One Big Self Prisoners Of Louisiana:

One Big Self Deborah Luster, C. D. Wright, 2003 In 1998 photographer Deborah Luster and poet C D Wright set out to produce a record of Louisiana's prison population through image and text One Big Self is a document to ward off forgetting an opportunity for those inmates to present themselves as they would be seen bringing what they own or borrow or use work tools objects of their making messages of their choosing their bodies themselves The photographer has been commissioned in a sense by the inmates to make portraits for their loved ones trying to ensure a balance between photograph and subject to connect the viewer whether mother child friend or stranger to the prisoner The view is inherently personal Luster's finished portraits are printed on metal in the manner of tintypes durable snapshot mementos popularized during the 1860s and 70s The persistent gaze of both inmate and documentarian are what we see The text testifies to what is in and out of view Luster and Wright have set out to explore the dimensions of prisoners' lives beyond the crimes that have come to define them They suggest that our punitive models reflect who we are just as much as our reward systems do Everyone somehow is implicated

One Big Self C.D. Wright, 2013-06-15 Wright has found a way to wed fragments of an iconic America to a luminously strange idiom eerie as a tin whistle which she uses to evoke the haunted quality of our carnal existence The New Yorker Inspired by numerous visits inside Louisiana state prisons where MacArthur Fellow C D Wright served as a factotum for a portrait photographer One Big Self bears witness to incarcerated men and women and speaks to the psychic toll of protracted time passed in constricted space It is a riveting mosaic of distinct voices epistolary pieces elements from a moralistic board game road signage prison data inmate correspondence and counts of things from baby's teeth to chigger bites Count your folding money Count the times you said you wouldn't go back Count your debts Count the roaches when the light comes on Count your kids after the housefire One Big Self originally published as a large format limited edition that featured photographs and text was selected by The New York Times and The Village Voice as a notable book of the year This edition features the poem exclusively C D Wright is the author of ten books of poetry including several collaborations with photographer Deborah Luster She is a professor at Brown University

Symbolism 21 Florian Klaeger, Klaus Stierstorfer, Marlena Tronicke, 2021-10-25 Special Focus Law and Literature This special focus issue of Symbolism takes a look at the theoretical equation of law and literature and its inherent symbolic dimension The authors all approach the subject from the perspective of literary and book studies foregrounding literature's potential to act as supplementary to a very wide variety of laws spread over historical geographical cultural and spatial grounds The theoretical ground laid here thus posits both literature and law in the narrow sense The articles gathered in this special issue analyse Anglophone literatures from the Renaissance to the present day and cover the three major genres narrative drama and poetry The contributions address questions of the law's psychoanalytic subconscious copyright and censorship literary negotiations of colonial and post colonial territorial laws the European refugee debate and migration narratives fictional debates on climate change contemporary feminist drama and classic 19th century legal narratives This volume includes two insightful analyses of poetic texts with a special focus on the fact that poetry has often been neglected within the field of law and literature research Special Focus editor Franziska Quabeck Westfälische Wilhelms Universität Münster Germany Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith, 2020-01-03 In Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith traces how historical moments of racial crisis come to be known photographically and how the past continues to inhabit punctuate and transform the present through the photographic medium in contemporary art Smith engages photographs by Rashid Johnson Sally Mann Deborah Luster Lorna Simpson Jason Lazarus Carrie Mae Weems Taryn Simon and Dawoud Bey among others Each of these artists turns to the past whether by using nineteenth century techniques to produce images or by re-creating iconic historic photographs as a way to use history to negotiate the present and to call attention to the unfinished political project of racial justice in the United States By interrogating their use of photography to recall revise and amplify the relationship between racial politics of the past and present Smith locates a temporal recursivity that is intrinsic to photography in which images return to haunt the viewer and prompt reflection on the present and an imagination of a more just future The Real Real Thing Wendy Steiner, 2010-11 A masterly performance by a penetrating inquisitive mind The Real Real Thing is that rarest of books one whose provocations will inspire readers to take a new and nuanced look at the world around them Book Jacket

Wreading Jed Rasula,2022-03-29 Jed Rasula is a preeminent scholar of avant garde poetics noted for his erudition intellectual range and critical independence He s also a gifted writer his recent books have won praise for their entertaining clear prose in addition to their scholarship He is also an alumnus of UAP s distinguished Modern and Contemporary Poetics series which published his Syncopations fifteen years ago Rasula returns to the MCP series with Wreading A collection of essays interviews and occasional writings that reflects the breadth and diversity of his curiosity One of the referees likened Wreading to a victory lap but one that sets its own further record in the taking This is a collection of highlights from Rasula s shorter critical pieces but also a carefully assembled and revised intellectual autobiography Wreading consists of two parts an assortment of Rasula s solo criticism and selected interviews and conversations with other critics and scholars Evelyn Reilly Leonard Schwartz Tony Tost Mike Chasar Joel Bettridge and Ming Qian Ma The collection opens with a trio of essays that complicate the idea of a poet By interrogating the selection of poets for anthologies in the 20th century Rasula identifies a host of forgotten poets once prominent but now forgotten Another essay on the state of the poetry anthology reveals how much influence literary gatekeepers have and what a reimagination of the anthology form could make possible In subsequent chapters Rasula finds surprising overlap between Dada and Ralph Waldo Emerson charts the deep links between image and poetic inspiration and reckons with Ron Silliman s The Alphabet a UAP classic In the book s second half Rasula engages in detailed conversations with a roster of fellow critics Their exchanges confront ecopoetics the corporate university the sheer volume of contemporary poetry and more This substantial set of dialogues gives readers a glimpse inside a master critic s deeply informed critical practice and lists his intellectual touchstones The balance between essay and interview achieves a distillation of Rasula s long established idea of wreading In his original use the term denotes how any act of criticism inherently adds to the body of writing that it purports to read how Rasula couldn t help but participate in his favorite poems In this latest form Wreading captures a critical perception that sparks insight and imagination no matter what it sees

Cooling Time C.D. Wright,2012-12-11 C D Wright takes her title from a line of legal defense peculiar to Texas courts in which it is held that if a man kills before having had time to cool after receiving an injury or an insult he is not guilty of murder Cooling Time is a new type of book an unruly vigil that is an interconnected memoir poem essay about contemporary American poetry Ever focused on possibilities Wright demonstrates that the search for models becomes a search for alternatives and thereby defines the terms by which poets can chart their own course These are some of the things I have touched in my life that are forbidden paintings behind velvet ropes electric fencing a vault in an office gun in a drawer my brother s folding money the poet s anus the black holes in his heart where his life went out of him Tell me what is the long stretch of road for if not to sort out the reasons why we are here and why we do what we do from why we are not in the other lane doing what others do Poetry is like food remarked one of my first teachers freeing me to dislike Rocky Mountain Oysters and Robert Lowell The menu is vast the list of things I don t want in my mouth relatively short C D Wright author of nine books of poetry teaches at Brown University She lives in Providence Rhode Island with poet Forrest Gander
