education in prevailing geopolitical tensions the volume seeks to uncover the critical role of the university in contemporary global politics By exploring higher education as a central institution caught within competing visions of world order one rooted in international cooperation another asserting the nation state and yet another challenging the very notion of the university as territorially fixed the book offers a perspective on the university which is in line with pivotal global developments It is a must read book for anyone interested in the new geopolitics of higher education and the future of the university globally

Reconstructing Lenin Tamás Krausz, 2015-02-27 Vladimir Ilyich Lenin is among the most enigmatic and influential figures of the twentieth century While his life and work are crucial to any understanding of modern history and the socialist movement generations of writers on the left and the right have seen fit to embalm him endlessly with superficial analysis or dreary dogma Now after the fall of the Soviet Union and actually existing socialism it is possible to consider Lenin afresh with sober senses trained on his historical context and how it shaped his theoretical and political contributions Reconstructing Lenin four decades in the making and now available in English for the first time is an attempt to do just that Tam s Krausz an esteemed Hungarian scholar writing in the tradition of Gy rgy Luk cs Ferenc Tokei and Istv n M sz ros makes a major contribution to a growing field of contemporary Lenin studies This rich and penetrating account reveals Lenin busy at the work of revolution his thought shaped by immediate political events but never straying far from a coherent theoretical perspective Krausz balances detailed descriptions of Lenin s time and place with lucid explications of his intellectual development covering a range of topics like war and revolution dictatorship and democracy socialism and utopianism Reconstructing Lenin will change the way you look at a man and a movement it will also introduce the English speaking world to a profound radical scholar

The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind The White Nights Boris Sokoloff,1959

The present volume is quite different from the other two autobiographies by Du Bois not only because of its additional two decade span and the significantly altered outlook of its author but also because in it unlike the others he seeks as he writes to review my life as frankly and fully as I can Of course with the directness and honesty which so decisively characterized him he reminds the reader of this book of the intense subjectivity that inevitably permeates autobiography hence he writes he offers this account of his life as he understood it and as he would like others to believe it to have been Certainly while Dr Du Bois was deep in his ninth decade when he died longevity was the least remarkable feature of his life As editor author lecturer scholar organizer inspirer and fighter he was among the most consequential figures of the twentieth century Necessarily therefore the full and final accounting of that life and his times becomes an indispensable volume
