Mission Possible Eva Moskowitz, Arin

Lavinia, 2012-06-25 Strategies for making the schools we need that work for all kids. Eva Moskowitz, the founder and CEO of the Success Charter Network in Harlem, and Arin Lavinia offer practical classroom tested ideas for dramatically improving teaching and learning. Moskowitz and Lavinia reveal how a charter school in the middle of Harlem enrolling neighborhood children selected at random emerged as one of the top schools in New York City and State within three years. The results of the Harlem school were on a par with public schools for gifted students and elite private schools. Describes what can be accomplished when students and adults all work to focus on constant learning and performance improvement. DVD clips can be accessed using a special link included in the book. The Success Academies have been featured in two popular and widely distributed documentaries: Waiting for Superman and The Lottery. Details the Success Academies THINK Literacy curriculum which produces dramatic results in student's reading and writing skills. In addition to providing strategies and lessons for school leaders and teachers, Secrets of the Success Academies also serves as a guide for parents, policymakers, and practitioners who are passionate about closing the academic achievement gap.

Partnering With Parents in Elementary School Math

Hilary Kreisberg, Matthew L. Beyranevand, 2021-02-15 How to build productive relationships in math education. I wasn't taught this way. I can't help my child. These are common refrains from today's parents and guardians who are often overwhelmed, confused, worried, and frustrated about how to best support their children with what they see as the new math. The problem has been compounded by the shift to more distance learning in response to a global pandemic. Partnering With Parents in Elementary School Math provides educators with long overdue guidance on how to productively partner and communicate with families about their children's mathematics learning. It includes reproducible surveys, letters, and planning documents that can be used to improve the home school relationship which in turn helps students, parents, teachers, and education leaders alike. Readers will find guidance on how to understand and empathize with what fuels parents' anxieties and concerns. Align as a school and set parents' expectations about what math instruction their children will experience and how it will help them Communicate clearly and productively with parents about their students progress strengths and needs in math Run informative and fun family events support homework Coach parents to portray a productive disposition about math in front of their children Educators families and students are best served when proactive productive and healthy relationships have been developed with each other and with the realities of today s math education This guide shows how these relationships can be built
