

Pastiche: Cultural Memory in Art, Film, Literature

Description :

Pastiche Cultural Memory in Art, Film, Literature Ingeborg Hoesterer Traces the rise of the pastiche in the arts and popular culture. In the last two decades cultural theorists and artists have redefined a genre of artistic expression that for centuries was regarded as both elusive and notorious: the pastiche, or pasticcio. Today, highly engaging manifestations of the genre minor can be found in architecture, painting, and mixed media installations in film, literature, and performance modes ranging from the operatic to rock event and in supposedly trivial discourses such as advertising. Postmodern pastiche is about cultural memory as a history of seeing and writing. One of the markers that sets aesthetic postmodernism apart from modernism is artistic practice that borrows ostentatiously from the archive of Western culture, which modernism, in its search for the unperformed, tended to dismiss. Contemporary artists are re-examining traditions that modernism eclipsed in its pursuit of the "Shock of the New" in the case of architects and functionalism of the International style. Ingeborg Hoesterer, Professor of

S. Byatt L. Steveker, 2015-12-11 This book provides innovative readings of the key texts of A S Byatt's oeuvre by analysing the negotiations of individual identity cultural memory and literature which inform Byatt's novels Steveker explores the concepts of identity constructed in the novels showing them to be deeply rooted in British literary history and cultural memory The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Memory Studies Lucy Bond, Susannah Radstone, Jessica Rapson, 2025-05-23 This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the connections between memory and literature Organized into six interrelated sections the book explores both the value of approaches and concepts from literary studies for memory scholarship and the plurality of ways in which literature can advance theories of memory Chapters cover reading and writing memory and literature remediations and intersections local and global cultures postcolonial and decolonial approaches environmental and more than human memory and literature and law and justice It offers an indispensable resource for students and scholars of both literary and memory studies Fairy Tales in Contemporary American Culture Kate Christine Moore Koppy, 2021-02-22 In the twenty first century American culture is experiencing a profound shift toward pluralism and secularization In Fairy Tales in Contemporary American Culture How We Hate to Love Them Kate Koppy argues that the increasing popularity and presence of fairy tales within American culture is both indicative of and contributing to this shift By analyzing contemporary fairy tale texts as both new versions in a particular tale type and as wholly new fairy tale pastiches Koppy shows that fairy tales have become a key part of American secular scripture a corpus of shared stories that work to maintain a sense of community among diverse audiences in the United States as much as biblical scripture and associated texts used to Cinema, Memory, Modernity Russell J.A. Kilbourn, 2013-10-18 Since its inception cinema has evolved into not merely a reflection but an indispensable index of human experience especially our experience of time's passage of the present moment and most importantly perhaps of the past in both collective and individual terms In this volume Kilbourn provides a comparative theorization of the representation of memory in both mainstream Hollywood and international art cinema within an increasingly transnational context of production and reception Focusing on European North and South American and Asian films Kilbourn reads cinema as providing the viewer with not only the content and form of memory but also with its own directions for use the required codes and conventions for understanding and implementing this crucial prosthetic technology an art of memory for the twentieth century and beyond Exhibiting Slavery Vivian Nun Halloran, 2009-10-23 Exhibiting Slavery examines the ways in which Caribbean postmodern historical novels about slavery written in Spanish English and French function as virtual museums simultaneously showcasing and curating a collection of primary documents within their pages As Vivian Nun

Halloran attests these novels highlight narrative objects extraneous to their plot such as excerpts from the work of earlier writers allusions to specific works of art the uniforms of maroon armies assembled in preparation of a military offensive and accounts of slavery's negative impact on the traditional family unit in Africa or the United States In doing so they demand that their readers go beyond the pages of the books to sort out fact from fiction and consider what relationship these featured objects have to slavery and to contemporary life The self-referential function of these texts produces a museum effect that simultaneously teaches and entertains their readers prompting them to continue their own research beyond and outside the text

Visual Culture in Twentieth-century Germany Gail Finney, 2006 Visual Culture in Twentieth Century Germany explores a wide spectrum of visual media in 20th century Germany in their critical and social contexts Contributors examine film photography cabaret performances advertising architecture painting dance television and cartography

Orhan Pamuk, Secularism and Blasphemy Erdag Göknar, 2013-02-15 Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy is the first critical study of all of Pamuk's novels including the early untranslated work In 2005 Orhan Pamuk was charged with insulting Turkishness under Article 301 of the Turkish penal code Eighteen months later he was awarded the Nobel Prize After decades of criticism for wielding a depoliticized pen Pamuk was cast as a dissident through his trial an event that underscored his transformation from national literateur to global author By contextualizing Pamuk's fiction into the Turkish tradition and by defining the literary and political intersections of his work Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy rereads Pamuk's dissidence as a factor of the form of his novels This is not a traditional study of literature but a book that turns to literature to ask larger questions about recent transformations in Turkish history identity modernity and collective memory As a corrective to common misreadings of Pamuk's work in its international reception Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy applies various analytical lenses to the politics of the Turkish novel including gender studies cultural translation historiography and Islam The book argues that modern literature that confronts representations of the nation state or devlet with those of Ottoman Islamic and Sufi contexts or din constitute secular blasphemies that redefine the politics of the Turkish novel Concluding with a meditation on conditions of untranslatability in Turkish literature this study provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of Pamuk's novels to date

