One Day Itll All Make Sense By Common Sep 13 2011:

Wake Up Rev. Marlon F. Hall, Dr. Cheryl Kirk-Duggan, 2011-06-01 First an expression of black urban youth Hip Hop music continues to expand as a cultural expression of youth and now young adults more generally As a cultural phenomenon it has even become integral to the worship experience of a growing number of churches who are reaching out to these groups This includes not just African American churches but churches of all ethnic groups Once seen as advocating violence Hip Hop can be the Church s agent of salvation and praise to transform society and reach youth and young adults in greater numbers After looking at Hip Hop s socio historical context including its African roots Wake Up shows how Hip Hop has come to embody the worldview of growing numbers of youth and young adults in today s church The authors make the case that Hip Hop represents the angst and hope of many youth and young adults and that by examining the inherent religious themes embedded in the music the church can help shape the culture of hip hop by changing its own forms of preaching and worship so that it can more effectively offer a message of repentance and liberation

Representing Islam Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, 2020-12-01 How do Muslims who grew up after September 11 balance their love for hip hop with their devotion to Islam How do they live the piety and modesty called for by their faith while celebrating an art form defined in part by overt sexuality violence and profanity In Representing Islam Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir explores the tension between Islam and the global popularity of hip hop including attempts by the hip hop ummah or community to draw from the struggles of African Americans in order to articulate the human rights abuses Muslims face Nasir explores state management of hip hop culture and how Muslim hip hoppers are attempting to Islamize the genre s performance and jargon to bring the music more in line with religious requirements which are perhaps even more fraught for female artists who struggle with who has the right to speak for Muslim women Nasir also investigates the vibrant underground hip hop culture that exists online For fans living in conservative countries social media offers an opportunity to explore and discuss hip hop when more traditional avenues have been closed Representing Islam considers the complex and multifaceted rise of hip hop on a global stage and in doing so asks broader questions about how Islam is represented in this global community

United Nations Office on Drugs he highlights dire need for international endeavour to deal with political leaders pillaging and plundering the resources of people plunging them into abject poverty as crimes against humanity SAARC leaders acknowledge people in Asia are enslaved in abject poverty and propound prosperity is not monopoly of a few but are not committed to combat fraud and corruption He reveals how World Bank and international agencies pontificate on combating fraud and corruption but continue to fraternize with fraudulent and corrupt miscreants demonstrating that mere rhetoric only subverts UNCAC an indispensable handbook for those combating fraud corruption and economic crime Struggle for Power the Longest School Strike Leon Bock Kavunedus, Dr, Leon Bock, 2011 Two people participating in the same events yet on opposite sides give an engrossing view of a struggle which engulfed a large community in northern Westchester County in New York State It became the longest teachers strike in New York State s history Even though they are personal memoirs both authors try to give as full a picture of the personalities institutions and issues driving the struggle as each experienced it The narrative is in two parts side by side and event by event Both are impressionistic accounts that do not claim to be objective Dr Leon Bock s account is the viewpoint of a leader of a major institution the Lakeland School District In representing the district he had the heavy responsibility to merge the interests of students and parents faculty the taxpaying community and the Board of Education Mr Thomas Kavunedus a faculty member served as a negotiator for the Lakeland Federation of Teachers He saw his responsibilities as extending to the promotion of learning and teaching environment which would foster excellence The contract with the school district which Mr Kavunedus had participated in promulgating years earlier was a major step in raising teachers out of the dark ages of coffee in the boiler room and hopefully greater professionalism Both authors disagree with one another on many of the issues Most of these issues bedevil our schools today Yet there is enough civility to recognize that partisanship need not be so all engulfing that it demonizes the other side and its objectives No narrative of such a complex event can be totally accurate and objective The authors try to focus on the interpersonal relationships rather than serve as a textbook history of this series of complex events There is no intention to discredit or malign any of the personalities in the narrative rather they are presented as the writers experienced them under conditions of stress Cincinnati Magazine ,2004-07 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region
