More Good Words Practical Activities For Mourning:

More Good Words Beth L. Hewett Ph.D., 2014-06-25 Hewett provides generously varied approaches to living with the death of a loved one reflecting her belief that grief is a process that connects body mind and spirit The book is designed to provide an array of constructive creative ways for mourners to spend their time as they move toward adjustment and reconciliation Readers may select the ones most compatible with their own beliefs and lifestyles Kirkus Indie Review When grief hits we hurt What can we do about the pain of grief Dr Hewett explains that grief and mourning are not the same thing grief is passive it happens to us and mourning is active we do something with the grief More Good Words Practical Activities for Mourning teaches that grief is deeply related to love It encompasses a broad spectrum of emotions as a reaction to a loss like death Mourning occurs through a wide range of actions that we can take to work with that grief Viewing grief as a hopeful journey rather than an obstacle this book uses five realms of experience emotional spiritual physical cognitive and social to provide concrete mourning activities that address grief and lead to hope for healing These activities are ones that readers can do as provided or adapt to fit their own unique circumstances and grief The book ends with a discussion of practical ways to connect with our dying family members and friends as well as specific actions we can take to help our families mourn when we eventually die More Good Words looks honestly at grief and mourning in North America and offers hope for walking that necessary journey

Good Words Beth L. Hewett, Ph.D, 2014-06-24 This book walks readers through the writing process to help them develop powerful and personal eulogies based on time honored strategies It also teaches readers how to deliver the eulogy effectively Good Words is full of useful information about eulogies such as how and when to include children in the ceremony how to write eulogies for difficult situations like suicide or strained relationships how to revise and polish a eulogy after the funeral or memorial ceremony and how various religious perspectives from a wide variety of spiritual traditions might influence the eulogy Dying, Death, & Bereavement in Social Work Practice Terry A.

Wolfer, Vicki M. Runnion, 2008 Practitioners who work with clients at the end of their lives face difficult decisions concerning the client's self determination the kind of death he or she will have and the prolongation of life They must also remain sensitive to the beliefs and needs of family members and the legal ethical and spiritual ramifications of the client's death Featuring twenty three decision cases based on interviews with professional social workers this unique volume allows students to wrestle with the often incomplete and conflicting information ethical issues and time constraints of actual cases Instead of offering easy solutions this book provides detailed accounts that provoke stimulating debates among students enabling them to confront their own responses beliefs and uncertainties to hone their critical thinking and decision making skills for professional practice Please note Teaching Notes for this volume will be available from Electronic Hallway in Spring 2010 To access the Teaching Notes you must first become a member of the Electronic Hallway The main Electronic Hallway web page is at <https://hallway.org/index.php> To join click Become a Hallway Member in the Get Involved category or point

Affect Regulation Training Matthias Berking, Brian Whitley, 2014-08-30 Emotion Regulation is currently one of the most popular topics in clinical psychology Numerous studies demonstrate that deficits in emotion regulation skills are likely to help maintain various forms of psychological disorders Thus enhancing emotion regulation has become a major target in psychotherapeutic treatments For this purpose a number of therapeutic strategies have been developed and shown to be effective However for practitioners it is often difficult to decide which of these strategies they should use or how they can effectively combine empirically validated strategies Thus the authors developed the Affect Regulation Training as a transdiagnostic intervention which systematically integrates strategies from cognitive behavior therapy mindfulness based interventions emotion focused therapy and dialectical behavioral therapy The effectiveness of ART has been demonstrated in several high quality studies

