Patterns Of Artistic Development In Children Comparative Studies Of Talent:

Patterns of Artistic Development in Children Constance Milbrath, 1998-09-13 This book presents several original studies of artistically talented children and their less talented peers The focus is on the spontaneous drawings children produce and on the types of compositions children generate when given materials to compose Milbrath's model of artistic talent attributes individual differences to the figurative abilities of talented children and her theory is richly supported by original examples of children's artwork

Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science, Cognitive Processes, 2015-03-31 The essential reference for human development theory updated and reconceptualized The Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science a four volume reference is the field defining work to which all others are compared First published in 1946 and now in its Seventh Edition the Handbook has long been considered the definitive guide to the field of developmental science Volume 2 Cognitive Processes describes cognitive development as a relational phenomenon that can be studied only as part of a larger whole of the person and context relational system that sustains it In this volume specific domains of cognitive development are contextualized with respect to biological processes and sociocultural contexts Furthermore key themes and issues e.g the importance of symbolic systems and social understanding are threaded across multiple chapters although every each chapter is focused on a different domain within cognitive development Thus both within and across chapters the complexity and interconnectivity of cognitive development are well illuminated Learn about the inextricable intertwining of perceptual development motor development emotional development and brain development Understand the complexity of cognitive development without misleading simplification reducing cognitive development to its biological substrates or viewing it as a passive socialization process Discover how each portion of the developmental process contributes to subsequent cognitive development Examine the multiple processes such as categorizing reasoning thinking decision making and judgment that comprise cognition The scholarship within this volume and as well across the four volumes of this edition illustrate that developmental science is in the midst of a very exciting period There is a paradigm shift that involves increasingly greater understanding of how to describe explain and optimize the course of human life for diverse individuals living within diverse contexts This Handbook is the definitive reference for educators policy makers researchers students and practitioners in human development psychology sociology anthropology and neuroscience

Art Works Ellen Winner, 2019. How Art Works explores puzzles that have preoccupied philosophers as well as the general public. Can art be defined? How do we decide what is good art? Why do we gravitate to sadness in art? Why do we devalue a perfect fake? Could my kid have done that? Does reading fiction enhance empathy? Drawing on careful observations, probing interviews, and clever experiments, Ellen Winner reveals surprising answers to these and other artistic mysteries. We may come away with a new understanding of how art works on us. Jacket Children's Understanding and Production of Pictures, Drawings & Art Constance Milbrath, 2008. This book presents an innovative approach to the psychological study of children's pictures, drawings, and art. With contributions from leading experts in the field, it compiles all the relevant theory and research on children's developing conceptions of pictures, drawings, and art. It is the first book to focus explicitly on children's knowledge and judgment of pictorial representations, including the understanding of their role as artist and viewer.

Trames, 2006. Drawing and the Non-Verbal Mind Chris Lange-Küttner, Annie Vinter, 2008-08-14. Fascinating insight into the life span and productivity of the non-verbal visual mind. Visual and Motor Cognition in Infants and Children Christiane Lange-Küttner, 2024-03-21. This insightful book offers an authoritative yet accessible introduction to the development of visual abilities and motor skills in infants and children. Based on theory and cutting-edge up-to-date research about the development of non-verbal intelligence, it provides readers with essential knowledge about the foundations of typical and atypical development. Split into two parts, the book begins by describing the development of components of non-verbal intelligence in typical development. Several studies are presented that document the importance of a transition from an object place to objects region encoding for proper spatial categorisation. In the second part, the book discusses which of the visual spatial motor imagery categorisation, memory, and planning processes may be affected in children with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), autistic spectrum disorder (ASD), and developmental coordination disorder (DCD). Lange K

ttner introduces a Spatial Model that integrates object salience speed and abstraction of spatial patterns of locations re occurring at different ages She also develops a Spatial Freedom Theory that argues that spatial containment constraints and exploration belong together The book encourages and stimulates new research ideas by discussing the most important research results to date and identifying new research questions This text will be of interest to students and instructors as well as researchers in the fields of developmental clinical educational and cognitive psychology as well as neuroscience and physical education
