Tomorrow Series Access ,2003 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank,2014-04-08
Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study Issues examined include the selection of books for translation the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry the packaging of translations and the importance of titles blurbs and covers the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children intertextual references the function of the translation in the target culture didactic and pedagogical aims euphemistic language and explicitation and literariness in translated texts The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback the antipodes the exotic the wild the unknown the void the end of the world the young and innocent nation and the Far West Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban multicultural Aboriginal worldly and inharmonious are seriously under represented The study also shows that French translations are conventional conservative and didactic showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu especially through translated children's literature So Much to Tell You Guido Schuring,C. Bosker,1998 GP Review
 ,2004 The Book of Days K.A. Barker,2014-09-01 Most people believe the best way to forget someone is to throw them down a well Or lock them in a room with eight keys or bury them at a crossroad in the thirteenth hour But they're wrong The best way to forget someone is for them never to have existed in the first place When sixteen year old Tuesday wakes from sleep for the first time she opens her eyes to a world filled with wonder and peril Left only with a letter from the person she once was Tuesday sets out to discover her past with the help of her charming and self-serving guide Quintalion Along the way she runs into mercenaries flying cities airships and a blind librarian But what is her connection with the mysterious Book of Days a book that holds untold power Just when I thought nothing new could be achieved in fantasy along comes The Book of Days K A Barker has created an extraordinary world a series of compelling landscapes and an unforgettable cast of characters All hail K A Barker for giving us something so dazzlingly different And funny too JOHN MARSDEN Shakespeare and Millennial Fiction Andrew James Hartley,2018 This book analyses the ways contemporary fiction writers draw on Shakespeare the man his work and his cultural legacy Orana ,1995 EBOOK: Children's Literature and Computer Based Teaching Len Unsworth,Angela Thomas,Alyson Simpson,Jennifer Asha,2005-06-16 This stellar book extends teachers thinking well beyond book spaces and into digital spaces by offering theorized approaches to analyzing children's literature across media and careful descriptions of effective learning activities that are rich in detail and practical advice. This book and its digital spaces is an indispensable guide to engaging with children's literature and new digital media. Michele Knobel, Montclair State University, USA. The book overall is exciting, informative and practical, outlining important theoretical perspectives and ideas while also providing much wisdom and advice to teachers about how to transform their literary programs. Frances Christie, Emeritus Professor of Language and Literacy Education, University of Melbourne and Honorary Professor of Education, University of Sydney, Australia. This book connects classroom teaching of children's literature with the digital age. It celebrates the charm of children's literature and its role in literacy development as well as the appeal of information and communications technology (ICT) to students and its capacity to enrich students' learning and enjoyment of literary texts. The authors outline the ways in which children's literature is developing new dimensions, for example, the republication of children's books on CD-ROM and the world wide web. Web resources for working with literary texts including e-mail discussion groups, children's participation in the collaborative construction of online narratives. The book provides practical guidance for teachers who are inexperienced with ICT. It describes and discusses implementation of activities that extend traditional approaches to literary texts and take advantage of available technology. Circle of Flight:

The Ellie Chronicles 3 John Marsden, 2010-09-01. The follow up to the bestselling Tomorrow series. BOOK 3 IN THE ELLIE CHRONICLES TRILOGY. Addictive reading. Sydney Morning Herald, Australia's king of young adult fiction. The Australian. Skilfully paced, brimming with well-rounded characters whom you can believe in. The Age. You jam on the brakes and stop the ute right at your front door. You jump out. Not for the first time you run into a house that could be full of guns with death waiting for you. You don't even think of that until you're crossing the threshold. You already know what you're going to find. Underneath the fear and horror and panic there's a cold realisation that Gavin's body will be somewhere in the house. You can picture what those bullets will have done to his little body. It is a time of profound change for Ellie Linton. Enemies are everywhere. Some come crawling over the hills, others drive in and knock on the front door. Sometimes her friends are there and sometimes they are not. Ellie fights every inch of the way. But when courage and imagination are not enough, when she is trapped and helpless, Ellie must face the end of life as she knows it, standing alone, sustained only by her own strength. Fans of Veronica Roth, Suzanne Collins and John Flanagan will love John Marsden. The Writers Directory, 2013 Poet's
