One Shade Of Red A Sexual Education:

Home and Community for Queer Men of Color C. Winter Han, Jesús Gregorio Smith, 2019-12-13 This edited volume examines how and where gay men of color find home and what kind of home they find how they make sense of race and sexuality and how their experiences reflect what it means to be raced and sexual in America The contributors argue both racially and sexually marginalized groups all confront levels of racism and heterosexism that is practiced by the larger ethnic and sexual communities that use white heterosexuality as the norm to which all others are compared They further argue that despite different constructions of race and ethnicity there are similar themes for racialized groups that need to be explored

The Forbidden Gift Anttarr, 2004-09 The Forbidden Gift is defining that intangible knowing that unmistakable feeling that tells you there is more more than you have previously ever had the chance to fully conceptually digest and savor defining that feeling behind whose many masks lie layer upon layer of uncomfortable sensations that as you progressed through life you merely adapted to and incorporated into the you that you are today Who are you Each chapter of this book is a walk through your life and the life of humankind in general Who am I is naturally followed by What is my purpose for living for being Who is responsible for all this What is the reason To answer these questions we must look into the heart the source of your reality and venture beyond the known into the unknown That is what this book is all about liberation from the unconscious forces that cause you to behave think feel and live in fashions that are not productive but counterproductive to realizing the whole essence of your highest potential If you open your heart and mind to what is said you will experience personal insights and a loosening of the very dense jungle of chronic deeply rooted scripting that controls your entire orientation and self creation in the life process The strength to make impact the strength and methodology to pull your own strings and the ability to sense your own power and apply it intelligently and with sensitivity even passion is my theme ANTTARR Red Is Not the Only Color Patricia Sieber, 2001-09-05 The first English language anthology of its kind Red Is Not the Only Color offers a window into the uncharted terrain of intimate relations between Chinese women As urban China has undergone rapid transformation same sex relations have emerged as a significant if previously neglected touchstone for the exploration of the meaning of social change The short fiction in this volume highlights tensions between tradition and modernization family and state art and commerce love and sex These stories introduce an emerging generation of acclaimed and at times controversial women writers including Chen Ran Bikwan Wong and Chen Xue By presenting fiction from the PRC Hong Kong and Taiwan the collection deliberately maps the literary contours of same sex intimacy in broadly cultural rather than purely political terms The perceptive and informative introduction surveys the social evolution of female same sex intimacy in twentieth century China examines how each author engages with her Chinese context and discusses how the stories compare with earlier representations of Chinese same sex intimacy in the United States Compelling for its literary quality the anthology will also spur reflection among scholars of modern Chinese literature as well as readers interested in questions of gender sexuality

Office of Education, 1884 Young and Defiant in Tehran Shahram Khosravi, 2011-09-28 With more than half its population under twenty years old Iran is one of the world's most youthful nations The Iranian state characterizes its youth population in two ways as a homogeneous mass an army of twenty millions devoted to the Revolution and as alienated inauthentic Westernized consumers who constitute a threat to the society Much of the focus of the Islamic regime has been on ways to protect Iranian young people from moral hazards and to prevent them from providing a gateway for cultural invasion from the West Iranian authorities express their anxieties through campaigns that target the young generation and its lifestyle and have led to the criminalization of many of the behaviors that make up youth culture In this ethnography of contemporary youth culture in Iran's capital Shahram Khosravi examines how young Tehranis struggle for identity in the battle over the right to self expression Khosravi looks closely at the strictures confronting Iranian youth and the ways transnational cultural influences penetrate and flourish Focusing on gathering places such as shopping centers and coffee shops Khosravi examines the practices of everyday life through which young Tehranis demonstrate defiance against the official culture and parental dominance In addition to being sites of opposition Khosravi argues these alternative spaces serve as creative centers for expression and above all imagination His analysis reveals the transformative power these spaces have and how they enable young Iranians to develop their own culture as well as individual and generational identities The text is enriched by examples from literature and cinema and by livid reports from the author's fieldwork Proceedings of the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association ...
