Rogers,2020-10-15 Musicals it is often said burst into song and dance when mere words can no longer convey the emotion This book argues that musicals burst into song and dance when one body can no longer convey the emotion Rogers shows how the musical s episodes of burlesque and minstrelsy model the kinds of radical relationships that the genre works to create across the different bodies of its performers spectators and creators every time the musical bursts into song These radical relationships borne of the musical s obsessions with bad performances of gender and race are the root of the genre s progressive play with identity and thus the source of its subcultural power However this leads to an ethical dilemma Are the musical s progressive politics thus rooted in its embrace of regressive entertainments like burlesque and minstrelsy The Song Is You shows how musicals return again and again to this question and grapple with a guilt that its joyous pleasures are based on exploiting the laboring bodies of its performers Rogers argues that the discourse of integration which claims that songs should advance the plot has functioned to deny the radical work that the musical undertakes every time it transitions into song and dance Looking at musicals from The Black Crook to Hamilton Rogers confronts the gendered and racial dynamics that have always under girded the genre and asks how we move forward Film Blackness Michael Boyce Gillespie,2016-08-25 In Film Blackness Michael Boyce Gillespie shifts the ways we think about black film treating it not as a category a genre or strictly a representation of the black experience but as a visual negotiation between film as art and the discursivity of race Gillespie challenges expectations that black film can or should represent the reality of black life or provide answers to social problems Instead he frames black film alongside literature music art photography and new media treating it as an interdisciplinary form that enacts black visual and expressive culture Gillespie discusses the racial grotesque in Ralph Bakshi s Coonskin 1975 black performativity in Wendell B Harris Jr s Chameleon Street 1989 blackness and noir in Bill Duke s Deep Cover 1992 and how place and desire impact blackness in Barry Jenkins s Medicine for Melancholy 2008 Considering how each film represents a distinct conception of the relationship between race and cinema Gillespie recasts the idea of black film and poses new paradigms for genre narrative aesthetics historiography and intertextuality African American Perspectives in Musical Theatre Eric M. Glover,2023-11-16 From Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins s 1879 musical Peculiar Sam to Lynn Nottage s 2021 musical MJ the Black musical does not get the credit it deserves for sustaining the genre we know and love This introductory book is devoted to representative African American perspectives in musical theatre from the literature of slavery and freedom 1746 1865 to the contemporary period offering the reader case studies of what the Black musical is how it works and why it matters Based on Glover s experience teaching Black musical theatre at a conservatory and in the liberal arts he draws his close readings of Eubie Blake Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins and Charlie Smalls from theory and practice Moreover Glover investigates how the ballet the musical comedy the opera the play with music and the revue are similar and different narrative sub genres Finally the book reflect on issues such as blackface minstrelsy the Chitlin Circuit non traditional casting and yellowface Published in the Topics in Musical Theatre series this short book gives the reader new ways of seeing the aesthetically and politically capacious category of Black musical theatre from an anti racist approach

Maternal Representations in Twenty-First Century Broadway Musicals Gina Masucci MacKenzie,2019-11-01 Maternal Representations in Twenty First Century Broadway Musicals Stage Mothers analyzes Broadway productions within the context of their presentation and assessment of motherhood and the variety of roles for mother figures Using a frame of feminist and psychoanalytical positions Gina MacKenzie establishes defines and interprets mother figures in contemporary Broadway according to original categorizations of the absent inconsequential and overbearing mothers MacKenzie considers how and why commercial representation of mother figures are limited and predominantly negative even as fiction poetry and other forms of drama offer a much wider and progressive view of the varieties of motherhood possible in society asserting the need for greater representation of mother figures in commercial musical theatre today

A Wall of Our Own Paul M. Farber,2020-02-17 The Berlin Wall is arguably the most prominent symbol of the Cold War era Its construction in 1961 and its dismantling in 1989 are broadly understood as pivotal moments in the history of the last century In A Wall of Our Own Paul M Farber traces the Berlin Wall as a site of pilgrimage for American artists writers and activists During the Cold War and in the shadow of the Wall figures such as Leonard Freed Angela Davis Shinkichi Tajiri and Audre Lorde weighed the possibilities and limits of American democracy All were sparked by their first encounters with the Wall incorporated their reflections in books and artworks directed toward the geopolitics of division in the United States and considered divided Germany as a site of intersection between art and activism over the respective courses of their careers Departing from the well known stories of Americans seeking post World War II Paris for their own self imposed exile or traveling the open road of the domestic interstate highway system Farber reveals the divided city of Berlin as another destination for Americans seeking a critical distance By analyzing the experiences and cultural creations of American Berliner artists and activists Farber offers a new way to view not only the Wall itself but also how the Cold War still structures our thinking about freedom repression and artistic resistance on a global scale
