Digital Transformation and Innovation in Chinese Education Spire, Hiller A., 2017-08-11 Technology use has become increasingly popular in education. Due to cultural influences and access issues, advances in digital teaching and learning in Chinese education have been slow; however, certain regions have been able to successfully integrate technology into their curriculum and instruction techniques. Digital Transformation and Innovation in Chinese Education is an essential reference source featuring the latest scholarly research on utilizing technology in Chinese learning and instruction and it provides insights to classroom transformations within the context of Chinese culture. Including coverage on a broad range of topics and perspectives such as MOOCs, blended learning and e-learning, this publication is ideally designed for academicians, researchers and students seeking current research on technological innovation in Chinese education.

Academic Knowledge Construction and Multimodal Curriculum Development Loveless, Douglas J., Griffith, Bryant, Bérci, Margaret E., Ortlieb, Evan, Sullivan, Pamela M., 2013-11-30 This book presents practical conversations with philosophical and theoretical concerns regarding the use of digital technologies in the educational process, challenging the assumption that information accessibility is synonymous with learning.

Learning to Be Literate: More Than a Single Story Deborah MacPhee, Patricia Paugh, 2023-04-04 There is not one right way to teach a child to read. Recent media stories about education have featured the Science of Reading, whose proponents typically present the systematic teaching of phonics as a one-size-fits-all method that guarantees reading success for all students. But as literacy scholars Patricia Paugh and Deborah MacPhee demonstrate, the decoding of words is only one of many skills that are central to an effective early literacy education. In Learning to Be Literate, they present a four-part framework for active literacy learning that eschews oppositional arguments about different approaches and instead situates children as meaning makers. The whole point of being literate is that there is no single or simple solution that will fit every child. But by using the ALL framework to inform instruction, educators can help young learners think deeply about ideas and language at the same time as they learn to work out the sounds and symbol systems of language.
