Limelight Katja Lee, 2020-02-20 At the heart of fame is the tricky business of image management Over the last 115 years the celebrity autobiography has emerged as a popular and useful tool for that project In Limelight Katja Lee examines the memoirs of famous Canadian women like L M Montgomery Nellie McClung the Dionne Quintuplets Margaret Trudeau and Shania Twain to trace the rise of celebrity autobiography in Canada and the role gender has played in the rise to fame and in writing about that experience Arguing that the celebrity autobiography is always negotiating historically specific conditions Lee charts a history of celebrity in English Canada and the conditions that shape the way women access and experience fame These contexts shed light on the stories women tell about their lives and the public images they cultivate in their autobiographies As strategies of self representation change and the pressure to represent the private life escalates the celebrity autobiography undergoes distinct shifts in form function and content during the period examined in this study Limelight Canadian Women and the Rise of Celebrity Autobiography is the first book to explore the history and development of the celebrity autobiography and offers compelling evidence of the critical role of gender and nation in the way fame is experienced and represented A Peter Gzowski Reader Peter Gzowski, 2002 The man who affected the reading habits of millions of Canadians gives us the work of a lifetime Long before he became a radio voice Peter Gzowski was a writer This book is an anthology of his best writing over a career spanning more than 50 years starting with pieces from his time writing for The Varsity and his early days as a young reporter caught in a forest fire Each entry forms a new chapter and typically begins with an introduction from Peter Gzowski today setting it in context When he was a young writer at Maclean's in 1959 he did a piece on Gordie Howe which still stands up today In the same period he wrote articles on racism in Saskatchewan This Is Our Alabama and in 1961 a profile of an interesting young man named Trudeau Later we follow him into the world of his books with choice excerpts from his best work From his book on the Edmonton Oilers The Game of Our Lives for example there's his famous piece on skating and another much quoted passage on Wayne Gretzky

Look for choice pieces from The Morningside Papers 1984 95 and three pieces from his autobiography The Private Voice and many pieces from here and there including Song for Canada which he wrote with Ian Tyson Above all look for exciting new work never before collected in book form including a thrilling account of sailing in Antigua in seas so high that the boat is dismasted at the mercy of the waves And there is a lovely piece about his earliest boyhood days growing up in what was then Galt and by contrast a look at Canada today This is a cornucopia of Gzowski selected by Peter himself that is a tasty blend of the personal and the objective and always good reading From the Hardcover edition
