The World that is the Book Aliki Varvogli, 2001-01-01 The World that is the Book offers an in depth analysis of Paul Auster's fiction It explores the rich literary and cultural sources that Auster taps into in order to create compelling stories that investigate the nature of language the workings of chance and the individual's complex relations with the world at large Whereas most Auster criticism has concentrated on readings of individual novels this book emphasizes the continuity in Auster's writing by discussing throughout the philosophical underpinnings that lead the author to question the boundaries separating the fictional from the factual and the real from the imagined

Collected Fiction Irwin Shaw, 2017-10-03 Three acclaimed novels plus collected short fiction by the New York Times bestselling author of Rich Man Poor Man The Young Lions Irwin Shaw's New York Times bestselling debut is widely considered one of the four great World War II novels along with From Here to Eternity The Naked and the Dead and The Caine Mutiny Ambitious in its scope and robust in its prose this masterpiece is also deeply humanistic presenting the reality of war as seen through the eyes of three ordinary soldiers a Nazi sergeant a Jewish American infantryman and an idealistic urbanite from New York City

The Boston Globe Bread Upon the Waters No good deed goes unpunished The Strands are a happy family though not without their financial struggles When their daughter helps a mugging victim by bringing him home he turns out to be a Wall Street lawyer whose gratitude is as boundless as his bank account But with each successive reward the Strand family moves farther away from the wealth of happiness they already possessed

Short Stories Five Decades Shaw's prolific output of short stories appeared regularly in the pages of the New Yorker and Esquire for over half a century These sixty three stories include such iconic works as The Eighty Yard Run and The Girls in Their Summer Dresses The Troubled Air Five employees of Clement Archer's popular radio show are accused Communists He will have to fire them to keep his show on the air But it's not a simple choice whatever Archer decides he won't be able to keep his hands clean in Shaw's provocative classic about courage and morality at the height of McCarthyism

American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are

Desinence (science fiction/fantasy crossover) Timothy L. Cerepaka, 2015-12-14 The end is here In the fifth and final Two Worlds novel Rii a heroic knight and J997 a law enforcement robot must work separately and together to stop the reunification process that is bringing the two worlds together At stake are the lives of the billions of innocent people on both worlds including Rii's siblings and J997's fellow law enforcement officers who will not survive the forcible reunification of the worlds But with Reunification's leader and his followers blocking their every step Rii and J997 must use their strength cunning and intelligence to save the two worlds from certain doom And if they fail then the consequences will be truly apocalyptic

Truth Stranger Than Fiction Augusta Rohrbach, 2002-02-22 Using the lens of business history to contextualize the development of an American literary tradition Truth Stranger than Fiction shows how African American literature and culture greatly influenced the development of realism which remains one of the most significant genres of writing in the United States More specifically Truth Stranger than Fiction traces the influences of generic conventions popularized in slave narratives such as the use of authenticating details as well as dialect and a frank treatment of the human body in later realist writings As it unfolds Truth Stranger than Fiction poses and explores a set of questions about the shifting relationship between literature and culture in the United States from 1830-1930 by focusing on the evolving trend of literary realism Beginning with the question How might slave narratives heralded as the first indigenous literature by Theodore Parker have influenced the development of American Literature the book develops connections between an emerging literary marketplace the rise of the professional writer and literary realism
