One Side Of Suicide One Side Of Suicide:

Phenomenology of Suicide Maurizio Pompili, 2017-10-10 This book will help the reader to understand the suicidal mind from a phenomenological point of view shedding light on the feelings of suicidal individuals and also those of clinicians In accordance with the importance that the phenomenological approach attaches to subjectivity and sense of self as the starting points for knowledge emphasis is placed on the need for the clinician to focus on the subjective experiences of the at risk individual to set aside prior assumptions judgments or interpretations and to identify ways of bridging gaps in communication associated with negative emotions The vital importance of empathy is stressed drawing attention to the insights offered by neuroimaging studies and the role of mirror neurons in social cognition It is widely acknowledged that when a clinician meets a person who wants to die by suicide the clinician does not fully understand what is going on inside the mind of that individual This book recognizes that any approach to suicide prevention must promote understanding of suicidal thoughts and feelings The awareness that it fosters and the innovative perspectives that it presents will appeal to a wide readership The Value of Suicide Eric v.d. Luft, 2012-12-05 Philosophical examination of the ontology and ethics of suicide i e what suicide is from the perspective of being and what the effects of suicide are in the world when it is morally permitted

Biological Aspects of Suicidal Behavior W. P. Kaschka, D. Rujescu, 2016 Suicide is one of the most important causes of death in modern societies To develop more effective preventive measures we have to be aware of and learn more about its neurobiological foundations In recent years the tools of modern neurosciences have increasingly been utilized to characterize the pathophysiology of complex human behaviors such as suicide To improve suicide risk assessment and suicide prevention a better understanding of its pathophysiology is crucial This includes research from a variety of disciplines such as neuropsychological psychosocial and cultural studies but also findings from biochemistry neuropathology electrophysiology immunology neuroimaging genetics and epigenetics Important results have for example been obtained in the field of gene environment interaction and suicidal behavior We have just begun to understand how early life adversity may increase suicide risk by epigenetic mechanisms Based on such insights novel therapeutic interventions and preventive measures can be developed Furthermore a better understanding of the pathophysiological mechanisms involved in suicidal behavior could reveal the mechanism of compounds like lithium salts In this book suicidal behavior and its prevention is discussed by international experts in the light of the most recent results from a broad spectrum of neurosciences A Diary of Four Years of Terrorism and Anti-Semitism Robert R Friedmann, 2005-02 A compilation of Friedmann s weekly e Letters written between 2000 to 2004 concerning U S and international events in relation to Israel How to Help the Suicidal

Cognitive Strategies for Suicide Prevention, Addiction And Anxiety William Pryatel, 2019-08-11 The author has been a psychiatrist for thirty nine years and has worked with thousands of patients His impression is that many of their problems have to do with the way they process or deal with information Often maladaptive pathways of thinking are employed to the person s detriment When this occurs it tends to be repeated again and again and becomes habitual Eventually symptoms such as anxiety depression suicidal feelings and addiction are generated and become more and more problematic In the author s experience this can be interrupted by mentally training oneself to only travel down adaptive pathways of thinking With this approach old pathways of thinking are abandoned There are a number of techniques that can be employed to establish and reinforce newer adaptive pathways of thinking It s not for everybody and should not be used exclusively but first and foremost among techniques is mindfulness The author has seen it work again and again Introduced to the world by Buddha for the purpose of enlightenment nowadays it is used for mental health issues The mindfulness here is different from the type taught in DBT The author is not saying that DBT mindfulness doesn't work it's just that he has seen better outcomes with the type he teaches He learned the basics of it at IMS at Barre Massachusetts during various meditation retreats Modern psychology does not address the invisible spiritual worlds that interface with the physical world According to religious teachings these worlds really exist and forces from them can influence our thinking Reportedly an archangel rebelled against God and was booted out of heaven A third of the angels went down with him to earth They seek to have us act in such a way so that when we die they can claim our souls and torture us in hell The present work at least addresses this issue Likewise energy medicine is discussed briefly

Suicide Voices Sarah Waters, 2020-09-01 This book examines the phenomenon of work suicides in France and asks why at the present historical juncture conditions of work can push individuals to take their own lives During the 2000s France experienced what commentators have described as a suicide epidemic whereby increasing numbers of workers in the face of extreme pressures of work chose to kill themselves The book analyses a corpus of testimonial material linked to 66 suicide cases across three large French companies during the period from 2005 to 2015 It aims to consider what the extreme and subjective act of self killing narrated in suicide letters can tell us about the contemporary economic order and its impact on flesh and blood bodies What do rising work related suicides reveal about conditions of human labour in the twenty first century Does neoliberal economics condition a desire for suicide How do suicidal individuals describe the causes and motivations of their act Combining critical perspectives from sociology history testimony studies economics cultural studies and public health the book raises critical questions about the human costs of the shift to a finance driven neoliberal order and its everyday effects within the French workplace