Death and the Afterlife Kit Ying Lye, Terence Heng, 2024-06-12 What insights can we gain from the rituals actions and interactions around death and the afterlife This edited collection offers a multidisciplinary perspective on how individuals and collectives do death and interact with the dead Through case studies of Singaporean Chinese religion communities the authors bring a myriad of knowledge and experience from eight different but interconnected disciplines to examine map document and theorise the practices of death and the afterlife Heritage here is not just a point of nostalgia or historical snapshot but becomes a significant resource for the shaping of and grappling with diasporic and contemporary Singaporean Chinese identities This edited collection moves beyond western sites of knowledge by offering a series of multidisciplinary perspectives on death practices drawn from research with individuals groups and organisations that identify themselves as Singaporean Chinese and the spaces and places often referred to as Chinese Singapore This collection will appeal to a wide and diverse audience of scholars students and practitioners In particular key target audiences would include but are not limited to those interested in Asia particularly Chinese studies and Chinese migrant diasporic communities and scholars in sociology history anthropology and social cultural geography Universalist Union ,1840 Narrative Theory in Clinical Social Work Practice John P. McTighe, 2018-01-03 This theory to practice guide offers mental health practitioners a powerful narrative based approach to working with clients in clinical practice It opens with a primer on contemporary narrative theory and offers a robust framework based on the art and techniques of listening for deeper more meaningful understanding and intervention Chapters expand on these foundational concepts by applying them to a diverse range of populations and issues among them race and ethnicity human sexuality immigration and the experience of trauma grief and loss The author s engaging voice thoughtful pedagogical style and extensive use of examples and exercises also work together to inform the reader s own narrative of growth and self knowledge Included in the coverage Encountering the self encountering the other narratives of race and ethnicity Surviving together individual and communal narratives in the wake of tragedy Spiritual stories exploring ultimate meaning in social work practice Sexual stories narratives of sexual identity gender and sexual development Leaving home finding home narrative practice with immigrant populations Moving on narrative perspectives on grief and loss Narrative Theory in Clinical Social Work Practice is geared toward students as well as seasoned social workers and professionals and practitioners in related clinical fields interested in informing their work with a narrative approach The Encyclopaedic dictionary; a new, practical and exhaustive work of reference to all the words in the English language, with a full account of their origin, meaning, pronunciation, history and use Robert Hunter,1894 Social Work Practice with Children and Families Francis K. O. Yuen,2014-06-11 Social Work Practice with Children and Families presents the framework for family health social work and its applications in various practice environments This vital textbook provides a unique blend of academic deliberations and practical service guidelines with topics ranging from forensic social work and community practice to disability child welfare and HIV AIDS The book is organized into two major sections entitled Practice Interventions and Policy Programs and Emerging Families Case examples or discussion questions are included at the end of each chapter to facilitate more in depth understanding and discussion among graduate and undergraduate students professors and educators in health and human service areas To view an excerpt online find the book on our QuickSearch catalog at www.HaworthPress.com Trauma and Grief Component Therapy for Adolescents William Saltzman,Christopher Layne,Robert Pynoos,Erna Olafson,Julie Kaplow,Barbara Boat,2017-12-21 Developed by experts in trauma psychiatry and psychology and grounded in adolescent developmental theory this is a modular assessment driven treatment that addresses the needs of adolescents facing trauma bereavement and accompanying developmental disruption Created by the developers of the University of California Los Angeles PTSD Reaction Index and the Persistent Complex Bereavement Disorder Checklist the book links clinicians with cutting edge research in traumatic stress and bereavement as well as ongoing training opportunities This innovative guide offers teen friendly coping skills handouts and specialized therapeutic exercises to reduce distress and promote adaptive developmental progression Sessions can be flexibly tailored for group or individual treatment modalities school based community mental health or private practice settings and different timeframes and specific client needs Drawing on multidimensional grief theory it offers a valuable toolkit for psychologists psychiatrists counsellors and others who work with bereaved and traumatized adolescents Engaging multicultural illustrations and extensive field testing give this user friendly manual international appeal The Death of a Scientist Alexander Vapirev,2018-09-24 A contemporary and detailed look at the reality behind the PhD degrees and postdoctoral fellowships in academia The book explores some of the most pressing issues and unique challenges currently facing the doctoral and postdoctoral programs both on a local institutional level and on a global one where multiple complex factors influencing and governing the academic environment take place The interrelated nature of these challenges together with discussions over certain historical trends and demographics offer a unique perspective on some often overlooked topics such as academic advisors and mentoring increasing job insecurity career prospects mental issues discrimination and women in science ever growing need for funding increasing pressure for high profile research internationalization of science trends in university management higher education dynamics and government policies backed with references to published research national and international surveys and census data Today most of the PhD programs have been accommodated to the benefit of the university with disregard to any sustainable demand and supply job market strategies contrary to the original ideas behind their inception The result is an over flooded job market and huge underemployment rates among doctorate holders Infused with a narrative of a rich mix of personal experiences observations and impressions all dressed in humor mostly dark sarcasm irony disbelief and often outright criticism this text does not shy away from asking uncomfortable questions and even attempts to provide answers to some of them At the same time it also offers practical advice for those considering and those who already have dared to tread the PhD path
