Passionate Declarations Essays On War And Justice:

Passionate Declarations Howard Zinn, 2003-06-17 From the bestselling author of A People's History of the United States comes this selection of passionate honest and piercing essays looking at American political ideology Howard Zinn brings to Passionate Declarations the same astringent style and provocative point of view that led more than a million people to buy his book A People's History of the United States He directs his critique here to what he calls American orthodoxies that set of beliefs guardians of our culture consider sacrosanct justifications for war cynicism about human nature and violence pride in our economic system certainty of our freedom of speech romanticization of representative government confidence in our system of justice Those orthodoxies he believes have a chilling effect on our capacity to think independently and to become active citizens in the long struggle for peace and justice Agitation with a Smile Stephen Bird, Adam Silver, Joshua C.

Yesnowitz, 2015-11-17 Agitation with a Smile offers a reappraisal of Howard Zinn's political thought and situates his efforts in a contemporary context looking toward the nature of activism and dissent in the future This is the first book to provide a substantive account and assessment of Zinn's philosophy and approach to collective action and to a larger extent democracy The contributors to this book explore the most effective mechanisms by which to arouse public support for seemingly radical positions and how current technological advancements may alter our perception of Zinn's activism The book is a valuable guide to a new generation of activists and scholars of politics in gauging the lasting relevance and legacy of Zinn's ideals concepts and methodology The text is neither fawning nor unduly critical unlike many discussions of Zinn in popular culture Rather the contributors engage the various complexities and tensions present throughout Zinn's work and subject them to contemporary assessment This is a multidisciplinary and international approach to Howard Zinn's intellectual and activist canon Flagging Patriotism Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2013-10-18 The question Why do they hate us is one of the most oft cited puzzles of contemporary American affairs yet it's not clear to whom they or us refers nor even what hate means In this bold new work Ella Shohat and Robert Stam take apart the hate discourse of right wing politics placing it in an international context How for example do other nations love themselves and how is that love connected to their attitudes toward America Is love of country monogamous or can one love many countries When can a country's self love be a symptom of self hatred Drawing upon their extensive experience with South American European and Middle Eastern societies the authors have written a long engagement with a problem that refuses to go away Flagging Patriotism considers these complex features of being patriotic and in so doing insists that the idea of patriotism instead of being rejected or embraced be accorded the complex identity it possesses The Making of Harpers Ferry National Historical Park Teresa S. Moyer, Paul A.

Shackel, 2008 Harpers Ferry National Historical Park is most widely known today for the attempted slave revolt led by John Brown in 1859 the nucleus for the interpretation of the current national park Here Teresa S Moyer and Paul A Shackel tell the behind the scenes story of how this event was chosen and preserved for commemoration providing lessons for federal state local and non profit organizations who continually struggle over the dilemma about which past to present to the public Professional and non professional audiences alike will benefit from their important insights into how federal agencies interpret the past and in turn shape public memory Positive Spin: Can You Still Achieve the American Dream? Dr. Janet Lapp,2015-03-17 What has gone wrong with the American Dream This book is jam packed with evidence on how to adjust oneself for happiness and what the research says is important for happiness as an individual and a culture Subversive Sabbath A. J. Swoboda,2018-02-20 We live in a 24 7 culture of endless productivity workaholism distraction burnout and anxiety a way of life to which we ve sadly grown accustomed This tired system of life ultimately destroys our souls our bodies our relationships our society and the rest of God s creation The whole world grows exhausted because humanity has forgotten to enter into God s rest This book pioneers a creative path to an alternative way of existing Combining creative storytelling pastoral sensitivity practical insight and relevant academic research Subversive Sabbath offers a unique invitation to personal Sabbath keeping that leads to fuller and more joyful lives A J Swoboda demonstrates that Sabbath is both a spiritual discipline and a form of social justice connects Sabbath keeping to local communities and explains how God may actually do more when we do less He shows that the biblical practice of Sabbath keeping is God s plan for the restoration and healing of all creation The book includes a foreword by Matthew Sleeth Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination Management Association, Information Resources,2021-02-05 With the newly inaugurated US Presidential Administration signing several orders to mitigate discrimination and racism within the United States government attentions globally are once again brought to the Black Lives Matter campaign and its message Discrimination in business contexts social interactions and educational institutions remains a concern for leaders today The empowerment of marginalize communities has been rapidly spreading through societies thanks to the platforms that social media now offer The Research Anthology on Empowering Marginalized Communities and Mitigating Racism and Discrimination is a three volume hand selected compilation of the highest quality research on the empowerment of marginalized communities that have been experiencing ongoing discrimination To shed light on the underpinnings of disparities between marginalized groups and overreaching society this text explores social justice applications and practices and the changes being made or pushed for around the globe that promote equality fair treatment and inclusivity This book is ideal for sociologists teachers activists practitioners managers administrators policymakers government officials researchers academicians and students working in fields such as gender studies race studies social justice behavioral studies history sociology anthropology psychology law as well as anyone interested in the current practices and advances in mitigating racism and discrimination in society Race in Translation Robert Stam,Ella Shohat,2012-05-28 Qualitative Inquiry and the Politics of Advocacy Norman K Denzin,Michael D Giardina,2016-06-16 The plenary volume from the Seventh International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry 2011 examines the politics of advocacy and

