Mapping Multiple Literacies Diana Masny, David R. Cole, 2012-06-14. Mapping Multiple Literacies brings together the latest theory and research in the fields of literacy study and European philosophy. Multiple Literacies Theory (MLT) and the philosophical work of Gilles Deleuze. It frames the process of becoming literate as a fluid process involving multiple modes of presentation and explains these processes in terms of making maps of our social lives and ways of doing things together. For Deleuze, language acquisition is a social activity of which we are a part but only one part amongst many others. Masny and Cole draw on Deleuze's thinking to expand the repertoires of literacy research and understanding. They outline how we can understand literacy as a social activity and map the ways in which becoming literate may take hold and transform communities. The chapters in this book weave together theory, data and practice to open up a creative new area of literacy studies and to provoke vigorous debate about the sociology of literacy.

Reading and Experience: A Philosophical Investigation Alexander Samely, 2024-06-10. This text is the first comprehensive attempt in decades to integrate reading into the philosophical discussion of the synthesis of experience more generally. It offers a comprehensive critique of three disciplinary approaches to reading: philosophical, literary and empirical/neuroscientific, while developing an innovative and unifying phenomenological account. It discusses texts from a variety of contemporary and historical contexts. It is inclusive, treating non-fiction alongside fiction, literary art alongside everyday texts and narrative alongside thematic discourse. It addresses all reading practices found today: casual and unreflective reading, close and scholarly reading, with re-reading, the analysis of literary art and sacred text study and memorization. In the current intellectual landscape, the book is unique in bringing all these aspects together in a philosophically coherent discussion. The book provides a critique of philosophical accounts of text meaning and linguistic experience by philosophers from Husserl and Ingarden to Sartre, Merleau-Ponty, Arendt, Gadamer and Derrida, and examines the positions of contemporary naturalizing phenomenologists such as Varela and Thompson. Also treated are neuroscientists.

Betcher,2007-01-01 Explores the larger significance of disability in cultural political and religious venues Novel aspects of Christian theological tradition emerge in this light Highly original and thought provoking Analytical Essays on Music by Women Composers: Concert Music, 1960-2000 Laurel Parsons,Brenda Ravenscroft,2016-03-18 Over the past 30 years musicologists have produced a remarkable new body of research literature focusing on the lives and careers of women composers in their socio historical contexts But detailed analysis and discussion of the works created by these composers are still extremely rare This is particularly true in the domain of music theory where scholarly work continues to focus almost exclusively on male composers Moreover while the number of performances broadcasts and recordings of music by women has unquestionably grown these works remain significantly underrepresented in comparison to music by male composers Addressing these deficits is not simply a matter of rectifying a scholarly gender imbalance the lack of knowledge surrounding the music of female composers means that scholars performers and the general public remain unfamiliar with a large body of exciting repertoire Analytical Essays on Music by Women Composers Concert Music 1960 2000 is the first to appear in a groundbreaking four volume series devoted to compositions by women across Western art music history Each chapter opens with a brief biographical sketch of the composer before presenting an in depth critical analytic exploration of a single representative composition linking analytical observations with questions of meaning and sociohistorical context Chapters are grouped thematically by analytical approach into three sections each of which places the analytical methods used in the

Emotion in the Digital Age Darren Ellis, Ian Tucker, 2020-10-08 Emotion in the Digital Age examines how emotion is understood researched and experienced in relation to practices of digitisation and datafication said to constitute a digital age The overarching concern of the book is with how emotion operates in through and with digital technologies The digital landscape is vast and as such the authors focus on four key areas of digital practice artificial intelligence social media mental health and surveillance Interrogating each area shows how emotion is commodified symbolised shared and experienced and as such operates in multiple dimensions This includes tracing the emotional impact of early mass media e.g. cinema through to efforts to programme AI agents with skills in emotional communication e.g. mental health chatbots This timely study offers theoretical empirical and practical insight regarding the ways that digitisation is changing knowledge and experience of emotion and affective life Crucially this involves both the multiple versions of digital technologies designed to engage with emotion e.g. emotional AI through to the broader emotional impact of living in digitally saturated environments The authors argue that this constitutes a psycho-social way of being in which digital technologies and emotion operate as key dimensions of the ways we simultaneously relate to ourselves as individual subjects and to others as part of collectives As such Emotion in the Digital Age will prove important reading for students and researchers in emotion studies psychology science and technology studies sociology and related fields

