Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Disenza, 2017-01-01 In Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Disenza examines a variety of Anglo Latin and Old English texts to shed light on Anglo Saxon understandings of space

Transregional Reformations Violet Soen, Alexander Soetaert, Johan Verberckmoes, Wim François, Tóth Zsombor, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Bruce Gordon, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2019-06-17 This volume invites scholars of the Catholic and Protestant Reformations to incorporate recent advances in transnational and transregional history into their own field of research as it seeks to unravel how cross border movements shaped reformations in early modern Europe Covering a geographical space that ranges from Scandinavia to Spain and from England to Hungary the chapters in this volume apply a transregional perspective to a vast array of topics such as the history of theological discussion knowledge transfer pastoral care visual allegory ecclesiastical organization confessional relations religious exile and university politics The volume starts by showing in a first part how transfer and exchange beyond territorial circumscriptions or proto national identifications shaped many sixteenth century reformations The second part of this volume is devoted to the acceleration of cultural transfer that resulted from the newly invented printing press by translation as well as transmission of texts and images The third and final part of this volume examines the importance of mobility and migration in causing transregional reformations Focusing on the process of crossing borders in peripheries and borderlands all chapters contribute to the de centering of religious reform in early modern Europe Rather than princes and urban governments steering religion the early modern reformations emerge as events shaped by authors and translators publishers and booksellers students and professors exiles and refugees and clergy and female members of religious orders crossing borders in Europe a continent composed of fractured states and regions

Orientation to the History of Roman Judaea Steve Mason, 2016-12-09 No field of study is livelier than the history of Roman era Judaea ca 200 BC to AD 400 Bold reinterpretations of texts and new archaeological discoveries prompt us constantly to rethink assumptions What kind of religion was Judaism How did Jews and Christians relate to Roman imperial power Should we speak of Judaism or Judaisms How should the finds at Qumran affect our understanding Did Paul and other early Christians remain within Judaism Should we translate Ioudaioi as Jews or Judaeans These debates can leave students perplexed this book argues because the participants share only a topic They are actually investigating different questions using disparate criteria In the hope of facilitating communication and preparing advanced students this book explores two basic but neglected problems What does it mean to do history if history is what we wish to do And how did the ancients understand and describe their world It is not a history then but an orientation to the history of Roman Judaea Rather than trying to specify which questions are good ones or what one should think about them the book offers new perspectives to help unleash the historical imagination while reckoning squarely with the nature of our evidence Zephaniah: An Earth Bible Commentary Nicholas R. Werse, 2024-10-17 With astute attention to Zephaniah's intertextual relationships with other biblical texts Nicholas R Werse explores the implications of Zephaniah as a book in perpetual conversation with other biblical cosmologies and conceptions of the human place in relationship with creation Werse guides readers to critically examine Zephaniah's ancient worldview and subsequent legacy in dialog with the world's modern ecological crises Werse argues that Zephaniah begins and ends with the land It begins with the removal of all life from the land and ends with a proclamation returning the exiles to their ancestral home Along this journey all three chapters of Zephaniah systematically reverse language and imagery from Gen 1 11 and draw deeply from the language of earlier prophets to depict the 6th century BCE destruction of Jerusalem as nothing short of the unravelling of creation While remaining suspicious of Zephaniah's distinctively androcentric worldview Werse traces Zephaniah's rhetorical journey from the deconstruction of creation and the nations to its proclamations of hope for the future Translating Europe in Ælfric's Lives of Saints Luisa Ostacchini, 2024-06-26 Translating Europe in Ælfric's Lives of Saints is the first study of the representation of European peoples places and geographies in the Lives of Saints one of early medieval England's most famed works It examines the Lives of Saints as a unified collection whose various items work cumulatively and concurrently to provide audiences with teachings far beyond the scope of an individual homily or saint's life In doing so it demonstrates that Ælfric's European characters and settings served not merely as a convenient skeleton on which to frame his hagiographical narratives but rather lay at the heart of his didactic praxis and pedagogic aims Luisa Ostacchini systematically compares each of the 30 plus items that comprise Ælfric's Lives of Saints to their Latin sources and to one another to highlight previously unnoticed patterns and formulae within collection In so doing she demonstrates that Ælfric's interest in community was both inward and outward looking he sought on the one hand to situate England within the wider Christian world and on the other hand to promote the internal unity of the English kingdom and the reformed monastic establishment This book sheds new light on the ways that Ælfric wrote about the Christian world and England's place within it and further illuminates of the didactic praxis and ideology of one of the most influential and significant authors of the early medieval period Luisa Ostacchini is a college lecturer at St John's College Oxford where she teaches Old and Middle English literature Style and Context of Old Greek Job Marieke Dhont, 2018-04-17 In Style and Context of Old Greek Job Marieke Dhont offers a new understanding of the linguistic and stylistic diversity in the Septuagint corpus To this end the author innovatively uses Polysystem Theory which has been developed in the field of modern literary studies After discussing the appropriateness of a systemic approach to understanding Jewish Greek literature the author reflects on the Jewishness of Greek language texts Dhont then presents a thorough literary analysis of the Old Greek version of the book of Job On this basis she explains the dynamics that produced the translation of Old Greek Job and its position within the development of a Jewish Greek literary tradition

Empiricisms Barry Allen, 2021 Empiricisms is about the value of experience and experiments Why do we esteem them and what is their contribution to knowledge The work is unique in the detail with which it explains empiricism from its beginning in ancient medicine to its emergence as a philosophy of modern science It elucidates the ideas of the so called radical empiricists clarifying their relation to historical empiricism and explaining what is radical about them and develops a comparison between European empiricism and ideas and practice in traditional China Bringing China into the argument is an unexpected innovation and makes the work a model for comparative philosophy

Ancient Worlds in Digital Culture Claire Clivaz, Paul Dilley, David Hamidović, 2016-08-15 The volume presents a selection of research projects in Digital Humanities applied to the Biblical Studies in the widest sense and context including Early Jewish and Christian studies hence the title Ancient Worlds Taken as a whole the volume explores the emergent Digital Culture at the beginning of the 21st century It also offers many examples which attest to a change of paradigm in the textual scholarship of Ancient Worlds categories are reshaped textuality is re investigated according to its relationships with orality and visualization methods approaches and practices are no longer a fixed conglomeration but are mobilized according to their contexts and newly available digital tools

The Actual Jesus Tina Pippin, 2025-07-29 This book moves away from the traditional historical and theological studies of Jesus to incorporate a variety of theoretical and material approaches across centuries and diverse global cultures Through fiction and film the connections are made with contemporary issues such as borders asylum seekers farmworker activism colonialism violence misogyny civil war and nuclear proliferation with a focus on the appearances of the actual Jesus in these worlds The Jesus in this study is explored in particular connections with the stories of baptism wilderness experience ascension and apocalypse What is found is often confusing challenging surprising and disturbing like the Jesus of the gospels
