Colonialism Past and Present Alvaro Felix Bolanos,Gustavo Verdesio,2012-02-01 This collection of essays offers alternative readings of historical and literary texts produced during Latin America's colonial period By considering the political and ideological implications of the texts interpretation yesterday and today it attempts to decolonize the field of Latin American studies and promote an ethical interdisciplinary practice that does not falsify or appropriate knowledge produced by both the colonial subjects of the past and the oppressed subjects of the present Using recent developments in postcolonial theory the contributors challenge traditional approaches to Hispanism The colonial situation under which these texts were composed with all its injustices and prejudices still lingers and most studies have consistently avoided the connection between this colonial legacy and the situation of disenfranchised groups today Colonialism Past and Present challenges discursive strategies that celebrate only European cultural traits dismiss non European cultural legacies and solidify constructions of national projects considered natural extensions of European civilization since independence from Spain

Experience and Faith R. Brantley, 2016-04-30

Emily Dickinson 1830 86 recasts British Romantic themes of natural and spiritual perception for an American audience Her poems of science and technology reflect her faith in experience Her lyrics about natural history build on this empiricism and develop her commitment to natural religion Her poems of revealed religion constitute her experience of faith Thus Dickinson stands on the experiential common ground between empiricism and evangelicalism in Romantic Anglo America Her double perspective parallels the implicit androgyny of her nineteenth century feminism Her counterintuitive combination of natural models with spiritual metaphors champions immortality The experience faith dialectic of her Late Romantic imagination forms the heart of her legacy

Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1900 Juvenile"

Literature and British Society Charles Ferrall, Anna Jackson, 2012-05-10 In this study Charles Ferrall and Anna Jackson argue that the Victorians created a concept of adolescence that lasted into the twentieth century and yet is strikingly at odds with post Second World War notions of adolescence as a period of storm and stress In the enormously popular juvenile literature of the period primarily boys and girls own adventure and school stories adolescence is acknowledged as a time of sexual awareness and yet also of a romantic idealism that is lost with marriage a time when boys and girls acquire adult duties and responsibilities and yet have not had to assume the roles of breadwinner or household manager The book reveals a concept of adolescence as significant as the Romantic cult of childhood that preceded it which will be of interest to scholars of both children s literature and Victorian culture
