Fireside Magic Charles Platt, 1930 Fireside Magic Charles Platt, Fireside Magic - 100 Fascinating Conjuring Tricks for Everybody Carol Luck, 2010-08 Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900 s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork American Homes and Gardens , 1908 Los Angeles Magazine , 2003-11 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Fireside Magic. 100 fascinating conjuring tricks, etc Carol LUCK (pseud. [i.e. Charles Platt.]), 1930 Fireside Magic. 100 ... Conjuring Tricks ... Charles Platt (Miscellaneous Writer.), Carol Luck (pseud.), 1930 The Practical Magician and Ventriloquist's Guide Anonymously, 2016-04-06 From the INTRODUCTORY MY object in writing these hints on Conjuring is for the benefit of amateurs to promote lively and entertaining amusement for the home circle and social gatherings My large experience enables me to explain and simplify many of the best tricks and illusions of the art I present the key to many of the mystical mysteries which have puzzled and bewildered our childhood days as well as confounded us in our maturer years The young student can in a very short time if he be in the least of an ingenious turn amuse and astonish his friends neighbors and acquaintances Preference has been given to those tricks which suggest others the more complete and difficult performances and illusions have been passed by as being out of place I shall not therefore in these elementary papers advert to those experiments which require ample resources or a prepared stage for exhibiting them or which can only be displayed to advantage by consummate skill and the most adroit manipulation but confine my remarks at present to those branches of the art to the performance of which a young amateur may aspire with prospect of success A few hours practice will enable the learner to execute the simple tricks that I shall first treat of and they will only require for their display such articles as are readily available in every household Most of them will be supplied by any company of a few friends and if not in the parlor can be brought from no greater distance than the kitchen or housekeeper s room such as handkerchiefs coins oranges or eggs a glass bowl etc etc There may only remain a few inexpensive articles to be supplied from repositories for the sale of conjuring apparatus or they may be had direct from the publishers of this work It may be well explicitly to avow that the time is quite gone by when people will really believe that conjuring is to be done by supernatural agencies No faith is now reposed in the I black art of sorcery or even in the art to which the less repulsive name was given of white magic Many years have elapsed since conjurors have seriously assumed to themselves any credit as possessing supernatural powers or as enabled by spiritual agency to reveal that which is unknown to science and philosophy or mysteriously to work astonishing marvels A well marked contrast exists between the old school of conjurors and those of modern times The former who used boldly to profess that they employed mysterious rites and preternatural agency designedly put the spectator upon false interpretations while they studiously avoided giving any elucidation of the phenomena nor would ever admit that the wonders displayed were to be accounted for by the principles of science and natural philosophy Modern conjurors advance no such pretensions They use as scientifically as possible the natural properties of matter to aid In their exhibition of wonderful results They are content to let the exhibition of their art appear marvelous They sometimes mystify the matter and so increase the puzzle in order to heighten the interest and amusement of the spectators but they throw aside any solemn asseveration of possessing hidden powers or of ability to fathom mysterious secrets The boys' book of magic ,1957
