

"Tom King's splendid history of accounting, accounting standards, and accounting manipulation will persuade you that the differences between 'reported' earnings, 'operating' earnings, and 'pro forma' earnings don't really matter. The numbers we see are designed to meet an objective, not to measure its achievement. The scandal, it turns out, is not what's illegal. It's what's legal. No intelligent investor can afford to ignore this timely book."

—John C. Bogle, founder, The Vanguard Group, and author,
