'For Their Rock is not as Our Rock' Daniel Strange, 2015-05-08 The reality of our post Christendom post colonial post Holocaust post 9 11 multi ethnic and multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians are acutely aware of the questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is still alive and well then seemingly so too is society's sacralization Hence the theology of religions is arguably the issue for mission in the twenty first century However there has been little evangelical theology that offers a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis that deals with not only the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of practical issues pertaining to apologetics and contextualization In this ambitious interdisciplinary study which synthesizes close exegesis biblical theology systematics and insights from the social sciences Daniel Strange examines the origins development and idolatry of the religious Other and explores how the gospel of Jesus Christ is its subversive fulfilment He concludes with a missiological postscript and some pastoral perspectives on the purpose of other religions in God's providence

Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange, 2015-02-03 The reality of the West's post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society's sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel

Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions Out of Context Richard L. Schultz,2012-11-01 Although 92% of American households own at least one Bible their use of the Bible varies significantly Only 59% of Americans read the Bible at least occasionally and an even smaller percentage go beyond merely reading the Bible and actually study it It is no wonder that even those who say they read the Scriptures often don't understand them Veteran Bible professor Richard L Schultz believes the misinterpretation and misapplication of biblical texts amounts to a crisis of interpretive malpractice In Out of Context he seeks to explain how biblical interpretation goes wrong and how to get it right He introduces readers to the important concepts of context word meaning genre and the differences between the world of the Bible and our own Readers who delve into the fascinating world of biblical interpretation found in this book will find their Scripture reading enhanced and be enlightened by Schultz's powerful and ultimately positive message

Christian Science Sentinel ,1903 Am I a Better Christian on Zoloft? Mark Tabb, 2025-06-03 When you ve done all the right things read all the right books and listened to all the right worship songs yet still feel like you don t have this faith thing figured out what do you do It can be hard to voice the questions and doubts floating around your head and heart to others But you re not the only one who feels that way For anyone tired of church politics the unspoken rules of Christian subculture and taking themselves too seriously Mark Tabb is your new best friend He asks the questions you might hesitate to admit having like Can I call myself a Christian if I don t watch The Chosen Is God kind of mean but we re all afraid to say something If I believe God is in control why am I upset about politics Why don t I feel it What if I m wrong and more Not only will he explore the answers to ten specific questions he ll show you how to get comfortable talking with others about all the weird and uncomfortable questions you have Because figuring out life together just might be the catalyst we need to renew our faith and our hope for the future The Identity of Christian Morality Ann Marie Mealey, 2016-03-03 This book argues that moral theology has yet to embrace the recommendations of the Second Vatican Council concerning the ways in which it is to be renewed One of the reasons for this is the lack of consensus between theologians regarding the nature content and uniqueness of Christian morality After highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of the so called autonomy and faith ethic schools of thought Mealey argues that there is little dividing them and that in some instances both schools are simply defending one aspect of a hermeneutical dialectic In an attempt to move away from the divisions between proponents of the faith ethic and autonomy positions Mealey enlists the help of the hermeneutical theory of Paul Ricoeur She argues that many of the disagreements arising from the Christian proprium debate can be overcome if scholars look to the possibilities opened up by Ricoeur's hermeneutics of interpretation Mealey also argues that the uniqueness of Christian morality is more adequately explained in terms of a specific identity self that is constantly subject to change and revision in light of many often conflicting moral sources She advocates a move away from attempts to explain the uniqueness of Christian morality in terms of one specific unchanging context motivation norm divine command or value By embracing the possibilities opened up by Ricoeurian hermeneutics Mealey explains how concepts such as revelation tradition orthodoxy and moral conscience may be understood in a hermeneutical way without being deemed sectarian or unorthodox

Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M

Valea, 2015-10-29 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition's uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe's methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one's own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections
