Once And For All A Confession Of The Cross:

Once and for All Tom Smail, 2005-05-02 To articulate a credible doctrine of the atonement in today's cultural situation is fraught with difficulties How can we do justice to the central New Testament claim that the work of Christ at one point in history is decisive for God's relationship to the whole of humanity at every other point in history Tom Smail takes the connection between the atonement and the Trinity as the underpinning of Once and for All If we recognize that the work of the cross has to be seen to involve all three persons and their relationships to one another we have a structure that enables us to deal with the problems the doctrine of the atonement raises This presentation of Christ's atoning work in his cross and resurrection both does justice to its decisive character as a once and for all historical event and at the same time explores the sense in which a long past historical act can be universally relevant to and effective for everyone Tom Smail makes contemporary theological thinking on this subject accessible and also in investigating the spiritual and pastoral dimensions of the gospel of the cross gives expression to his personal struggle with it throughout fifty years of ministry It is his own confession of the cross guided by the Scriptures and the many diverse strands of the Christian tradition that are precious to him Once and for All will help us all to understand better and to enter into the unique and enduring mystery at the heart of our faith

Confession Adrienne von Speyr, 2017-04-13 In this second edition of her profound book on confession which theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar calls one of her most central works Adrienne von Speyr discusses the moral and practical aspects of this sacrament in great depth The most complete spiritual treatise on confession ever written the book covers conversion scruples contrition spiritual direction laxity frequency of confession confessions of religious and lay people and even confessions of saints The most intriguing element in von Speyr's understanding of confession fully developed in this volume is its trinitarian and christological basis The Cross is the archetypal confession and Christian sacramental confession is thus an imitation of Christ in the strict sense Confession examines the enormous fruitfulness of this dogmatic basis from many perspectives giving a wealth of suggestions that both the theological expert and the layman will find very helpful Its practical applicability to one s own confession emerges from every page The Gospel watchman ,1881 The Light of the Cross in the Twentieth Century: The glorious teachings of our holy religion ,1905 Light from the Cross August Tholuck,1858
