Treasure Hidden Pedrameh Manoochehri, 2019-06-14 Before He entered my world and transformed it miraculously I went about my days giving no thought to my Maker I was a high school art teacher back then While I worked hard to impact my students and school for good I also enjoyed weekend happy hours and a pot habit On a couple of occasions just before I came to know the Lord I could easily have killed myself or someone else driving drunk This was a warning from God that my life was about to change drastically No one evangelized me I had warning dreams One seared the image of a brightly lit cross and crown into my mind s eye In another my friend warned me I would come to know the love of Christ I thought to myself But I m not religious Nevertheless by the Holy Spirit s leading and touch my heart was awakened to realize I love Jesus for some reason deeply Thus began my journey learning who He is in love and in justice Proverbs 4 23 states Keep your heart with all vigilance for

The End of the Christian Life J. Todd Billings, 2020-09-15 We're all going to die Yet in our medically advanced technological age many of us see death as a distant reality something that happens only at the end of a long life or to other people In The End of the Christian Life Todd Billings urges Christians to resist that view Instead he calls us to embrace our mortality in our daily life and faith This is the journey of genuine discipleship Billings says following the crucified and resurrected Lord in a world of distraction and false hopes Drawing on his experience as a professor and father living with incurable cancer Billings offers a personal yet deeply theological account of the gospel's expansive hope for small mortal creatures Artfully weaving rich theology with powerful narrative Billings writes for church leaders and laypeople alike Whether we are young or old reeling from loss or clinging to our own prosperity this book challenges us to walk a strange but wondrous path in the midst of joy and lament to receive mortal limits as a gift an opportunity to give ourselves over to the Lord of life
