Conklin, 2014-01-10 Hollywood films have presented audiences with stories of campus life for nearly a century shaping popular perceptions of our colleges and universities and the students who attend them These depictions of campus life have even altered the attitudes of the students themselves serving as both a mirror of and a model for behavior One can only imagine how many high school seniors enter college today with the hopes of living the proverbial Animal House or PCU Greek experience or how many have worried over the SAT and college admissions after watching more recent movies like 2004's The Perfect Score This book explores themes of college life in 681 live action theatrically released feature length films set in the United States and released from 1915 through 2006 evaluating how these movies both reflected and distorted the reality of undergraduate life Topics include college admissions the freshman experience academic work professor student relations student romance fraternity and sorority life sports political activism and other extracurricular activities The book also includes a complete filmography and 66 illustrations The Movies are Carl Sandburg, 2000 A compilation of hundreds of Sandburg's writings on film during the silent era for the Chicago Daily News showing how this great American writer was an early champion of movies and their possibilities and thus set the stage for future film criticism Maximum Movies—Pulp Fictions Peter Stanfield, 2011-07-15 In the words of Richard Maltby Maximum Movies Pulp Fictions describes two improbably imbricated worlds and the piece of cultural history their intersections provoked One of these worlds comprises a clutch of noisy garish pulp movies Kiss Me Deadly Shock Corridor Fixed Bayonets I Walked with a Zombie The Lineup Terror in a Texas Town Ride Lonesome pumped out for the grind houses at the end of the urban exhibition chain by the studios B divisions and fly by night independents The other is occupied by critics intellectuals cinephiles and filmmakers such as Jean Luc Godard Manny Farber and Lawrence Alloway who championed the cause of these movies and incited the cultural guardians of the day by attacking a rigorously policed canon of tasteful rarified and ossified art objects Against the legitimate and in defense of the illegitimate in an insolent and unruly manner they agitated for the recognition of lurid sensational crime stories war pictures fast paced Westerns thrillers and gangster melodramas were claimed as examples of the true the real and the authentic in contemporary culture the foundation upon which modern film studies sits Movies at Home Kerry Segrave, 1999-01-01 The relationship of Hollywood and television initially turbulent has ultimately been profitable from the first sally in what was expected to be a war of attrition up through the soliciting of movies by major networks independent stations basic cable networks premium cable channels pay per view systems and even the corner video store When their initial efforts to acquire ownership interests in television outlets were thwarted Hollywood's major movie studios determined to withhold from the tube not only their films but also their actors no doubt in hopes of making the rival medium appear a weak substitute for cinema With ticket sales shrinking and television set purchases booming the studios erasing their last contemptuously drawn line in the sand grudgingly released their films to television and made a fortune Elvis Presley Concerts and
