One Tough Mother Taking Charge In Life Business And Apple Pies:

One Tough Mother Gert Boyle, 2005 Gert Boyle shares the story of how she turned a smallish family firm into a booming success after being left in charge of Columbia Sportswear upon her husband's death in 1970 and tells about her personal life and challenges as the daughter of Jewish immigrants young widow and mother of three Mark O. Hatfield Richard W. Etulain, 2021-07-08 In a career in public office spanning five decades Mark Odom Hatfield 1922 2011 never lost an election First elected to the Oregon House of Representatives in 1950 he retired from political office in 1997 after serving as Oregon state senator secretary of state and governor and as United States senator for five terms He was arguably the state's most important politician but his brand of liberal to moderate Republicanism has long since vanished from the political stage Mark O Hatfield Oregon Statesman tells Hatfield's story as an Oregonian a politician and a man of practical vision deep convictions and far reaching consequence in the civic life of the state and the nation A lifelong evangelical Christian and Republican per his mother's fondest wishes and politically inclined from a young age Hatfield came to office after studying and teaching political science and observing firsthand the ravages of war in the Pacific and the cruelty of segregation at home Historian Richard W Etulain portrays Hatfield as an energetic young Republican legislator in a state becoming increasingly Democratic He pushed civil rights legislation supported laborers as well as business interests and struck a balance that would align him with moderates even as the party's conservative wing became ascendant Elected in 1958 as Oregon's youngest ever governor Hatfield went on to become the first in the twentieth century to hold that office for two terms using his tenure to streamline the state's executive branch and promote Oregon as a prime destination for business and tourism efforts that quickly earned him a place on the national stage Etulain focuses on Hatfield as a force in Oregon state politics but also examines his long tenure as a U S senator garnering attention early for his stance against the Vietnam War and later for his antinuclear position The private life the public figure the man of faith and family of an older West and the new this biography while compact captures Mark Hatfield in full as a major western politician of the twentieth century Shopping All the Way to the Woods Rachel S. Gross, 2024-03-26 A fascinating history of the profitable paradox of the American outdoor experience visiting nature first requires shopping No escape to nature is complete without a trip to an outdoor recreational store or a browse through online offerings This is the irony of the American outdoor experience visiting wild spaces supposedly untouched by capitalism first requires shopping With consumers spending billions of dollars on clothing and equipment each year as they seek out nature the American outdoor sector grew over the past 150 years from a small collection of outfitters to an industry contributing more than 2 percent of the nation's economic output Rachel S Gross argues that this success was predicated not just on creating functional equipment but also on selling an authentic anticommmercial outdoor identity In other words shopping for the woods was also about being or becoming the right kind of person Demonstrating that outdoor culture is commercial culture Gross examines Americans journey toward outdoor expertise by tracing the development of the nascent outdoor goods industry the influence of World War II on its growth and the boom years of outdoor businesses