The Death and Afterlife of Mahatma Gandhi Makarand R Paranjape, 2015-01-30 The Death and Afterlife of Mahatma Gandhi is an explosive and original analysis of the assassination of the Father of the Nation Who is responsible for the Mahatma's death Just one determined zealot the larger ideology that supported him the Congress led Government that failed to protect him or a vast majority of Indians and their descendants who considered Gandhi irrelevant and endorsed violence instead Paranjape's meticulous study culminates in his reading of Gandhi's last six months in Delhi where from the very edge of the grave he wrought what was perhaps his greatest miracle the saving of Delhi and thus of India itself from the internecine bloodshed of Partition Paranjape taking a cue from the Mahatma himself also shows us a way to expiate our guilt and to heal the wounds of an ancient civilization torn into two This is a brilliant far-reaching and profound exploration of the meaning of the Mahatma's death

Coproduction Robert Wilshire, Christopher Johnson, 2022-05-30 Coproduction is dedicated specifically to the study of an emerging field in music production musicology It explores the limits of what this field might be from the workings of a few individuals producing music together in the studio to vast contributions of whole societies producing popular music Taking a wide-ranging approach to examining the field Coproduction looks through multiple formats including essays interviews and case studies with analysis and commentary of coproduction experiences at Abbey Road studios It does so by examining multiple disciplines from social science and coproduction in mental health to philosophy and mathematics At its extremes which is the extreme middle and not the blunt cutting edge the authors attempt to produce every song in their development of an all encompassing pop music concept peculiarly called Toast theory In attempting to unite the pragmatic collaborative patterns of Vera John Steiner with philosophical postmodernist concepts of connection Coproduction has something to offer readers interested in the traditional workings of teams of producers as well as those seeking to understand the wider philosophy of collaboration in music production

The Cinematic Political Michael J. Shapiro, 2019-11-01 In this book Michael J Shapiro stages a series of pedagogical encounters between political theory represented as a compositional challenge and cinematic texts emphasizing how to achieve an effective research paper essay by heeding the compositional strategies of films The text's distinctiveness is its focus on the intermediation between two textual genres It is aimed at providing both a conceptual introduction to the politics of aesthetics and a guide to writing strategies In its illustrations of encounters between political theory and cinema the book's critical edge is its emphasis on how to intervene in cinematic texts with innovative conceptual frames in ways that challenge dominant understandings of life worlds The Cinematic Political is designed as a teaching resource that introduces students to the relationship between film form and political thinking With diverse illustrative investigations the book instructs students on how to watch films with an eye toward writing a research paper in which a film or set of films constitutes the textual vehicle for political theorizing

Critical Semiotics Gary Genosko, 2016-09-22 Critical Semiotics provides long overdue answers to questions at the junction of information meaning and affect The affective turn in cultural studies has received much attention a focus on the pre individual bodily forces linked to automatic responses which augment or diminish the body's capacity to act or engage with others In a world dominated by information how do things that seem to have diminished meaning or even no meaning still have so much power to affect us or to carry on our ability to affect the world Linguistics and semiotics have been accused of being adrift from the affective turn and not accounting for these visceral forces beneath or generally other from conscious knowing In this book Gary Genosko delivers a detailed refutation with analyses of specific contributions to critical semiotic approaches to meaning and signification People want to understand how other people are moved and to understand embodied social actions feelings and passions at the same time as understanding how this takes place Semiotics must make the affective turn
