Sauers,2017-07-19 The National Tribune was the premier Union veterans newspaper of the post Civil War era Launched in 1877 by a New York veteran to help his comrades and sway Congress to pass better pension laws a short time later the National Tribune began publishing firsthand accounts penned by the veterans themselves and did so for decades thereafter This rich overlooked and underused source of primary material offers a gold mine of eyewitness accounts of battles strategy tactics camp life and much more From generals to privates the paper printed articles and long serials on everything from major battles such as Gettysburg and Antietam to arguments about which battery fired the shot that killed General Leonidas Polk whether Grant s army was surprised at Shiloh and just about every topic in between Unbeknownst to many a number of Confederate accounts were also published in the paper Decades in the making Dr Rick Sauers unique multi volume reference work The National Tribune Civil War Index A Guide to the Weekly Newspaper Dedicated to Civil War Veterans 1877 1943 lists every article 1877 1943 The first two volumes are organized by author his unit title and page column location The third volume the main index includes a subject author and unit guide as well as a Unit as Sources index that lists articles that mention specific commands but are written by soldiers who were not members of that unit As an added bonus this reference guide includes the contents of both the National Tribune Scrapbook and the National Tribune Repository two short lived publications that included articles by veterans and a listing of the major libraries that have National Tribune holdings Thanks to Dr Sauers Civil War researchers and writers worldwide now have easy access to the valuable contents of this primary source material
