Hutchinson,2018-10-18 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in Britain and Ireland as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and Royal Supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond Britain and Ireland and also analyses newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier British and Irish dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent of ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume V follows the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice in the twentieth century as these once European traditions globalized While in Europe dissent was often against the religious state dissent in a globalizing world could redefine itself against colonialism or other secular and religious monopolies The contributors trace the encounters of dissenting Protestant traditions with modernity and globalization changing imperial politics challenges to biblical denominational and pastoral authority local cultures and languages and some of the century s major themes such as race and gender new technologies and organizational change In so doing they identify a vast array of local and globalizing illustrations which will enliven conversations about the role of religion and in particular Christianity David Yonggi Cho Wonsuk Ma,2017-11-29 This book is a serious attempt by Asian scholars to reflect on various aspects of the Asian Pentecostal movement It joins a small but growing list of works on this critical subject Second it presents an Asian perspective on one of the most important figures in Asian Pentecostalism in this generation Dr David Yonggi Cho who clearly stands out as one of the most preeminent Pentecostals anywhere in the world

The Will of God: Good and Acceptable and Always Perfect David A Swincer,2020-06-11 The title of this book is an expression of the following Therefore I urge you brothers and sisters in view of God s mercy to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice holy and pleasing to God this is your true and proper worship Do not conform to the pattern of this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind Then you will be able to test and approve what God s will is his good pleasing acceptable and perfect will Romans 12 1 2 emphases added The question that is paramount is How do we discover this good and acceptable and perfect will And let the peace soul harmony which comes from the Christ rule act as umpire continually in your hearts deciding and settling with finality all questions that arise in your minds Colossians 3 15 Amplified emphases added This verse expresses in a quite convincing way the last word on discovering the will of God Let the peace of God continually act as umpire in your hearts deciding and settling with finality all questions that arise in your minds Colossians 3 15 adapted But this is not a privilege for anyone as if it were some semi magic trick to discover God s will It is premised upon a deep and meaningful personal relationship with Christ That relationship is the result of the conversion experience and results in a life of growing into Christ s likeness the process of sanctification The expression of that life is then found in true Christian worship with its commitment to God and the desire to live in obedience to Him doing His will That is the theme of this book A Full-er Gospel?: Pentecostal Proclamation in New Zealand 1990-2008 Linda Flett,2015 This book draws on the belief statements and official publications of Elim and AOG denominations in New Zealand from 1990 to 2008 in order to test the extent to which this conviction was adhered to A statement that In order to reach New Zealand our methods need to change but not our message provides a framing device inviting the reader to explore their responsiveness to aspects of social change within New Zealand before gauging interest in new methodologies known to have impacted Pentecostal churches in New Zealand during this period Actual changes to evangelistic methodology and salvation terminology is presented from the findings of a quantitative study before the salvation message is re examined It will be evident that not only were new methodologies embraced but views on salvation broadened becoming increasingly holistic dynamic and relational