Sustaining Fictions Lesleigh Cushing Stahlberg, 2009-05-01 Even before the biblical canon became fixed writers have revisited and reworked its stories The author of Joshua takes the haphazard settlement of Israel recorded in the Book of Judges and retells it as an orderly military conquest The writer of Chronicles expurgates the David cycle in Samuel I and II offering an upright and virtuous king devoid of baser instincts This literary phenomenon is not contained to inner biblical exegesis Once the telling becomes known the retellings begin through the New Testament rabbinic midrash medieval mystery plays medieval and Renaissance poetry nineteenth century novels and contemporary literature writers of the Western world have continued to occupy themselves with the biblical canon However there exists no adequate vocabulary academic or popular religious or secular literary or theological to describe the recurring appearances of canonical figures and motifs in later literature Literary critics bible scholars and book reviewers alike seek recourse in words like adaptation allusion echo imitation and influence to describe what the author for lack of better terms has come to call retellings or recastings Although none of these designations rings false none approaches precision They do not tell us what the author of a novel or poem has done with a biblical figure do not signal how this newly recast figure is different from other recastings of it and do not offer any indication of why these transformations have occurred Sustaining Fictions sets out to redress this problem considering the viability of the vocabularies of literary midrashic and translation theory for speaking about retelling

An Education in Sexuality and Sociality Frank G. Karioris, 2020-07-07 While hook up culture on university campuses represents a part of the story it is only part of the story It is important to add to this and investigate the way the university itself brokers and seeks out specific forms of sexuality sex and connection amongst students This book sheds light on how the university as an institution endorses certain forms of sociality sexuality and coupling while excluding others Building on extensive ethnographic fieldwork this book furthers the discussion on the impact these institutional measures have on students and how students work through and around them while simultaneously establishing relations outside of and beyond hooking up

Routledge Handbook of East Asian Popular Culture Koichi Iwabuchi, Eva Tsai, Chris Berry, 2016-12-01 Since the 1990s there has been a dramatic increase in cultural flows and connections between the countries in the East Asian region Nowhere is this more apparent than when looking at popular culture where uneven but multilateral exchanges of Japanese Korean Taiwanese Hong Kong and Chinese products have led to the construction of an East Asian Popular Culture This is both influenced by and in turn influences the national cultures and generates transnational co production and reinvention As East Asian popular culture becomes a global force it is increasingly important for us to understand the characteristics of contemporary East Asian popular culture and in particular its transnational nature In this handbook the contributors theorize East Asian experiences and reconsider Western theories on cultural globalization to provide a cutting edge overview of this global phenomenon The Routledge Handbook of East Asian Popular Culture will be of great interest to students and scholars of a wide range of disciplines including Cultural Studies Media Studies Communication Studies Anthropology Sociology and Asian Studies in general

Hybridisation of Political Order and Contemporary Revisionism Nik Hynek, Vít Strátecký, 2022-08-01 This volume argues that contemporary political and security revisionism should not be considered a homogenous attack against the international order but rather a bag of tailor made strategies to exploit opportunities found in various highly localised contexts Scholars with backgrounds in Security Studies Area Studies International Relations and Political Theory are brought to examine revisionist tendencies in Central Eastern Europe Post Soviet Space China and the Transatlantic Space In doing so they try to remedy the existing disciplinary separatism or policing which has obfuscated any theorisation of the connections between international and domestic politics for many decades Part of the analytical focus is on novel phenomena especially the utilization of cyberspace and new social media and technological innovation One of the conclusions of this volume is that the rise in contemporary revisionism shows the oft forgotten importance of the first image of international politics political leaders in other words do indeed matter The fact that they matter is only reinforced when they represent regional or even great powers and especially revisionist regimes and states with the propensity to produce complex effects The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Europe Asia Studies

Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen, 2011-12-31 Scandinavian popular novels and films have flourished in the last thirty years In Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen argues that the growth and visibility of popular culture have been at the heart of the development of heterogeneous publics in Scandinavia in opposition to the homogenizing influence of the post World War II welfare state Novels and films have mobilized readers and viewers serving as a preeminent site for debates over individualism collectivity national homogeneity gender and transnational relations Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia provides insight into the changing nature of civil society in Scandinavia through the lens of popular culture Nestingen develops his argument through the examination of genres where the central theme is individual transgression of societal norms crime films and novels melodramas and fantasy fiction Among the internationally known writers and filmmakers discussed are Henning Mankell Aki Kaurismäki Lukas Moodysson and Lars von Trier

Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda Lê Alexandra Kurmann, 2016-01-14 Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda Lê Imagining the Ideal Reader uncovers the primary textual relationship that Linda Lê 1963 the most prolific Francophone author of the Vietnamese diaspora fosters with a literary precursor of Austrian descent the feminist writer in exile Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 This study offers an overdue exploration of the notably European roots of Lê's writerly formation It traces an unexamined feminist import in her work to a sixteen year inter and intra textual engagement with Bachmann and positions the latter as an imagined ideal reader of Lê's oeuvre Intertextual analyses of Bachmann's post war novel Malina with Lê's literary essays early fiction and trilogy reveal that to overcome the challenges of writing in exile Lê adopts an alternative literary forebear of the European tradition

Screening the Past Pam Cook, 2004-08-02 From Mildred Pierce and Brief Encounter to Raging Bull and In the Mood for Love this lively and accessible collection explores film culture's obsession with the past offering searching and provocative analyses of a wide range of titles Screening the Past engages with current debates about the role of cinema in mediating history through memory and nostalgia suggesting that many films use strategies of memory to produce diverse forms of knowledge which challenge established ideas of history and the traditional role of historians Classic essays sit side by side with new research contextualized by introductions which bring them up to date and provide suggestions for further reading as the work of contemporary directors such as Martin Scorsese Kathryn Bigelow Todd Haynes and Wong Kar wai is used to examine the different ways they deploy creative processes of memory Pam Cook also investigates the recent history of film studies reviewing the developments that have culminated in the exciting if daunting present moment The result is a rich and stimulating volume that will appeal to anyone with an interest in cinema memory and identity      Transfiguration
