Structure of Music

Introduction

The concept of form is an essential element of all the arts. It is associated with shape, organization, structure, pattern, relationships, coherence, and placement. Ultimately, it has to do with questions of proportion and balance. In music, form reveals how sound is organized in time and helps us understand how durations, pitches, timbres, and volume add up to a coherent whole. Regardless of how simple or complex a piece of music might be, our appreciation and enjoyment of it is closely related to our capacity to comprehend its form and to feel the emotional message it conveys.

Traditionally, musicians have used unity, variety, repetition, and contrast to shape sound into a variety of pre-established form templates that have

Complete National Commission on Music Education (U.S.),1991 This report is part of a national campaign for music education that aims to focus the nation s attention on the pressing need to include music and the other arts at the center of the school curriculum The credo of this campaign is Just as there can be no music without learning no education is complete without music The meaning of this credo is spelled out in this report through a four part argument In chapter 1 Our Culture Is Dying the contention is made that through inattention to music and the other arts in schools the nation is dehumanizing its own people and particularly the children not by design but by default It is argued that music has intrinsic value for the learner and that a knowledge of music is essential to an educated human being In chapter 2 Education Without Music evidence is explored that music education is being pushed to the periphery in schools Chapter 3 Education With Music underscores two areas of interest first the new pathbreaking areas of research on the nature of intelligence and brain function that are linked to music and second the significant contributions that music education can make to all of education beyond its intrinsic value Finally in chapter 4 Making It Happen Mounting a National Effort there is discussion of ways of putting the credo to work including linking the benefits of music education to a national advocacy effort to bring music and the other arts to their basic role in U S education Two appendices are included list of witnesses before the National Commission on Music Education and a list of endorsing and supporting organizations DB NAEP Newsletter ,1974