Throughout history thinkers within every part of society have been crippled by an ingrained bias toward their own views and the views of their preferred social groups As these dangerous egocentric and sociocentric tendencies continue to pose the greatest threat to the advancement of rational societies Liberating the Mind reveals a way forward Dissecting the core of how humans naturally learn think and choose to act internationally recognized critical thinking leader Linda Elder illuminates root causes of dysfunctional thought and shows us how to free ourselves from both selfishness and groupthink through explicit tools of rationality This instant intellectual classic offers a cohesive integrated theory of mind that takes into account pathological tendencies shared by all humans while offering a clear path toward the cultivation of fairminded critical thinking throughout the world Elder illuminates how by taking the intrinsic problems in our thinking seriously we can follow the example of Socrates and live the examined life even in times of upheaval and doubt The Arrogance of American

Power Nancy Snow,2007 Looks at anti Americanism the questioning and dissent at the heart of democracy as well as US propaganda and how US administrations and media often focus on projecting a better image rather than addressing the issues behind why the US image is so poor The Self Under Siege Robert Firestone,Lisa A. Firestone,Joyce Catlett,2013

Noted clinical psychologist Robert Firestone and his co authors explore the struggle that all of us face in striving to retain a sense of ourselves as unique individuals The Sublime of the Political Dean Caivano,Sarah Naumes,2021-06-09 In an age of immediate and global exchange of information the ability to theorize about political conditions remains largely an elite technocratic and esoteric enterprise In this timely intervention Dean Caivano and Sarah Naumes argue that storytelling in the form of narrative and autoethnography creates an emancipatory potential through its ability to theorize from below welcoming marginalized and excluded voices Drawing from the disciplines of political studies philosophy and literary studies

this volume offers a new assessment of political texts through the lens of the sublime as a fertile terrain to challenge who can write and disseminate political ideas and how      Howard Zinn Speaks Howard Zinn, 2012-11-06 A wide ranging collection of speeches many published here for the first time by the historian and author of A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn has illuminated our history like no other US historian This collection of his speeches on protest movements racism war and American history covers more than four decades of his active engagement with the audiences he inspired with his humor insight and clarity This volume features Zinn's impassioned and erudite statements on the war in Vietnam abolishing the death penalty the legacy of Emma Goldman the myth of American exceptionalism the Obama Administration and much more Reading Howard's spoken words I feel that I am almost hearing his voice again his stunning pitch perfect ability to capture the moment and the concerns and needs of the audience whoever they may be always enlightening often stirring an amalgam of insight critical history wit blended with charm and appeal Noam Chomsky leading public intellectual and author of Hopes and Prospects With ferocious moral clarity and mischievous humor Howard turned routine antiwar rallies into profound explorations of state violence and staid academic conferences into revival meetings for social change Naomi Klein author of No Is Not Enough and The Battle For Paradise      The Indispensable Zinn Howard Zinn, 2012-12-11 A well chosen anthology of the radical historian's prodigious output from A People's History of the United States and lesser known sources Kirkus Reviews When Howard Zinn died in early 2010 millions of Americans mourned the loss of one of the nation's foremost intellectual and political guides a historian activist and truth teller who in the words of the New York Times's Bob Herbert peel ed back the rosy veneer of much of American history to reveal sordid realities that had remained hidden for too long A collection designed to highlight Zinn's essential writings The Indispensable Zinn includes excerpts from Zinn's bestselling A People's History of the United States his memoir You Can't Be Neutral on a Moving Train his inspiring writings on the civil rights movement and the full text of his celebrated play Marx in Soho Noted historian and activist Timothy Patrick McCarthy provides essential historical and biographical context for each selection With a foreword by Noam Chomsky and an afterword from Zinn's former Spellman College student and longtime friend Alice Walker The Indispensable Zinn is both a fitting tribute to the legacy of a man whose work changed the way millions of people saw the past and a powerful and accessible introduction for anyone coming to Zinn's essential body of work for the first time Noam Chomsky

Nicholas Murray Butler's The International Mind Charles F. Howlett, 2013-05-01 This new edition of Nicholas Murray Butler's The International Mind marks the 100th anniversary of its publication Widely read at the time it has reached the status of classic work Butler is one of the 20th Century's most famous college presidents He transformed Columbia University into a famous research institution of higher learning More importantly this work still has an important message for today's readers how can we establish an international mind that builds a lasting peace for the world This work is based on Butler's famous speeches as president of the Lake Mohonk Conferences on International Arbitration which took place just prior to the start of World War 1 Butler was a strong proponent of judicial internationalism and education as the mechanism through which the settlement of disputes between nations could be resolved As head of the just established Carnegie Endowment for International Peace s Division of Intercourse and Education Butler put forth his own views on international understanding Later Butler would become president of Carnegie s Peace Endowment and was most responsible for helping to bring forth the 1928 Kellogg Briand Pact renouncing war as an instrument of national policy In 1931 based on his efforts for world peace which began at Lake Mohonk NY Butler shared the Nobel Peace Prize with Jane Addams This new edition has a scholarly introduction as well as an extensive bibliographic essay on American Peace Writings by Charles F Howlett An added feature to this new edition is a listing of Butler s most notable works the platforms of the 1907 1912 Lake Mohonk Conferences and an lengthy 1914 interview with Butler by New York Times reporter Edward Marshall Readers will find the appendices an added bonus to a now classic work This new edition of Butler s important book will bring to light one of the early 20th century peace classics devoted to the study of international arbitration It offers a clear and compelling argument as to the importance of internationalism as proposed by some of the more prominent educational leaders statesmen and jurists of the pre World War 1 period Most importantly reissuing this work in its one hundredth anniversary year bears testimony to its lasting importance since Butler s efforts and those at the Lake Mohonk Conferences on International Arbitration led to the creation of a Permanent Court of International Justice only a few years after the conclusion of the First World War
