Rootbound: Heaven and Earth IV David Francis, 2012-08-17 Curated by David Francis Full Color Catalog from 2012 Outdoor Art Exhibition at Carkeek Park in Seattle Presented by Center on Contemporary Art curated by David Francis with essays by David Francis and Willow Fox Artists include Seattle Julie Lindell Joe Reno Miguel Edwards Viewlands Group Pepp Brenda Scallon Alan Fulle Suze Woolf Cameron Mason and Lara McIntosh Josho Somine Rebecca Maxim Gary Golightly The Unearth Collective Bellevue and Sammamish Fox Spears Suzanne Tidwell California Judy Shintani Oregon Lee Imonen Vancouver BC Tiki Mulvihill The Old Master Hongkyung Kim, 2012-01-01 This unique highly contextualized translation of the Laozi is based on the earliest known edition of the work Text A of the Mawangdui Laozi written before 202 BCE No other editions are comparable to this text in its antiquity Hongkyung Kim also incorporates the recent archaeological discovery of Laozi related documents disinterred in 1993 in Guodian seeing these documents as proto materials for compilation of the Laozi and revealing clues for disentangling the work from complicated exegetical contentions Kim makes extensive use of Chinese commentaries on the Laozi and also examines the classic Chinese texts closely associated with the formation of the work to illuminate the intellectual and historical context of Laozi's philosophy Kim offers several original and thought provoking arguments on the Laozi including that the work was compiled during the Qin which has traditionally been viewed as typical of Legalist states and that the Laozi should be recognized as a syncretic text before being labeled a Daoist one Encounter with Enlightenment Robert E. Carter, 2001-01-01 Examines the influence of Shintoism Confucianism Buddhism and Zen Buddhism on Japanese ethics with implications for our understanding of various social economic and environmental problems The Tao of Islam Sachiko Murata, 1992-03-23 The Tao of Islam is a rich and diverse anthology of Islamic teachings on the nature of the relationships between God and the world the world and the human being and the human being and God Focusing on gender symbolism Sachiko Murata shows that Muslim authors frequently analyze the divine reality and its connections with the cosmic and human domains with a view toward a complementarity or polarity of principles that is analogous to the Chinese idea of yin yang Murata believes that the unity of Islamic thought is found not so much in the ideas discussed as in the types of relationships that are set up among realities She pays particular attention to the views of various figures commonly known as Sufis and philosophers since they approach these topics with a flexibility and subtlety not found in other schools of thought She translates several hundred pages most for the first time from more than thirty important Muslims including the Ikhwan al Safa Avicenna and Ibn al Arabi The Japan Daily Mail, 1907 David and Margaret Mitchell, Emigrants from Ulster, Ireland, to the American Colonies in 1763 James Mitchell, 1907 Letters of the Rev. Chinese Public Theology Alexander Chow,2018 It has been widely recognized that Christianity is the fastest growing religion in one of the last communist run countries of the world the People s Republic of China Yet it would be a mistake to describe Chinese Christianity as merely a clandestine faith or as hoped by the Communist Party of China a privatized religion Alexander Chow argues that Christians in mainland China have been constructing a more intentional public theology to engage the Chinese state and society since the end of the Cultural Revolution 1966-76 Chinese Public Theology recalls the events which have led to this transformation and examines the developments of Christianity across three generations of Chinese intellectuals from the state sanctioned Protestant church the secular academy and the growing urban renaissance in Calvinism Moreover Chow shows how each of these generations have provided different theological responses to the same sociopolitical moments of the last three decades This study illustrates how a growing understanding of Chinese public theology has been developed through a subconscious intermingling of Christian and Confucian understandings of public intellectualism These factors result in a contextually unique understanding of public theology but also one which is faced by contextual limitations as well With this in mind Chow draws from the Eastern Orthodox doctrine of theosis and the Chinese traditional teaching of the unity of Heaven and humanity Tian ren heyi to offer a way forward in the construction of a Chinese public theology

A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh,2005-01-31 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei ming Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology Furthermore they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America This book argues that Neville s and Tu s insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of the gospel

Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers: First Series, Volume V St. Augustine: Anti-Pelagian Writings Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume V of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will discover Saint Augustines rebuke of Pelagianism This doctrine undermined Augustines beliefs because it claimed that original sin did not exist Since there was no original sin humans were saved or lost based solely on their own will This further meant that Jesus while a great teacher and model human being did not die to save humanity negating a large portion of Christian doctrine Augustine believed that salvation was available only by the grace of God working in conjunction with mans decision to live a good life Spiritual seekers and students of history will find this work a thorough defense of Catholic theology

Kent, 2019-05-15 Bringing to bear a variety of perspectives on the poetry prose and letters of a writer whose work is just now beginning to emerge from critical neglect this collection edited by David A Kent should play an important role in the re evaluation of Christina Rossetti It consists of fifteen essays by gifted Victorian scholars who represent a wide range of methodologies and critical concerns and it offers alternatives to the autobiographical approach that has limited appreciation of Rossetti the writer Why Traditional Chinese Philosophy Still Matters Ming Dong Gu, 2018-02-15 Traditional Chinese philosophy if engaged at all is often regarded as an object of antiquated curiosity and dismissed as unimportant in the current age of globalization Written by a team of internationally renowned scholars this book however challenges this judgement and offers an in depth study of pre modern Chinese philosophy from an interdisciplinary perspective Exploring the relevance of traditional Chinese philosophy for the global age it takes a comparative approach analysing ancient Chinese philosophy in its relation to Western ideas and contemporary postmodernist theories The conversation extends over a broad spectrum of philosophical areas and themes ranging from metaphysics hermeneutics political theory religion and aesthetics to specific philosophical schools including Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism By engaging many time honoured philosophical issues from a comparative perspective this book bridges the gap between Eastern and Western thought and emphasises the need for a newly fortified global humanism and a deeper appreciation of different philosophical and religious values in an age gripped by large scale crises Arguing that traditional Chinese philosophy has immediate relevance to the many challenges of modern life this book will be useful to students and scholars of Asian Philosophy and Asian Studies in general
