities and divergences between Miami's Black diasporic communities a historically underrepresented demographic in popular and scholarly awareness of the city Increasing understanding of Miami's political social and economic inequities this book brings greater nuance to traditional narratives of exceptionalism in cities and regions Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Marjory Stoneman Douglas
 Marjory Stoneman Douglas, 2014-10-01 Born in Minnesota in 1890 and raised and educated in Massachusetts Marjory Stoneman Douglas came to Florida in 1915 to work for her father who had just started a newspaper called the Herald in a small town called Miami In this frontier town she recovered from a misjudged marriage learned to write journalism and fiction and drama took on the fight for feminism and racial justice and conservation long before those causes became popular and embarked on a long and uncommonly successful voyage into self understanding Way before women did this sort of thing she recognized her own need for solitude and independence and built her own little house away from town in an area called Coconut Grove She still lives there as she has for over 40 years with her books and cats and causes emerging frequently to speak still a powerful force in ecopolitics Marjory Stoneman Douglas begins this story of her life by admitting that the hardest thing is to tell the truth about oneself and ends it stating her belief that life should be lived so vividly and so intensely that thoughts of another life or a longer life are not necessary The voice that emerges in between is a voice from the past and a voice from the future a voice of conviction and common sense with a sense of humor a voice so many audiences have heard over the years tough words in a genteel accent emerging from a tiny woman in a floppy hat which has truly become the voice of the river