Suicide in Adolescence René F.W. Diekstra, Keith E. Hawton, 2012-12-06 The official death rates from suicide vary considerably between countries in the world for which data are available They range from 3 to 45 persons a year per 100 000 of population Historically the higher rates of suicide are in the older age groups and in males However the general trend in the last twenty years has been for suicide increasing in the younger age groups 15 34 and in females It has been suggested that this development is related to the phenomenon of attempted suicide of which the rates in most industrialized countries have doubled and in some countries even tripled over the past two decades The average rate of attempted suicide is now estimated to be around 200 per 100 000 for males and 350 for females Almost two thirds of these occur before the age of thirty Although the majority of attempted suicide are not intended to be lethal once a suicide attempt has been made there is more likelihood of subsequent death by suicide As many as ten percent of people who have made a previous unsuccessful attempt commit suicide at a later stage in their lives persons with increased likelihood to commit suicide are youngsters from disrupted families and from families with a history of suicide drug and alcohol addiction those who have failed at school the unemployed and those suffering from depression Carl Rogers, Control Freak Kevin Everett FitzMaurice, 2012-04-07 This book is about the work of Carl Rogers not the life of Carl Rogers The personal problems Carl Rogers had with alcohol and his marriage have nothing to do with his counseling method This brief book focuses on the method of counseling that he invented Method and technique are not to be confused with counseling theory A counseling theory is a set of guiding principles that structure the course of counseling A method or technique is a strategy for eliciting a response from a client Counseling theories therefore provide general directions for achieving specific goals while methods or techniques are specific strategies for promoting a change or curative response from a client Carl Rogers gave the counseling world its most effective efficient and advanced method Unfortunately Rogers feared to face the true nature of his method and buried it under false philosophy and theory that diametrically opposed it Rogers betrayal of his method has led to a corruption of his method causing it to be diluted at best and in many cases lost We must separate the theory of Carl Rogers from the method of Carl Rogers to resurrect and preserve his superior method This book will help you discover the true nature of the method But ultimately you must work this out for yourself You must again watch the videos of Rogers at work You must again analyze his method You must experiment and test until you are certain from your own examination what the nature of the method is If you wish to debate Rogers theories then you are missing the point The Rogerian Method works wonders and needs to be salvaged and seen for what it is separate from all theory and philosophy The Suicidal Mind Edwin S. Shneidman, 1998 Presenting cases recounted in the patients own words that reveal the inner workings of the suicidal mind Shneidman looks at suicide from a psychological perspective He offers a wealth of insights to help understand and to prevent suicide

Suicidal Behaviour Jürgen Kind, 1999 Looking at the problem of suicide and suicidal behaviour from a psychoanalytical perspective Kind analyses the various motivations for such impulses and the therapist's countertransference reactions to a suicidal patient Therapeutic strategies for dealing with threatened or actual suicide are evaluated within the clinical context Suicidal patients for example may provoke emotions of anger guilt and helplessness in their therapists these emotions only intensify if a patient makes a successful suicide attempt The issue of guilt is used by Kind as a starting point for his exploration of what suicidal behaviour actually represents He bases his analysis on clinical observations made during therapy with psychosomatic patients neurotics and patients with borderline disorders The dynamics of transference and countertransference object relations transitional domains and types of interaction both within the patient and between the patient and the therapist are discussed Understanding the origins of suicidal impulses makes it possible for the therapist to cope with his or her own reactions to the patient s behaviour This book provides an insightful and comprehensive study which will be of interest to all those working in mental health care and related professions Eight historical dissertations

C. Johnson,2022-03-18 This book makes the startling claim that the pulpit is the appropriate place to address suicide In A Preacher s Guide to Suicide Johnson chisels through the rusty prison bars of cultural pretense and the oppressive myths of suicide Using history the social and behavioral sciences and biblical inquiry over the centuries of varied Christian voices Johnson demonstrates that suicide is part of the very fabric of Christian identity And to preach suicide awareness is to preach life into the very act of dying While grappling with the contemporary understanding of neuroscience psychopathology societal values and individualism Johnson seeks to present suicide in a hopeful light as we all approach death in those daily moments of confession forgiveness and prayer Johnson hopes to provoke further conversation within the Christian community about the richness of suicide within the Scriptures and seeks to be a source of inspiration for preachers
